The most prominent TS in the cemetery is that of John Robe Howland, son of Izatus and Sarah Robe Howland. The T S is tall and can be seen from the highway, Route 125. More about this family in Genealogical Notes and Obits.

HATFIELD FAMILY

Thomas Hatfield, a Rev War soldier, and family are buried in the SW corner of the cemetery. In this section with Thomas and wife, Martha Adamson, is their son, David, his wife, Lettica, and their five children. Lettica was a daughter of John Middleton and Elizabeth West, daughter of John West and Eleanor Edwards. After Lettica's death, David married Matilda Middleswart. Their infant son is buried here. Matilda followed her family to Indiana after David's death and is buried in Greensburg, Indiana, according to the Ripley Bee of 17 Feb 1917. Thomas Hatfield's will is in Book 2, page 56, in Brown Co., Ohio, Probate Court. There is also a marriage record for Thomas Hatfield (80)and Anna Young (55), married 15 June 1840, by James Wright, JP.. Thomas died in 1843, 84 yrs..

Marcus Hatfield and wife, Mary Wills, and their son David, are buried in this section. This David Hatfield married Martha Ann Edwards, daughter of Darius and Jane Geeslin Edwards, and had one son, John Erwin. David died when his son was a year old. Martha Ann and her son lived with her mother, Jane Geeslin Edwards, until he became self-supporting, after which they moved to Eckmansville, in Adams County. He cared for his mother until her death, and then continued to live in their home, never marrying. He was affectionately called "Daddy Hatfield" by all his neighbors. Daddy was famous for telling a person he found working on a project that "You "ort"to do that" a certain way. He was a good man, and neighbors who remember him still enjoy reminiscing about his good points and quirks. David would have been proud of his son's kindness to his mother. Mother and son are buried in the Liberty Chapel Cemetery on the Edwards lot.

X Sarah Hatfield, daughter of Thomas and Martha Hatfield, married Thomas Johnson. Thomas Johnson and his daughter, Sarah Jane, are buried in the Hatfield section. Sarah Hatfield Johnson moved to Indiana to live with her family after the death of her husband and daughter. She is bur. ~~may be buried in the area of Shelbyville~~, Indiana. See death of her son in GENEALOGICAL NOTES AND OBITS.

MAURER-Eli served in the Civil War. Eli and James, who may be his son, are buried here. In 1880, James and Joseph Maurer are living in the home of James Morris, in Byrd Township, and are listed as gr-sons. Evidently their parents are deceased. No research was done on this family. Now there is a Morris-Maurer intermarriage, and a Morris-Draper intermarriage.

Frazier, William Ellison, is an uncle of Richard Frazier who lives in Russellville, Ohio.

NOTE The above genealogical sketches are meant only to show the relationship of the people buried in this cemetery. More research must be done to complete a family history as other members of the family are buried elsewhere in the county or in other states.

Jonas Hatfield Estate by Eva Mae Davis

pg44 (1843-45) Chancery Book #7, of Brown Co., Ohio, contains a petetion to partition land owned by Jonas Hatfield, filed by Marcus(Marquis) Hatfield vs Hamet Hatfield, et al. This record solved the mystery of who were the parents of Guy Hatfield who married Margaret Pickerill, daughter of John L. Pickerill and Sarah Ann Howland. There were seven sons who inherited the estate. The record states that the real estate had been deeded as a gift to the widow and heirs of Jonas Hatfield by his father Thomas Hatfield. The first petetion was filed November 25, 1842. I did not find a record of the death of Sarah, the wife of Jonas, but she is not mentioned in the document so she is evidently deceased. Neither one has a tombstone. Thomas Hatfield and Marcus are buried in the West Cemetery. This cemetery is located very close to the real estate of Jonas & Thomas Hatfield.

October 25, 1842, Samuel Kerr was appointed guardian of John Hatfield, 19, Wilson Hatfield, 16, Thomas Jefferson Hatfield, 14, and Guy Hatfield, 12. In one of the documents that I looked at Guy was erroneously called George. Marcus Hatfield, Isom Hatfield and Hamet Hatfield, the other sons, were of age and did not require a guardian.

The 100 acres were appraised at $19 per acre and ordered to be sold at the court house door on Saturday, November 11, 1843. Izatus Howland purchased the farm for $16.37½ per acre, with 1/3 down, 1/3 to be paid in one year, and the balance and interest to be paid the second year. It was several years before the estates of the minor heirs were settled.

October 20, 1848, Marcus Hatfield was appointed administrator of the estate of Wilson Hatfield, file #7210, in the Probate Court of Brown Co, Ohio. Marcus gave a $500 bond, secured by John Henry and David Hatfield, an uncle of Marcus and Wilson. The personal property was to be appraised by John West, William Pickerel and John R. Howland, all close neighbors of the Hatfields. Wilson Hatfield served in the Mexican War and had $60 due him for his service. It would be interesting to look at the military record of Wilson, and I plan to send for it later. Copy attached.

Hamet Hatfield married Elizabeth Middleton, a West descendant. She moved to Champaign Co., Ohio, and died there 21 April 1905, is buried in Jenkins Chapel Cemetery, in Wayne township, in Champaign Co., according to Donal West, who did research on the Middletons for a History of Champaign Co., Ohio. Hamet and Elizabeth were married in Brown Co., Ohio. Research needs to be done to determine if Hamet died in Brown Co, or lived to move to Champaign Co.. Evidently this family knew the parents of Hamet as a family sheet shows the parents are Jonas Hatfield and Sarah Mathews, married in Adams Co., Ohio, 8 April 1815, by John Longley.

This research was done by Eva Mae Davis to complete the family history of John L. Pickerill, her gr-uncle, who lived in Adams County, Ohio, for several years and died there in 1903. He is buried in the West Cemetery.

November 1990

The Chancery record was copied, but turned out very faint, almost impossible to read it.

See reverse for Sheriff's Sale of real estate. This land lies along Eagle Creek, between two crossings of the creek, and is now reached from Rt 353, by West Road near the Pickerill farm now owned by Richard Wiles. This road was used in horse & buggy & Model T days, and came through to George Miller Road at the farm now owned by Beulah and Mildred West, and below the West Cemetery where the Hatfields are buried.

Chancery Record 7, of Brown Co., Ohio, contains a petition to partition land owned by Jonas Hatfield, filed by Marcus(Marquis) Hatfield vs. Hamet Hatfield, et al. This record solved the mystery of who were the parents of Guy Hatfield who married Margaret Pickerill, daughter of John L. Pickerill and Sarah Ann Rowland. There were seven sons who inherited the estate. The record states that the real estate had been deeded as a gift to the widow and heirs of Jonas Hatfield by his father Thomas Hatfield. The first petition was filed November 25, 1853. I did not find a record of the death of Sarah, the wife of Jonas, but she is not mentioned in the document so she is evidently deceased. The 100 acres were appraised at $19 per acre and ordered to be sold at the court house door on Saturday, November 11, 1854. Isaac Rowland purchased the farm for $16.37½ per acre, with 1/3 down, 1/3 to be paid in one year, and the balance and interest to be paid the second year. It was several years before the estates of the minor heirs were settled.

October 20, 1863, Marcus Hatfield was appointed administrator of the estate of Wilson Hatfield, file #7209, in the Probate Court of Brown Co., Ohio. Marcus gave a $500 bond, secured by Isaac Rowland and David Hatfield. The personal property was to be appraised by John West, William Pickerel, and John R. Rowland, all close neighbors of the Hatfields. Wilson Hatfield served in the Mexican War and had $60 due him for his service. FOOTNOTES ach claim made about your ancestor must be proven. Each proving document you submit should be identified by ving it a letter (A, B, C, etc.) and clearly writing its identifying letter on the front. DO NOT SUBMIT ORIGINAL OCUMENTS. Copies of documents may be (1) photo or other facsimiles of the originals or (2) exact typed or hand-printed copies of the original certified as true copies by a court house official, genealogical librarian or other official. e source of each document should be indicated on the front.

ll out the chart. In each small square (found at the end of the lines) put the number of the footnote line (below) on which you cite the documents (including their identifying letters) which prove the claim to be true. For example, suppose you claim that Jane Roe died on 7 May 1847. On a blank footnote line cite the document which shows that this is so and write the number of that footnote line in the appropriate square. (Example: ....The said Jane Roe died on 7 May 1847 at Athens County Ohio. ☐6 .... Footnote line 7. Death certificate – document F). Add additional squares if needed.

"Hist. of Br. Co., OH" 1883 by W. H. Beers

BYRD TOWNSHIP.

WILLIAM H. H. EDWARDS, farmer, P. O. Russellville, next to the youngest son of Darias and Jane Edwards, was born in Byrd Township July 17, 1840. October 10, 1861, he rallied to his country's call, and enlisted in Company A, Seventieth Regiment Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He took part in the following engagements: Shiloh Corinth, Vicksburg, LaGrange, Jackson and Lookout Mountain. He veteranized, and January 5, 1864, re-enlisted in the same company, and went on Sherman's long and toilsome march to the sea. He fought in all the battles up to Statesboro, Ga., where he, with fifteen others, was captured. He was confined in Florence prison three months till March, 1865, when he was paroled. He was honorably discharged June 15, 1865. He was married December 24, 1869, to Miss Lizzie T. Spears, a daughter of Spencer Spears. Three children were given to bless this union—Spencer D., Arthur E. and Archie H. (twins). Mr. and Mrs Edwards are members of the Christian Church. He owns a good farm of 120 acres.

WILLIAM A. GRIMES, farmer, P. O. Decatur. Joshua Grimes, the grandparent of our subject, located in this township, near the Adams County line about the year 1807. He cleared a farm and raised a family. John, the father of William, our subject, was then only sixteen years of age. He, John, married Mary Geeslin and they raised a family of nine children, six boys and three girls. Of these children, seven are living. Grandparent and father of William A., both died in this county; the latter in 1862. Both bore an active part in the early settlement of Brown County, and took an active interest in the M. E. Church, as well as township and county affairs. William A. Grimes was the fourth son born to his parents in Byrd Township, Brown County, in 1834. He was married in 1857, to Miss Julia, daughter of Noah and Martha Pettingen. Mr. Grimes has always taken a keen interest in the growth and advancement of Brown County. For twenty years he has been prominently identified with the M. E. Church at Decatur, and is one of the enterprising, energetic farmers of the county. His living children are John W., Mary E., Minerva J., Laura, Maud and Ella. His estimable mother, who servives the father, is at this time living in the eighty-second year of her age.

DAVID HATFIFLD, farmer, an old and worthy pioneer, was born in Byrd Township October 15, 1805. His parents, Thomas and Martha (Adamson), were natives of Pennsylvania. They removed to Mason County, Ky., and April 4, 1804, came to Byrd Township, where Mr. Hatfield purchased a tract of 200 acres of land. This was all in woods, and he made the first improvements by clearing a spot and erecting a log cabin. They both died in Byrd Township, respected for their social traits of character. They were the parents of ten children, of whom only one, the subject of our sketch, is living, viz.: Thomas, John, Jonas, Isom, David, Mary, Sarah, Martha, Deborah and Betsey. David was married, in 1826, to Lettise Middleton, by whom he had ten children; of these four are living, viz.: Cornelia (wife of Russell West), David B., George E. and Ferdinand. Mrs. Hatfield died June 16, 1861, 1866 and May 30, 1869, Mr. Hatfield married Matilda Middleswart, who bore him two children, of these Mary L. is living. Mr. and Mrs. Hatfield are members of the Liberty Christian Church. Mr. Hatfield owns a farm of 118 acres of well improved land, and follows tilling the soil.

THOMAS C. HENRY, son of Col. John W. and Melinda Henry, was born in Byrd Township, April 16, 1852. He passed his early life on his father's farm, and was educated in the common schools. He celebrated his marriage, December 2, 1874, with Miss Josephine Wilson, a native of Union Township. She was born August 4, 1853, and is a daughter of John W. and Harriet Wilson. Three children were added to this union—Martha B., born August 13, 1876; George F., born May 6, 1878, and James W., born October 13, 1881. Mr. Henry located on his farm in 1880, and is

The "Book" that had both a Bride's and a Groom's surname listing was actually a booklet which appeared to have been hand typed. The "Title Page" was as follows:

"EARLY MARRIAGE RECORDS OF PENNSYLVANIA CHURCHES"
OLD SWEDE'S CHURCH (GLORIA DEI), PHILADELPHIA
1750 --- 1810

These records have been reprinted from the Second Series of "THE PENNSYLVANIA ARCHIVES" published in Harrisburg in 1878 under the direction of Matthew S. Quay, Secretary of the Commonwealth at that time, and edited by John B. Linn and Wm. H. Egle

1Hi Genny & Pete,

Have some info, mostly on EVANS, so might not interest Pete as much, but found a reference to HODGKINS as well.

Rec'd an EVANS history from Kathy Dix, a Chester Co, PA researcher, that she had received from Larry Golden. I don't think I sent this already, but let me know if I have! Have written e-mail to him but it bounced. It is at the end below. I think it is the ancestors of our Elizabeth Evans Hodgkins and Amos & Joshua Evans. Had sent word earlier on an Evans family that was entered in LDS Ancestral Files, which seems to be the same family, and seems likely as "ours". See what you think.

Was at the LDS library tonite and rechecked that info. From the way the dates were entered it looked like it was taken from wills, then found will abstracts from Chester Co, PA on fiche that had a will for Philip EVANS dated 13 April 1779:

3270 Philip EVANS - Aston Apr 13, 1779

There is also a will for David EVANS, stated as father to Philip above in history, dated 12-16-1709/10 and May 17, 1710 in Radnor, Chester Co, PA.

didn't have time to finish copying this abstract or check others but hope to get back there soon, and/or send for these wills from Chester Co.

Read in History of Caervarnon Twp, Lancaster PA, that the Welsh settlers that came there in 1720's came from Radnor, Chester Co.

There was another abstract in those volumes (4 vol in all) that has a

Subject: Evans from Wales

Generation No. 1

Howel was born ca 1550 in Wales. Believed to have lived in the Parish of Llanvachreth, Merionrthshire. In 1600 he was alive and heir to certain lands which had formerly belonged to Howell ap Griffith Derwal, who was his grandfather or great-grandfather. Probably died in Parish of Llanvachreth, Merionrthshire, Wales. The only child of Howell that I am aware of is.....

Generation No. 2

William Powel was born ca 1580 in Parish of Llanvachreth, Merionethshire, Wales, and died in Parish of Llanvachreth, Merionethshire, Wales. The children of William Powell of whom I am aware are.....

i. Evan William Powel, born ca 1611 in on family estate in Parish of Llanvachreth, Talybont, Merionethshire, Wales; died 1684 in at sea on voyage to Pennsylvania.

ii. John William. (Nothing more known.)

Generation No. 3

Evan William Powel was born ca 1611 on the family estate in Parish of Llanvachreth, Talybont, Merionethshire, Wales, and died 1684 at sea on voyage to Pennsylvania.

He signed a Certificate of Membership for Elizabeth Humphrey of Llanegrin, Merioneth, widow. Dated 27 5mo 1683. From Merioneth Quarterly Meeting. He signed as Evan Will Powel. Also signed was David Evans.

Evan William Powel, of the parish of Llanvachreth, gentleman, (alias Evan William and Evan ap William. Deed 30, 31 July 1682 for land in Pennsylvania. (Deed Book C.I. 252 Phila.) Sailed for Pennsylvania 1684.

Letters of Attorney, dated 27 July 1683, Evan ap William, of Llanvachraeth, co. Merioeth, and David Evans of the same place, to John Roberts, of Llangian, co., Carnarvon, to take possession of 312 1/2 acres of land in Pennsylvania.

According to some data that was collected for COL DUDLEY EVANS, President of Wells Fargo Express Company at the time of his death in 1910, it appears that "In more, or less direct descent from Gruffydd Derwess was Evans William Powell (or Howell, for these names were interchangeable in Wales), born, in the Parish of Llanvareth Merionethshire, about 1610, styled in the public records.-as "Gentleman", who having for some years been convinced of the truth as preached by the Society of Friends, became a Quaker and decided to remove to the New World."

"The Friends endured severe persecutions under Cromwell and afterwards under Charles II, and many families had already left home and country for the sake of religious freedom. William Penn's Colony in Pennsylvania, known as the Great Welsh Tract, was the objective point of their pilgrimage, and we read that in 1683, Evan William Howell (Or Powell) purchased from Richard Davis one hundred fifty-six and a quarter acres of land in the Colony of 'Pennsylvania. His sons bought an equal amount of land there, and in a short time the family set sail for America. There were in this family: EVAN WILLIAM POWELL, about seventy-three years old; Gwenn, his wife; David his oldest son, about forty years old; Gainor, his wife; David's two children, under age; Philip, youngest son of Evan William Powell."

According to tho Quaker custom they received a CERTIFICATE of character from the home Meeting, which reads as follows:

"The Certificate of Removal of Evan ap William Howell (alias Howell) 1683
To all People whom these may concern, Whereas Evan ap William Powell late inhabitant in the Pariah of Llanvachrreth in the County of Merioneth in North Wales, together with his wife Gwen, his two Sons David & Philip also his daughter in law Gainor with her two small children are all upon their removal (the Lord makeing their way thereunto) from their native Country in North Wales aforsd unto the Province of Pennsylvania in America; and Whereas Likewise many leave been Known to transport themselves upon the acct. of their Evill doeingds, as theft murther, Debts or running away in passionate discontentedness with parents, wives or the like; Therefore we thought it, our duty to Certify of this family as follows:-

As in our relation to ye sd, Evan ap William,, Yt is Known & reputed among all sorts of people of his acquaintance to be an honest plain man, fearing God & Zealous of Good Works, not Given to Covetiousness, inclinable to deeds of Charity upon all just occasion, upon wch. Acct. Otherwise minded people took occasion to Call him a , Quaker for above

30 years past; And his conversation since hath been onest & Savory in soo much yt his wife, Gwen came to be like minded, and of a good example to her children and others, by wch means alsoo their children came to be affected with truth inocency & an inocent Conversation to this day.

And Whereas Alsoe David Evans is now married we doe certify yt he was careful in his choice of an honest woman yt feared God & walked blamelessly & lived in love &,unity with those yt are honest, as Alsoo with one another; And of Philip we doe certify yt he doth hath carried himself amongst us as became ye Gospell of peace & Salvation. And yt his departure from us Is both in unity & amnity, & a clean Single man from being intangled either by word Covenant or any other obligation with any woman kind, as in relation to marriage, or from being spotted with any defamation, otherwise for all yt we Know or heard of: this we thoughit fitt to recommend unto ye testimony of your truly loving Friends:

John Williams Evans was born 1790 in Monongahela County, Virginia, and died 09 Feb 1874 in buried in Walters Christian Cemetery, Noble and Washington Counties Ohio. He married Nancy Wells 13 Oct 1813 in Monongahela County, Virginia.

The following record in "War of 1812: Virginia Bounty Land & Pension Applications" could very well be this guy (then again maybe not!): "Evans, John (Bounty Land Warrent), died July 31, 1869, Perry County, Ohio; married July 1821 to Elizabeth (Pension), Louden County, Va. She died July 22, 1887. Last known address New Straitsville, Perry County, Ohio, 1878."

1835 - October 12, 1835. Listed as the purchaser of land in presumably Washington County, Ohio. Two separate transactions on the same day. One for R07,T04, S30 and the other for R07, T05, S25. At the time of the purchase his residence as Monongalia County, Virginia.

1836 - He moved from Monongalia County to what became Elk Township, Noble County, Ohio.

1839 -July 30, 1839. Listed as purchaser of land in Washington County, Ohio R07, T04, S30. Note the previous transaction in 1835.

1860 - Census - Elk Twp, Noble County, Ohio. Pg 379, line 10, house 1736. He is listed John Evans, 69m, farmer owning land and born in Virginia. He is listed with his wife Nancy, 66 born in Md. There is another group of Evans living with them:

Dudley Evans 26 m Va
Mary Evans 29 f Va
Masia Evans 4f Ohio
Benj. Evans 7m Ohio and one more individual who seems to be May A. Vina 11f Ohio.

Children of John Evans and Nancy Wells are:
i. Julia Ann Evans was born 04 Jul 1826 in Monongalia County, Virginia, and died 14 Apr 1898. She married John Walters 23 May 1844, son of William Walters and ________.

Crosley Family Tree

This is an old family of yeoman origin on the border between Lancashire and Yorkshire, England. The name is a local one on the Yorkshire side of the valley of Todmordan, where there is a place to this day called Crosley. It was doubtless so named at first from the fact that after introduction of Christianity a cross was set up on the leigh or ley or lie, which was untilled lands, meadow or pasture, and the place in turn gave name to the family that dwelt there. The Crosley Family is of English descent.

Opposite to Crosley on the Lancashire side of the valley is Scaitcliffe. It seems as though the original Crosleys embraced this Scaitcliffe, which according to Whitaker was formerly called Crossleigh. Members of the family have lived in the immediate neighborhood since the earlier part of the fourteenth century.

An earlier printed pedigrees derive the Scaitcliffe families in unbroken succession from Adam del Croslegh of Todmorden, on vill de Honnersfield, and his wife, Matilda who as appears from the earliest extent deed lived about the year 1350. The accepted pedigree is as follows:

I

Adam del Croslegh - 1350 - Matilda

II

John del Croslegh - married before 1366 - Johanna

III

William del Croslegh who was alive in 1411 - as per deed in Todmorden on Monday next, after feast of ST. Andrews.
He was married and had Thomas del Crosleigh who married before 1411 and had

IV

Richard del Crosleigh who married and had Richard Crosle da Cartcliffe, who was alive in February 20, 1545.

The following is based on proved documents and records and begins with Richard Crosle, 1545, and whose widow married John Haworth, 1574. Descendants of Richard have continuously held the same property until the present day, and the direct male line being unbroken until the death of John Crosley, June 4, 1864.

ATTESTED LINEAGE

I

Richard Croslie or Crossley, 1545. Lancaster County married Alice. They had three sons and two daughters.

(1) R. C. Crossley, II
(2) William
(3) James
(4) Alice
(5) Margaret

II

R. C. Crossley, II of Scaitcliffe died about 1588 - the eldest sons of Richard Croslie. He married Elizabeth Whitley and had five sons and one daughter.

(1) Richard
(2) Anthony
(3) John of Ramsden
(4) James of Whitt Sháws
(5) Jeremy - His wife was buried at Todmorden, December 31, 1633
(6) A daughter - name not given

III

Anthony Crosley of Scaitcliffe (died 1624). He was the second sons of Richard of Scaitcliffe. He married Mary and had six children.

(1) John
(2) Abraham - married in 1615 Mary Taylor of Stansfield. He died 1643.
(3) Luke
(4) Samuel died at Scatcliffe Mar 4, 1674. He married Anne And she died December 12, 1682.
(5) Susana - Kershaw
(6) Mary

In English genealogy the sons are always given first, beginning with the oldest and the daughters follows afterward.

IV

John Crosley-Crossley, of Scatcliffe. Died 1646. He married in 1615 Dorothea Lorde-daughter of Richard Lorde of Godplege, Lancaster County. Her dower was 140 pounds. They had seven sons. John, the oldest, succeeded to the estate.

From John of 1646 the line descends through many generations to the present head of the Crosley family in England, who is Sir Kenneth Irwin Crosley, the second baronet who succeeded his father in 1911. He married June 25, 1901 Florence Josephine Field, Daughter of Joseph Nash Field of Chicago (United States of America Lineage - by Burke). Burke in his peerage of Great Britain says, “This family is descendant from Crossley of Scatcliffe and settled at Todmorden in the time of Edward III.”

Hi everyone-

Located a copy of the History of Western Maryland, J. Thomas Scharf. The Will of Thomas Powell Sr of 1776 is not in the book as an abstract. What is there, on p. 432 is his name and the fact that a will exists. I did find elsewhere that the will is suppose to be on file in Annapolis, MD. I will plan on going to Annapolis to get a copy but I don't know when since that is the only thing I KNOW that I need from there. If anyone turns up a copy in the meantime, I'll cross it off my "to do" list.

Comment by Lois - Have I found brothers?

Marriage Licenses of Frederick Co 1778-1810
Apr 4 1809 Powell, Delilah to GRIFFITH, John [Emphasis Lois']
Jun 2 1780 Powell, Eliz'th to Jacques, Denton
Mar 24 1801 Powell, Elizabeth to Albert, Christian
May 21 1798 Powell, Hannah to Garner, Luke
Dec 24 1805 Powell, Jonathan to Yantis, Barbara
Feb 9 1805 Powell, Nancy to Jackson, Henry
Apr 11 1803 Powell, Nathan to Zimmerman, Margaret
Feb 4 1809 Powell, Nathan to Engles, Eleanor
Apr 4 1810 Powell, Nathaniel to Engles, Elein
Oct 14 1809 Powell, Susanna to Newman, George
Nov 26 1810 Powell, Thomas to Greenwood, Eleanor Jan 11 1779 Powell, William to Edwards, Mary

Comment by Lois - Marriage licenses were not required until 1777.

Old Swedes' Church Marriage Records (Philadelphia, PA)
Thomas Prowell and Rachel Griffith, 21 Sep 1752

Comment by Lois - Really think this is worth investigating much further.
Is this our Sarah and Rachel Powell's mother? Is this GRIFFITH perhaps a relative to John Griffith who married Delilah in Frederick Co in 1809?

As usual, a research trip has lead to more questions than answers.
More later.

ABUSED COVENANTERS SETTLED PENNS.'S CUMBERLAND VALLEY

Early in the 18th century the persecuted Coventers found an asylum in the inviting region of the Cumberland Valley, Pa., and settled down to the honorable vocation of husbandmen. The principal settlements were along the Conococheague Creek which word, in the Indian language, means indeed a long way. Settlements were also made along the Octorara, Pequea, Conestoga, Swatara, and other small streams that flow into the Susquehanna from the east. These clusters of families scattered all over the eastern part of Pennsylvania had been trained in the faithful practices of the Covenanter Church beyond the sea, and did not fellowship with other denominations in religious worship, but after the example of their ancestors met at each other's houses for social worship.

In 1720, a society formed at Paxtang, Dauphin County, and among the families were those of McClure, Wilson, Wills, Foster, Gilmore, Gray, Rutherford and Espy. Still farther north on the Susquehanna near Milton, Northumberland County, dwelt the families of Hugh Wilson, John Boyd and Samuel Brown, as early as 1728. In 1731 there were a few families on The Barrens in York County. In Adams County they settled upon an immense tract of land in 1736, called the Manor of Maske, which was given by the Province. The principal settlements were at Octorara, Lancaster County; Paxtang, Dauphin County; and Conococheague, Franklin County. The forefathers of the Wilson family, and the ancestors of the ministers of The Church by that name, settled in Franklin County about 1730, and about 1750, removed to the Cove valley, a little west of the Blue Ridge, and some twenty-five miles from Chambersburgh. The McConnells, also, who subsequently became related to the Wilson family, resided in the Cove at the time of the Indian massacre in 1756. They all migrated to the region of the Yough, in Western Pennsylvania, in 1769 (From: History of the Reformed Presbyterian Church in America, W.M. Glasgow, 1888).

CHARLES BENTON PURDIN, SR.

Charles Benton Purdin, Sr. was born on July 22, 1797, in Kent County, Delaware. Soon afterwards, his parents, William and Hulda (Melvin) Purdin, moved to Redstone, Virginia, (now West Virginia) where the family engaged in farming for about a year before going across Pennsylvania to Ohio where they settled in Brown County.

Charles grew up in Ohio and was married in Brown County, Ohio, to Mary Duffy on August 24, 1818. She had been born in Mercer Co., Pennsylvania on December 30, 1800, and was the daughter of John Duffy (the inventor of the Duffy "pot belly" stove). Her father was born in County Tyronne, Ireland, about 1772 and was a weaver and spinner by trade in Ireland. He came to America about 1793 and was married about 1795-96 to Nancy Robb, who was born in Ireland in 1772-3. She was a fairly large woman.

John and Nancy Duffy were in Mercer County, Pennsylvania, by 1794 where James was born in 1797; Andrew in 1798; and Mary on Dec. 30, 1800. James married twice, the second time to Jane Thornton. He followed the Ohio River several years, running flatboats down and pushing or poleing keel boats up. Andrew married someone named Kezzie and was a farmer but had a general store and woodyard at Hanover Landing near New Washington, Clark Co., Indiana.

Mary went with her family to Maysville, Kentucky, about 1814. After her marriage her parents moved to No. Madison, Indiana,, about 1819. Nancy Robb Duffy died there.

There were other children by John and Nancy Duffy: John, Jr., married Lavinia McCaslin; Rebecca married Andrew Davidson; William Robb married Melissa Cooper and Mrs. Elizabeth (Thomas) Perkins; Elizabeth married John Fewell; Alexander married Sarah White; Nancy married James Hibbs or Hobbs; Thomas married Katherine Carmichael of Cincinnati. Then John Duffy, Sr. remarried and the children by his second wife were: Charles; Melissa, who married William Montgomery; and Milton.

Mary (Duffy) Purdin's father and mother had been married by John Wesley and in 1819 Charles Benton Purdin joined the Methodist church. A son, John, was born to Charles and Mary on July 16, 1819. After his birth, Charles Benton and Mary moved to No. Madison, Jefferson County, Indiana, where Mary's mother had died. They stayed there until 1834.

Charles Benton had first begun life as a farmer, but owing to rheumatism he learned the chairmaking trade in Madison. He followed this occupation about 8 years.

Martha was born June 23, 1821. Rebecca was born August 22, 1822. William Loring was born May 17, 1824. Alexander was born July 18, 1826. Martin Luther was born October 1, 1828. Ira was born January 2, 1831. Allen Wesley was born June 10, 1833.

As a child, William Loring developed what was called "white swelling" which affected the bones and the doctors said they would have to amputate. His mother said "No" and it was decided to go south. So in 1834, the family moved to Missouri and for two years lived at New Franklin, Howard County.

Charles Benton's brother, Ira Ellis Purdin, early in 1825 had moved from Mayville, Kentucky (where John and Nancy Duffy had gone in 1814) to Boonville, Missouri, where he engaged in cabinet making. He was also connected with the grocery business two years and with the hotel business twelve years. He is shown in Cooper Co. in the 1830 and 1840 Missouri census index. After leaving Boonville, he spent two years in Linn County, Missouri, and ten years in Boone County, near Columbia, during which tim he engaged in agriculture and stock-raising. He is shown in the Boone Co. 1850 Missouri census index (p. 407).

James H. was born December 11, 1835, in Missouri, to Charles and Mary. Then, in 1836, the family went to Glasgow, also in Howard County, where Charles Benton built the first house of that city. It was a log building, with one room, and floored with plank brought down the Chariton River. Charles Benton, Jr., was born here May 23, 1838.

The family then moved to Linn County and settled on a tract of 400 acres of government land five miles north of Linneus. Charles Benton Purdin appears in the 1840 census of Linn County, Missouri. And also in that for 1850 (p. 14). The son, Alexander, who was 13 years old when his parents came to Benton township in Linn County told many interesting stories of the Pioneer life of the state where he hunted bears, wolves, and wild turkeys before the railroads were built and previous to the Civil War.

Twins, Sarah Elisabeth and Mary Deborah, were born July 26, 1841.

Mary (Duffy) Purdin died February 11, 1857, at the age of 56.

Charles Benton Purdin later married a widow, Mrs. Lydia Ann (Logan) Lee, daughter of William Logan of Kentucky. To this union, four daughters were born: Lou Ann, born in 1859; Isabel "Belle" born around 1861; Bettie Ray, born in 1862; and Nettie, born around 1865.

Thirty-seven acres of his land was deeded to the railroad for the town that was named in honor of Charles Benton Purdin on May 28, 1873. In addition to his government land, Charles Benton later purchased 160 acres of adajacent land for $1.25 per acre.

Charles Benton had moved from his farm in 1868 to Linneus, where he lived until his death from phthisic on February 11, 1887, at the age of 89. He was buried in the Purdin cemetery with members of his family who had preceded him. Lydia Ann died October 26, 1888, at the age of 67. Her funeral was at Linneus but she was buried at Purdin.

During the Civil War, Charles Benton Purdin was in strong sympathy with the South, but he never did own slaves and had said he would not have one of the black devils on his place if he never got any work done.

The Purdin family in Missouri was Methodist and this faith held up down through the generations. Charles Benton opposed the division of the church, but when the split came, he went with the Southern wing. The congregation to which he belonged and which held service at his house for 12 years never divided.

Politically, Charles Benton Purdin was an old Jackson Democrat and never voted any other ticket since "Old Hickory" made his second presidential race.

He had received a limited education and having received but meager educational advantages, he was bent on educational advantages for his children.

THE KINNETT FAMILY

VALENTINE KINNETT was born in Pennsylvania in 1798 and settled on a 100 acre farm in Brown County, Ohio, shortly after the turn of the nineteenth century. He was united in marriage to Susan McConnell and they had twelve children: Samuel, James, John, Thomas, Arthur, George, Levi,*Valentine, Jr., Mary, Margaret, Elizabeth and Susan. Valentine, Sr., and his wife Susan, lived most of their lives on this farm where they died at an advanced age. m. augustine McCarty Valentine, JR.; 1st was born May 29, 1825, and died January 6, 1916. He married Jerusha Hill, born May 20, 1826, died November 31, 1882. They are buried in the Glaze Cemetery near Russellville, Ohio, and were the parents of eight children:

* James Perry Kinnett, born October 12, 1849, died December 22, 1936
— Andrew J. Kinnett, born October 30, 1851, died September 6, 1856
— George B. Kinnett, born October 14, 1853, died January 23, 1864
— Darin E. Kinnett, born August 21, 1857, died February 3, 1864
— Minerva E. Kinnett, born September 17, 1860, died January 18, 1864
(both Conf. Cem.) William F. Kinnett, born February 25, 1863, died September 20, 1924 m. 4 Sept 1884 Br. Co., OH 13:344 J. P. Daugherty Edna Cahall 1865–1945
Arthur "Mack" Kinnett, born August 21, 1866, died May 23, 1950
Frances May McConnell Kinnett, born January 28, 1869, died June 17, 1942.

Valentine, JR. 15 July 1883 Br. Co., OH Vol 13:22 J. P. Daugherty married secondly, Mary Ann White b. 17 Jan. 1836 tbst who died January 23, 1917. She was born January 17, 1834, and is buried in Pisgah Cemetery. No children were born to this second marriage. (See the White-Davidson Family.)

Of the eight children born to Valentine and Jerusha Kinnett, four died early in life. They were: Andrew J., George B., Darin E., and Minerva E. Three of these four died within one month of diphtheria fever. Records of those who reached adulthood are as follows:

Br. Co., OH Vol 9:39 J. S. West MG

James Perry Kinnett, Rheuy oldest child of Valentine and Jerusha (Hill) Kinnett, was married to Rua Ann Kirkpatrick by Reverend Joseph S. West MG on December 31, 1874. She was born December 9, 1855, and died December 9, 1936. They are buried in the Decatur Cemetery. Two boys, Marion T. * and Cyrus Elmer were born to this couple.

(both) Maplewood Cem.

Marion Tweed Kinnett, born September 25, 1875, passed away May 28, 1963. He was married to Birdie Seipelt on Br. Co., OH Vol 18:294 W. Mefford MG October 2, 1895. She was born July 3, 1874 and passed away on October 17, 1953. They were married by the Reverend Walker Mefford. Marion and Birdie went to housekeeping on a farm near Russellville, later moving to her father's farm at the top of the hill on Chicken Hollow Pike. Still later, they purchased the Galbraith Farm at the top of Pisgah Hill Road in 1904. A beautiful view of Pisgah Church and Cemetery can be had from this residence. Marion, (Grandpa) as he was fondly known, and his entire family took an active interest in Pisgah Church as well as the entire community. The family was essentially known for its services on Memorial and Homecoming Days, or whenever other activities were taking place at the church. Marion always managed to have plenty of ice water available during these hot summer days. He was a sincere person, admired and respected by everyone who knew him. Marion and Birdie Kinnett celebrated their Golden Wedding Anniversary on October 2, 1945. They lived on Pisgah Ridge over sixty years, or until they passed away. Both are buried in the newer section of Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio. Two girls, Anna Mary and Garnett May were born to this couple. (See Marion Tweed Kinnett.)

Anna Mary Kinnett was born April 11, 1899, and was married to Clarence Cahall on October 7, 1914. He was born September 27, 1890 and died June 5, 1956. They were married by the Revered W. H. Christian of Georgetown, Ohio. They went to housekeeping on their farm near Pisgah Church which Anna Mary joined at an early age under the labors of the Reverend Burgett. She attended Sunday School regularly and for a number of years was the church organist. When regular services were discontinued at Pisgah Church, she moved her membership to the Methodist Centenary Church at Ripley, Ohio. She became a member of the Danberry Chapter, Number 230, Eastern Star, on February 14, 1951. Her husband, Clarence, also took an active part in the Pisgah Church affairs. He was Superintendent of the Pisgah Ridge Sunday School for many years. Mr. Cahall served as a Township Trustee and was a member of the Township School Board. For a while, Anna Mary and Clarence owned and operated a confectionery in Ripley which she disposed of after his death. Just about all of Clarence Cahall's ancestors are buried in Pisgah Cemetery. He, however, was a member of the Red Oak Presbyterian Church and is buried in the newer section of Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio. This couple had one child, Marion Bayne Cahall.

Marion B.ayne Cahall was born on Pisgah Ridge, November 3, 1915. He attended Union School in that District. On January 24, 1942, he was united in marriage to Mary Louise Green. He is active in civic affairs, served on the Brown County School Board for twelve years, is a member of the Masonic Lodge Number 71, a member of the Eastern Star, Chapter Number 230, and a member of the Ripley Methodist Church. This couple has three children: Bayne, Jr., is by a previous marriage of the father, and Gwendolin is by a previous marriage of the mother. The youngest child of Marion and Mary Louise is Charles Vern.

Bayne Cahall, son of Marion B.ayne cahall, was born February 9, 1935, and is married to Jane Vanlandingham. Their marriage took place on June 29, 1957. She was born January 19, 1941. They have two children: Tina Rae, born October 7, 1959, and Todd, born September 19, 1961.

Gwendolin, daughter of Mary Louise, was born December 28, 1939, and united in marriage to Glen Thatcher. They have four children: Glenda, born December 6, 1957; Richard, born March 15, 1959; Susie Lorraine, born April 11, 1960; and Mary Jo, born March 12, 1963.

Charles Vern, son of Bayne and Mary Louise, was born October 31, 1942. He married on April 7, 1962, Charlotte Summers, born January 28, 1944. He is a member of the Masonic Lodge, Number 71, and the Danberry Chapter, Number 230, Eastern Star, Ripley, Ohio. His childhood days were spent with his paternal grandparents, Anna Mary and Clarence Cahall. Charles and Charlotte have two sons: Charles Vern, Jr., born February 2, 1963, and Chaun David, born May 13, 1964.

Garnett May Kinnett, youngest daughter of Marion T. and Birdie Elnora (Seipelt) Kinnett, was born August 28, 1900. She attended school at Union and Levanna, joined Pisgah Ridge Church at an early age and took an active part in all the church activities. Later, she moved her church membership to the Centenary Church at Ripley, Ohio. She was united in marriage to Roy Dater Lawrence, son of India Ann (Mefford) and Fletcher Lawrence, December 26, 1918, by the Reverend Cowan. Roy D. Lawrence was born April 7, 1891 and died February 17, 1962. His ancestors are buried in Pisgah Cemetery. Garnett and Roy established a farm residence on Dixon's Ridge in 1918. To this union was born two daughters and one son: Elnora Ann, born January 29, 1920; Mary Lee, born October 19, 1924; and Bobby Marion, born February 3, 1931.

In September, 1930, at the young age of six, Mary Lee was stricken with polio which left her partially paralyzed. She attended the Condon School in Cincinnati for five years and then completed her schooling in Ripley, Ohio, where she was Valedictorian in the graduating class of 1942. Mary Lee joined the Methodist Centenary Church on April 9, 1944. Her hobbies are sewing, tinting photos, drawing and painting pictures, reading and watching T.V. She has drawn and painted several lovely pictures of the Pisgah Church and Cemetery. As a means of earning a little money, she also worked by mail for several years tinting photos, being employed by the Fast Photo, Cincinnati, Ohio. She is a devout Christian and attends Sunday School and Church regularly. In October, 1954, Mary Lee was stricken again, but despite her handicap and illnesses, she is a sweet, cheerful, lovable person. She always has a smile and is an inspiration to all who know her. Roy D. Lawrence and his family moved to the farm of her parents on Pisgah Ridge in 1932. After the father's death, Garnett and Mary Lee Lawrence moved to Georgetown, Ohio in September, 1963, where they make their home with the other daughter and son-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Dwight Harman.

Elnora Ann Lawrence, oldest daughter of Garnett May and Roy D. Lawrence, was born January 29, 1920. She joined the Christian Church at Ripley at the age of twelve and later moved her membership to the First Presbyterian Church of Georgetown, Ohio, on April 4, 1953. Elnora graduated from Ripley High School, Class of 1938, and Littleford-Nelson Business School, Cincinnati, Ohio, in 1939. After this, she was employed as a secretary in a Cincinnati business establishment.

On July 12, 1941, she was united in marriage to William Thomas LaMonda, by the Reverend Milo Beran, Presbyterian Church Minister of Mt. Washington, Ohio. Ann and Bill established their residence and worked in Cincinnati until November, 1942, at which time Bill was called to serve his country in the U. S. Navy during World War II. During his absence, Ann worked under Civil Service in Memphis, Tennessee, Pensacola, Florida and San Diego, California. Shortly after the war was over they purchased a home in Georgetown, Ohio. She accepted employment with the U.S. Department of Agriculture on January 13, 1947, and is still employed in that capacity.

Her husband, William T. LaMonda, was drowned in a tragic boating mishap on the Ohio River, September 2, 1957, at the age of 38. His date of birth was May 5, 1919.

On October 9, 1959, Ann Lawrence LaMonda was united in marriage to Dwight Harman, born January 21, 1910, by the Reverend J. Edgar Tweddle, of the First Presbyterian Church, Georgetown, Ohio. Ann and Dwight have built a new home and established residence in Georgetown. He owns and operates the Brown County Oil Company.

Bobby Marion, youngest child and only son of Roy D. and Garnett M. Lawrence, was born February 3, 1931. He joined the Christian Church at Ripley, Ohio at an early age. He graduated from the Ripley High School in 1949, then attended Miami University and Littleford-Nelson Business School. Bob joined the U.S. Navy as a Yeoman in November, 1950. He was on a destroyer for one year, stationed in Cuba for a year, and in Naples, Italy, for two years where he met his bride-to-be, Wilhelma Grace Swan, a member of the U. S. Air Force, born on April 9, 1931, in Clifton, New Jersey. They were united in marriage on December 18, 1954, by the Reverend J. Edgar Tweddle, of the First Presbyterian Church of Georgetown, Ohio. Bob was later transferred back to Embassy duty at Naples, Italy, for two more years, being joined in a short time by his wife. His next tour of duty was for three years at the Recruiting Station, Washington, D.C.

While they were living in Washington, D.C., two children were born: Lisa Ann, born December 26, 1957, and Rob Roy, born February 2, 1959. In February, 1962, Bob and his family were transferred to Kodiak, Alaska, for a two year tour of duty. He was promoted to Chief Petty Officer. The family experienced the horror of the Alsakan earthquake and tidal wave on Palm Sunday, 1964, a "never-to-be forgotten" event. He was transferred back to Washington, D.C. in June, 1965. Chief Petty Officer Bob M. Lawrence, is presently employed at the Pentagon, in the Message Center of the Joint Chiefs of Staff, and is completing his sixteenth year in the U.S. Navy. Both of his children, Lisa Ann and Rob Roy attend school at Washington, D.C.

Cyrus Elmer Kinnett, second son of James P. and Anna (Kirkpatrick) Kinnett, was born September 7, 1877, and died February 6, 1961. Decatur cem. He was married three times. The first marriage, on November 20, 1901, was to Hattie M. b.1821 Glaze cem. Glaze who died on September 28, 1903. Secondly, he married Minnie Fite on June 15, 1907. She was born October 21, 1888, and died March 19, 1947. Decatur Cem. His third marriage was to Effie Fite on November 19, 1951. She died in 1953. Elmer and Minnie (Fite) Kinnett had three children named: Arthur, Marion Alma Mae and Alice.

ENOCH B. DRAKE FAMILY

Enoch B. and Rachel Drake moved to Ohio from Kentucky in the year of 1812 and settled near Peola Springs, about two miles south of Russellville, in what is now Jefferson Township, Brown County, Ohio. Mr. Drake was a tailor by trade but became engaged in farming a small portion of his ground. Most of the land was a forest and they lived in a small log cabin at the edge of the cultivated section. They remained in this neighborhood as long as they lived, Rachel passing away in 1843 and Enoch B. Drake in 1862. Both were members of the Baptist Church in which he officiated as a Deacon. Rachel and Enoch assisted in organizing and building a house of worship at the home of Eliken Parker. The church was constructed in 1829 on the farm of Porter Shaw, about threefourths mile south of Russellville. This church burned of an unknown cause during the summer of 1855. Records of this early family are sketchy, but it is known that Enoch B. Drake was married twice. No information is available on the second marriage, but there were ten children born to his first marriage with Rachel. A daughter, Noak Drake, moved to Pendleton County, Kentucky, early in life. We have only the record of one other child, that of Rebecca.

Rebecca Drake, daughter of Enoch B. and Rachel Drake, was born December 25, 1800, and was united in marriage to Abram Burgett on April 2, 1818. Members of the Burgett family were prominent residents of Pisgah

Ridge for many years on and after the turn of the century. To this union was born Rachel Burgett, January 6, 1822, and who married George W. Mefford on February 21, 1847. Mr. Mefford was a farmer by occupation, the son of George and Polly Mefford. He was born in Union Township on October 24, 1824, reared on his father's farm and educated in the district schools of his neighborhood. In 1845, George W. Mefford purchased a farm on the ridge near Pisgah Church containing ninety-nine acres. It was to this farm that he brought his wife Rachel. Nine children were born to this couple: Mahala Bell, Mary Malinda, James B., William D., Edna G., Rebecca, Amanda, Clara and Effie J. Four of these died early in life. George W. Mefford, his wife Rachel (Burgett) Mefford, and six of their children, Mahala Bell, William, Rebecca, Amanda, Clara and Effie J. are buried in Pisgah Cemetery. Births and deaths of these children (where known) are listed as follows:

Mahala Bell, born January 7, 1848
Rebecca E., September 20, 1850, died November 29, 1876
Mary Malinda, born December 18, 1851, died February 10, 1910
James B., born September 13, 1853, married Mary Lou Glaze on January 17, 1876.
Amanda E., born August 2, 1855, died November 2, 1874
Clara, born October 8, 1857, died January 28, 1879
Effie J., August 1, 1859, died January 31, 1867
William D., born February 13, 1862, married Anna Fyre, death date unknown.
Edna G., April 16, 1868, death date not given, married Frank Flowers.

Mary Malinda Mefford, third child of George W. and Rachel (Burgett) Mefford, was united in marriage to Fred Seipelt on November 16, 1871. Both are buried in Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio. He was the second son of Joseph and Agrippina (Grimm) Seiplet and was born in Setzdorf, Austria. A copy of his passport to the United States reads (in part) that: "A certificate of baptism dated at Setzdorf, Austria, May 1, 1854, shows that Ferdinand Seiplet, known as Fred Seipelt, was born at said town of Setzdorf on the 13th day of September, 1847, both of his parents being catholic." He was baptized in 1848 according to the pastor, Joseph Lichiblauth. Mary (Mefford) Seipelt joined the Pisgah Christian Church on January 7, 1869, and was baptized on March 25, 1869, by the Reverend C. W. Garoute. The couple began married life on a farm near the Chicken Hollow Pike where they raised large crops of tobacco and corn, and had five children: Charley, Birdie, Albert, Cora and Garnett.

Charley Seipelt, born September 8, 1872, married Effie Davis. Birdie Elnora, born July 3, 1874, married Marion Kinnett. Albert, born July 7, 1876, married Parthenia Flaugher on September 29, 1904. Cora, born September 7, 1877, married Charley Arns. Garnett, born June 25, 1884, married John Milligan on March 20, 1907. He died April 11, 1965.

Birdie Elnora Seipelt, second child of Fred and Mary (Mefford) Seipelt, was reared on her father's farm and educated at the Iron Bridge Schoolhouse in that district. She was united in marriage on October 2, 1895, to Marion Kinnett, son of James Perry and Anna (Kirkpatrick) Kinnett. He was born September 25, 1873, and passed away May 28, 1963. Birdie E. Kinnett passed on October 17, 1953. Both are buried in the newer section of Maplewood Cemetery, Ripley, Ohio. (See the Kinnett Family & Marion Tweed Kinnett.)

MARION TWEED KINNETT

Marion Tweed Kinnett was born in Union Township, Brown County, Ohio, not far from Ripley, on September 25, 1873, and departed this life at his home on Pisgah Ridge, Tuesday evening, May 28, 1963, at 8:00 P. M., at the age of 87 years, 8 months and 3 days.

He was the son of James Perry and Annie Kirkpatrick Kinnett who preceded him in death in 1937. On October 2, 1895, he was united in marriage to Miss Birdie Seipelt, who passed away in 1953, after having been married fifty-eight years. To this union two daughters were born: Mrs. Clarence Cahall (Anna Mary) and Mrs. Roy Lawrence (Garnett Mae). In his passing, Marion left four grand-children, five great-grandchildren and seven great-great-grandchildren.

Mr. Kinnett moved to his Pisgah Ridge home in 1903 where he lived until the time of his death. "Grandpa", as he was known to all his close friends and neighbors, was a successful farmer and was engaged in farming his entire life. Never too busy to stop and help a neighbor or friends, he was loved by everyone. He was member of the Boyd Memorial Christian Church, where, until his health began to fail in later years, he was a faithful member. He was a man that loved his home and family. Fishing and raising flowers were his two main hobbies. Mr. Kinnett had a brother, Elmer Kinnett, who passed away in 1961. Marion was also very loyal to Pisgah Church and its Homecoming.

John Sellers, son of Henry, believed to have had 8 children, but we only have names of Susan b ca 1836 who m 1853 in Harrison County Wm. Robert McCandless; Nancy b ca 1840-41; Martha?Martin(?) b ca 1843; John Henry b 6 May 1845 near Robinson Station, Harrison County, m/1 1881 to Dallas Roberts, (?m/2 Serilda Ecklar, widow of Enoch Humphrey?), and died at age 67 June 12, 1912; and Elizabeth b ca 1846 who married Tapley or Topley Eckler.

Of these, John Henry is known to have had at least two children - Atwell Thomas b 24 Apr 1876 near Robinson Station, Harrison County, and Kate who never married and died at age 38 about 1920.

David Sellers, son of Henry, lived at or near Berry's Station, near Robinson Station, in Harrison County. The only names of children we know are Henry b ca 1825 and apparently never married, was listed in 1880 as Homer; Jacob b ca 1832; Martha b ca 1842, m 1865 in Harrison County to Newton Dunn; David b ca 1845; and Zirilda Ann (Zelinda on mrg bond) b 26 Dec 1825 and married 1825 to Mortensen D. Martin. A record in Harrison County shows a David Sellers, single, died 28 July 1859 in an accident. We don't know who that was, but believe the David here, son of David, was same who married in Harrison County Mary F. _____ and had children Haley b ca 1873, Adeline b ca 1875, and Eva b ca 1878.

There was a Samuel Sellers b ca 1752 PA; d 2 Feb 1830 Harrison Co., KY. His pension papers show he lived in Shippensburg, Cumberland Co., PA and lived in Grant Co. and Harrison Co., KY. DAR papers show he had a daughter Sarah b 1784 nr present Cynthiana, Harrison Co., KY (then Bourbon Co.), died 1805 Harrison Co., KY; wife of Capt. Samuel Snodgrass who was born ca 1782 and d 1825 in OH.

We believe this Samuel Sellers was son of the Samuel who died in Lurgan Twp., Cumberland Co., PA (mentioned first in these pages). This Samuel was a teacher in Cynthiana, according to his pension papers. He indicated no family at time of pension application.

We just found in our files material sent to us by Marjorie McNeil which gives much information about the Samuel Sellers mentioned earlier, who was married to Sarah ("Sally") Ellis. The following is from this material:

Samuel was born 1767 Ireland; (son of James). He d 24 Mar 1849 Johnson Co., IN; bur 2 mi north of Ninevah in David Forsythe Cem. He married 29 Mar 1799 in Lancaster, Garrard Co., KY to Sarah (Sally) Ellis, daughter of Joseph. Sally was born 1783 in Garrard Co., KY and d 12 Jan 1856 Johnson Co., IN and is buried same place as Samuel. (Note this differs from information given earlier, taken from History of Garrard Co., KY showing Sally died in 1833 in Kentucky.)

The children of Samuel and Sally (Ellis) Sellers (from chart from Marjorie McNeil) were: Abigail b 24 Dec 1788 Garrard Co., KY who married John Parkhurst; Polly (Mary) b 1801 who married David McCaslin; Betsy (Elizabeth) b 19 May 1804 who married Alexander McCaslin; Sarah/Sarrah b 5 Apr1809 who married Richard Tapp; Samuel born ca 1812 Scott Co., IN who married Polly (Mary) Parkhurst; Cynthia born KY who married Edward Ellison; Lucy (Lucinda) b 1 Apr 1818 Henry Co., KY who married Roland T. Parkhurst; Martin b 19 Oct 1823 KY who m/1 Abigail Harginn; and Nelson born 8 July 1825 in Scott Co., KY who married Sarah Prichard.

Obviously there are many questions regarding the men named Samuel Sellers. However, we will continue to collect everything we can find about the Sellers men from Pennsylvania who were later found in Kentucky in our ceaseless search for information about Isaac Sellers, the ancestor of Martin Sims.

We welcome any information that will help sort out these men and will publish it in future publications about Sellers.

Because of the Crawford/Sellers and Finley/Sellers connections for those who had lived in same vicinity in Kentucky and later were in Putnam County, Indiana, we are most curious to know what relationship there might have been between them and the family of Isaac and Rebekah Sellers. Rebekah's maiden is unknown to us, but her daughter, Ellenor, married James Adams and moved to Putnam County about 1841-2 and later were in adjoining Hendricks County where others by name of Adams and Sellers lived.

AIS (Accelerated Indexing) lists only the years 1799 and 1800 in lieu of a census for 1800, since to census record exists. According to this company, in 1799 there were Abraham, George, John, Leonard and Michael Sellars in Bracken County; Mathew Seller in Christian County; and Jeremiah Sellers in Livingston County. We believe those in Bracken County may have been from the Rockingham Co., VA Zeller/Sellers (?)

AIS shows for 1800 John Sellars in Mason County, but it is believed that other records show this family also spelled Sollars (an Isaac Sollars died Dec 1789/Jan 1790, killed by Indians, Mason Co., KY, leaving widow, Elizabeth Sollars and minor children Mary, Ruth, Eleanor, Samuel, Isaac and Elizabeth. John of 1800 Mason Co may have been an older son (?) or the John shown in 1799 in Bracken County (?) Also in 1800 were Isham in Henderson Co., John in Woodford (he d 1812), Isaac and Elisabeth in Harrison (she was widow of John who d 1789), James, Samuel and William in Garrard Co., John in Livingston Co., Joseph and Nathan in Bourbon County, Samuel in Pendleton County, and Thomas in Knox County.

Early tax records and land records often are able to fill in gaps. Court records are extremely valuable because in those early days the Court was the only place where permanent records of any kind were made and kept.

We know that a John Sellers Sr. was on Sugar Creek, in Garrard Co., in 1783 and it is believed that he was the John Sellers who was b ca 1750 PA and died 5 Jan 1812 in Woodford Co., leaving wife Mary (Wood) and married children Hannah who m Robert Torbet, Joseph who m/1 Mary Johnston and m/2 Sarah Garrett; Mary who m Wm. Trousdale/Trousdell; Eleanorwho m Joseph Kennedy; a dau who married Joseph Martin and died before her father; Ann(a)/"Sally" who was 1st wife of Levi Buchanan; Thomas W. b 7 Apr 1788 at Harrod's Station in Mercer County and married in 1812 to SarahAshford in Woodford County only 3 days before death of his father. And, if the "John Sr" who was in Garrard Co in 1783 is same, then a son John who was not alive at time of the Will, or had previously received his share... but perhaps this is not same "John Sr."

The important fact here is that the family was in Woodford County by at least 1792 when he, Isaac Sellers and Jeremiah Sellers all appeared on the tax list for that county. What was their relationship? Who was Jeremiah? He did not appear as head of household in 1810 Kentucky census records. Isaac is on ancestor chart as #50, gr-gr-gr grandfather of Martin Sims. Isaac died between 1799 tax and 1800 tax when his son, Isaac, is shown on that tax list.

In 1810 John and his son, Joseph, both are shown as heads of households in Woodford County. There are other Sellers families in several other counties, but now in addition to Elizabeth (widow of John who died 1798) in Harrison County, there is also Henry b ca 1772 who d 1820 in Harrison County, and Isaac Sellars? who was the son of Isaac (who d ca1799-1800) and Rebekah Sellers.

Henry Sellers lived on Twin Creek in Harrison Co., KY. His wife's name was Mary Frances Woolery (sometimes shown as Ullery). We believe Henry to have been of German extraction and do not know what relationship, if any, there was between him and the other Sellers in Harrison County. We do not know the names of all his children, but show Catherine "Kitty" b ca 1794 whom Jacob Huffman in 1812; Susanna b ca 1813 married Isaac Woolery/Ullery; John b ca 1798 who m Jane Clifford Aug 1831; and David b 23 Oct 1799 Harrison Co., died 1870-80 in Harrison County, married 23 Oct 1823 to Susan/Susannah Eckler/Ecklar.

Some descendants of this family claim that James, the father here, was brother to John Sellers who died in 1798 in Harrison Co., KY. In SELLERS LETTERS, Vol. 1, # 1, pgs 8,9 - his Will & Inventory, he made note we believed he was son of John Sellers and Mary of Woodford Co., KY. We now believe we were quite wrong inasmuch as others have indicated he had at least four brothers, including the James mentioned above, and this does not agree with the Will of John Sellers of Woodford Co. who died 1812.

John Sellers, born ca 1755-60, married ca 1776-8 Elizabeth Finley, and supposedly is same who in 1783 resided on Sugar Creek in Garrard Co., KY. Their children named in Will were Mary b ca 1780 and may be same who married Andrew Lowrey (?); Elizabeth; Jane; Margaret; Sarah ("Sallie") who may be same who married May 1816 in Harrison Co., KY Nathaniel McClure (?); John Finley b 22 Feb 1791, d 12 Jan 1875 in Putnam Co., IN, m Jul 1817 in Garrard Co., KY to his cousin Rebecca Sellers, daughter of James (above); Ruth b ca 1795, m 24 Oct 1815 in Harrison Co., KY Benjamin Hawkins and moved to Preble Co., Ohio before settling in Putnam Co., IN (?); and James.

John's will, dated 21 mar 1798, was proved in July Court in Cynthiana, Harrison Co., KY (See Will Bk A, pg 5,7,17 for Will and Inventory). From his inventory, we was apparently quite well-to-do, when the inventory is compared to others at that time. He named John Adams and James Brown as administrators of his estates, and William Adams and James Thompson were witnesses.

John Adams is shown as # 48 on the ancestor chart, father of James Adams who married Ellenor Sellers, daughter of Isaac and Rebekah Sellers who lived in Harrison Co., Kentucky. John Adams died in 1833 of the cholera outbreak that Sally (Ellis) Sellers, wife of Samuel, died of in nearby Garrard County. William Adams, witness to the will of John Sellers, was brother to John and they are both the first Adams shown in Kentucky census records. We believe they are related in some way to George Adams who owned Adams Station and appeared in early Augusta County, VA records before that area was made into Kentucky. We also believe John to be related to (perhaps father of) Dr. Charles W. Adams, who lived in Scott Co., KY, but died in Harrison County and was cared for in his final illness by Rebekah Sellers. The Court allowed her payment from his estate. How was she related to this family other than through the marriage of her daughter, Ellenor, to James Adams, son of John Adams who was named administrator of his estate?

There was an Isaac Sellers b 1755-74 (age 26-45 in 1800 cens) who married Agnes Pauley and lived in Mifflin Co., PA. They married before 1790 and appeared in 1800 census of Fermanagh Twp., Mifflin Co.,PA. There is no Isaac Sellers head of household in Pennsylvania in 1800. We do not know who this Isaac Sellers was, but mention him here because his name appears in the book TheMcTeer-Mateer Families of Cumberland Co., PA by McTeer. The important fact to point out is that "shortly after 19 Apr 1794" he was appointed to be an Administrator of the intestate estate of John Pauley of Mifflin Co., PA. But at this same, the Isaac Sellers (who appears on ancestor chart as #50) was in Woodford Co., Kentucky and in following years, through 1799, appeared on tax lists of adjoining Harrison County, KY.

A William David Sellers b 2 Jul 1771 Cumberland Co., PA married 2 Feb 1795 Lincoln Co., KY and moved to Preble Co.,Ohio by July 1809. He married Sarah Crawford who was born 9 Oct 1778 PA, died 28 Feb 1855 Wabash or Kosciusko Co., IN and is buried at Liberty Mills, Ind. She was daughter of James and Rebekah Crawford. The children of William David and Sarah Sellers were Nathan Douglas b 1797 Bourbon Co., KY, m 181 Preble Co., OH Susanna Hawk, d 1874 Liberty Mills, IND; Rebekah Crawford b 1799 Bourbon Co., KY and died that November; Nancy b 1801 Bourbon Co., KY, m John Sellers; John Howard b 1802 (?KY or OH?), m 1830 Catherine Auter; Polly/Mary b 1809 Preble Co., OH, m/1 Jacob Swihart, m/2 Job Jefferson; Margaret b 1811 Preble Co., OH, m 1832 Harry H. Wilson; Celia Amanda b 1818 Preble Co., OH, m 1837 William H. West; Jane b 1820 Preble Co., OH, m ____Hunter.

A Nathan Sellers b ca 1762 Chester Co., PA, served in Rev War under Capt Wm. Kirk,and his Will is dated 31 Jul 1824 Preble Co., OH. He died in August 1825. His wife was Sarah, possibly Sarah Finley. In his will, he names children and grandchildren. His children named were his "only son" Nathan; Mary; Jane; Sarah; Margaret who married John Bell in 1809 in Bourbon Co., KY; Nancy b ca 1789, d 1870, m John Jay Hawkins; Ellenor (Elly/Nelly) 1807 Bourbon Co., KY to Daniel McCoy, Jr.; Rebecca m ____ McCracken; and Elizabeth m William Snodgrass in Bourbon Co.,KY.

A Samuel Sellers b ca 1752 PA, d 2 Feb 1830. He enlisted in the Rev. War from Shippensburg, Pennsylvania and was living in Harrison County, Kentucky at time he made application for pension on 2 June 1818. In application he stated he had been a school teacher. He was living at Cynthiana, Harrison Co., KY when pension was granted. He had lived a while in Grant Co., KY.

We have little info on him, but a great-grand daughter, Clara (Crawford) Smith, long ago joined DAR through a daughter Sarah, born ca 1784 near present Cynthiana, Harrison Co., KY. Note that Harrison County was created in 1794 from Bourbon and Scott counties. There is a creek, named Sellers Run in the northeastern portion of Harrison County, toward the Bourbon County line. Sarah Sellers, married Capt. Samuel Snodgrass (born 1782, died 1825 Ohio). She died 1805 in Harrison Co., KY.

At the same time, there was another Samuel Sellers in Kentucky. Garrard County mrg bond 20 March, 1799, for Samuel Sellers and Sarah/Sally Ellis, b ca 1784 VA, daughter of Joseph Ellis. This Samuel was a Methodist preacher. He served in the War of 1812. We do not know where/when he died, but Sally died during the cholera outbreak in 1833 and is buried near Scott's Fork, in Garrard County. Their children were Martin b ca 1821 who m Abigail ___; Cynthia; Pollie; Sallie; Betsy; and Nelson b 8 Jul 1825 in Scott Co., Ind., d 6 Jan 1901, married Sarah I. Pritchard. If this is correct, then obviously Samuel married a second time and moved to Indiana.

We believe the above information we received on this Samuel is filled with errors. If Samuel and Sally married in March 1799, their first child was probably born in 1800-01... not 1821 as shown above for birth date of Martin. Also, since Sally is buried in Garrard County, Ky, the Nelson shown above (b 1825 in Scott Co., IN) was not her son. We do not know who were the children of Samuel and Sally Ellis Sellers.

Question: Who was the Samuel Sellars whose will is recorded in Garrard Co., Kentucky, dated 16 Nov 1801, (Will Bk A, pg 92) and naming as an heir a James Sellars?. And who was James Sellers mentioned in the Will? In 1800 in Garrard County, there were only these three listed as heads of households: James, Samuel and William. But there were other Sellers living in that area of Kentucky in other counties, including Bourbon, Scoot, Woodford and Harrison.

A James Sellers b ca 1766-68, married 19 Dec 1791 in Kentucky to Mary Crawford who was b ca 1773 in Virginia and died about 1855 in Putnam County, Indiana. (We have no date/place of death for James.) Their children, all born in Garrard Co., KY, were Harvey; Nathan born ca 1800 Garrard County, KY, d 1874, who m 1825 in Lincoln Co., KY Mary Yowell, daughter of Margaret; James Nelson died 1874; John Crawford b 26 Mar 1796, d 1 Nov 1874, m 1 Mar 1821 nr Lancaster, KY to Fanny Brown. They lived Putnam Co., Ind.; Rebecca b 12 Nov 1797, d 27 Sep 1871 Greencastle, Putnam Co., Ind., married 24 Jul 1817 in Garrard Co., KY to JohnFinley Sellers (her cousin, son of John Sellers who died 1798 in Harrison Co.,KY). Rebecca and John Finley Sellers left Kentucky about 1819 and lived in Monroe Co., Ind for 3 years before settling in Putnam County in what later became Greencastle; Sarah ("Nancy") m in Indianapolis, Marion Co., IN to Wm. L. Elder; Harrison Perry b 9 Jun 1813, d 23 Jul 1895 Lucas Co., Iowa, mrg bond dated 27 Nov 1833 Putnam Co., IN to marry Mary Margaret Van Landingham.

The Will of Samuel Sellers dated April 2, 1776 reads as follows: (As written, except we have underlined names)

THE DESCENDANTS OF SAMUEL SELLERS ???

This is believed to be the true family of Samuel Sellers who lived in Cumberland Co., Pennsylvania and died in that county in the home of his brother, Nathaniel, whose wife cared for Samuel during his final days there.

We show Samuel (# 100 on chart - previous page) as father of Isaac who was on the first tax records for Harrison County, Kentucky after that county was created from Bourbon County, Kentucky. We believe Isaac was brother to the Samuel and John Sellers and cousin to other Sellers in that area of Kentucky who are proven to have gone there from Pennsylvania.

Because we realize our theory is weak regarding the relationship of Samuel Sellers who died in Cumberland County, PA about 1784 and Isaac who died in Harrison County, Kentucky about 1799, we invite corrections and/or supporting proof. Please write to: Mary and Martin Sims, P. O. Box 9576, Sacramento, CA 95823

SAMUEL SELLERS was born at least by 1730 since he was probably at least age 21 when he appeared on the tax list of 1751 Hopewell Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. In adjoining Lurgan Township, a Nathaniel is on the 1751 tax list. Both are shown as CELLAR in this one tax list. Thereafter they are all shown as Sellar, Sellars, Seller, or Sellers. There was also a David whose name was on Cumberland County tax lists beginning in 1753 and continuing at least through 1770. We believe they were possibly brothers and sons of John Sellers who lived in Darby Township, Philadelphia County, Pennsylvania, PA. (Ref: PA Mag of Hist. Vol 16 - 1892, pg 191-196, Extracts from the Diary of Nathan Sellers, 1776-1778.)

Isaac Sellers, believed to be son of Samuel, appears on tax records, for the first time, in 1768 in Hopewell township where Samuel resides. Isaac is shown as a "freeman". (Note: although New England records may indicate a "Freeman" as being a person of high standing in the community, Pennsylvania research specialists insist this term merely means "unmarried" in early Pennsylvania.)

John, believed to be son of Nathan, also appeared on tax records, for the first time, in 1768 in Lurgan Township where Nathaniel resided. John was is also shown as a "freeman".

On January 31, 1767, in Cumberland County, PA, Samuel Sellers deeded land to David Magan which had been assigned to Samuel Sellers by Thomas Finley - originally from Edward Shippen, Esq. to Thomas Finley, being a lot in the town of Shippensburg. It is believed this deed between Samuel Sellers and David Magan was a mortgage in "consideration of debt". This lot measured 64 feet four inches in length by 257 feet 4 inches and was a part of the land referred to in next paragraph.

On May 8, 1774 Samuel Sellers, "farmer of Hopewell township in the County of Cumberland in the Province of Pennsylvania" conveyed to Alexander Richardon, a weaver, and William Leggit, a farmer, for the sum of $300 pounds, "a certain plantation and tract of land situate in the Township of Hopewell.... adjoining lands of Francis Campbell and John Brownfield.... being "the same improvement and tract of land which Thomas Finley had conveyed to Hugh Bready, who conveyed it to Samuel Sellers April 12, 1762. Samuel Sellers conveyed it to John Brownfield who conveyed it back to Samuel Sellers on April 11, 1774. It was written May 8, signed by the Justice of Peace on May 9 and recorded June 18, 1774 in Cumberland County Court.

On the day the deed mentioned was recorded, another document was signed in which Alexander Richards, (Richey in Samuel's will), a weaver, and William Ligget, a farmer, both of Hopewell Twp., Cumberland Co. conveyed back to Samuel Sellers this land until it was paid in full - a mortgage. 250 pounds to be made in payments on each May 1st, beginning May 1, 1775 through 1782. This was recorded June 20, 1776.

On January 31, 1767, in Cumberland County, PA, Samuel Sellers deeded land to David Hagan which had been assigned to Samuel Sellers by Thomas Finley - originally from Edward Shippen, Esq. to Thomas Finley, being a lot in the town of Shippensburg. It is believed this deed between Samuel Sellers and David Hagan was a mortgage in "consideration of debt". This lot measured 82 feet four inches in length by 257 feet 4 inches and was a part of the land referred to in next paragraph.

On May 8, 1775 Samuel Sellers, "farmer of Hopewell township in the County of Cumberland in the Province of Pennsylvania" conveyed to Alexander Richardson, a weaver, and William Leggit, a farmer, for the sum of 2500 pounds, "a certain plantation and tract of land situate in the township of Hopewell ... adjoining lands of Francis Campbell and John Sommerfield ..., being "the same improvements and tract of land which Thomas Finley had conveyed to Hugh Brady, who conveyed it to Samuel Sellers April 12, 1763. Samuel Sellers conveyed it to John Brownfield who conveyed it back to Samuel Sellers on April 11, 1775. It was written May 8, signed by the Justice of Peace on May 9 and recorded June 13, 1775 in Cumberland County Court.

On the day the deed mentioned was recorded, another document was signed in which Alexander Richards, (Richey in Samuel's will), a weaver, and William Liggat, a farmer, both of Hopewell Twp., Cumberland Co., conveyed back to Samuel Sellers this land until it was paid in full - a mortgage. 250 pounds to be made in payments on each May 1st, beginning May 1, 1775 through 1782. This was recorded June 20, 1775.

On the subjects of:

Allen Davenport SELLERS,
Thomas SELLERS,
Diadama CURTIS,
Mary CURTIS, and
Louisa MERRITT:

Thomas SELLERS was born 9 Aug 1800, in Bracken County, Kentucky. His great grandson, H. Allen SELLERS, stated that, through generations of word of mouth, the tradition was passed that Thomas SELLERS had a brother named Peter SELLERS and that they married sisters. A brother, John SELLERS, and a sister Mary SELLERS also were named. H. Allen SELLERS felt that the father of Thomas, Peter, John, and Mary, was named John SELLERS.

Bracken County was created from Mason and Campbell Counties, Kentucky in 1796. The SELLERS families seem to have lived close to the Ohio River near the subsequent border between Mason and Bracken Counties.

Since Thomas SELLERS was born in Bracken County, Kentucky, in 1800, a survey of SELLERS families in the area was done to determine his possible parents or, at least, to narrow the field of parental candidates. The following information is given in an attempt to explain the survey's findings.

Leonard and John SELLERS first appeared on the tax rolls for Mason County, Kentucky, in 1793. John continued on the rolls through at least 1797. Based on the later 1810 census, John was born between 1765 and 1784, and Leonard was born before 1765. Leonard and John SELLERS seem to have come from Washington County, Pennsylvania, where they (along with Jacob, George, Christian, and Frederick SELLERS) were listed in the 1790 federal census returns. (Curiously, also listed on the same page of the 1790 census were George PECKENPOUGH, Thomas FEE, Thomas FEE Jun, William FEE, Jno PARKER, and Michael BUTTZ. In fact, George PECKENPOUGH was the only person with that surname on the 1790 Pennsylvania census.)

At the July 1794 term of the Mason County, Kentucky, Court, John SELLERS, resulting from his motion, was adjudged to "be henceforth exempt from the payment of County and Public Levies." No reason was given.

On 25 Dec 1797, John SELLERS, of Mason County, Kentucky, bought land from William and Elizabeth GATES of Mason County, Kentucky, for thirty pounds. It was described as 89 acres lying in Mason County, Kentucky, on the waters of Lees Creek (at or near present-day Dover, Kentucky, just south of the Bracken County line). Lees Creek empties into the Ohio River.

The 1797 tax list for Bracken County, Kentucky included the names of Leonard, Michael, and Elizabeth SELLERS (Elizabeth was the widow of Isaac SELLERS).

Adams County, Ohio, just across the Ohio River from Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky, was formed from Hamilton County, Ohio in 1797. In 1798, in Mason County, Kentucky, John SELLERS, Sabastian SHROFE, Josephus WATERS, and Thomas WELLS were "appointed to view a way for a road from Thomas STUREMA's to William GATE's and to make a report to the next Court of the convenience and inconveniences attending opening the same."

The 1799 tax list for Bracken County, Kentucky, included the names of Leonard (165 acres), John, George (165 acres), Michael (96 acres), and Abraham SELLARS. John had 61 acres on Camp Creek.

Clermont County, Ohio was formed from Hamilton County, Ohio in 1800. It is located just across the Ohio River from Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky.

The 1800 census index for Kentucky, which was reconstructed from existing tax records, lists Leonard, John, George, Michael, and Abraham SELLARS or SELLERS in Bracken County; and only John SELLARS in Mason County. Since the John in Bracken County was based on a 1799 date and the John in Mason County was based on a 1800 date, the two entries in the reconstructed census could be for the same person.

Thomas SELLERS was born 9 Aug 1800, in Bracken County, Kentucky. His parentage is not known, but it is known that at that time in Bracken County, there lived Leonard, John, George, Michael, and Abraham SELLARS. One of them is presumed to be his father.

The 1802 tax list for Bracken County, Kentucky, contained the names of Leonard, wf Flora (146 acres), John (no acres given), George (125 acres), Michael (75 acres), and Abraham (150 acres) SELLERS.

The 1803 tax list for Bracken County included Leonard (176 acres), John (no acreage), George (25 acres), and Michael (75 acres).

The 1804 tax list for Bracken County contained the names of Leonard (176 acres), John (no acreage), George (no acreage), and Michael (92 acres).

The 1805 tax list for Bracken County included the names of Leonard (176 acres), John (no acreage), George (152 acres), and Michael (92 acres).

The 1806 tax list for Bracken County contained the names of Leonard (176 acres), John (no acreage), George (no acreage), and Michael (73 acres).

On 4 Mar 1806, Philemon THOMAS, of Mason County, Kentucky, sold land in Adams County, Ohio, to John SULLERS, of Adams County, Ohio, for $370.00. It was described as 185 acres on the waters of Red Oak Creek and bounded by neighbors SMITH, William McKENNY, John MURPHY, John PHILLIPS, Stephen BUNNEL, Alexander JOLLY, and Archibald BEAL. It was witnessed by Josephine WATERS. This purchase would have left John's total holdings unchanged at 89 acres in Mason County, Kentucky and brought his holdings to 175-185 acres in Adams County, Ohio. The John SELLERS of Mason County, Kentucky, could well have been the same John SELLERS of Adams County, Ohio, but they also could have been separate and distinct persons. However, a land sale, detailed later, indicates the John SELLERS of Adams County was, in fact, originally of Mason County.

The tax records for Adams County, Ohio, contain the name of John SELLERS for the years 1806 (no township listed), 1807 (no township listed), 1808 (Byrd Township), 1809 (no township listed), and 1810 (in a grouping labeled "mixed townships"). It is possible there was another John SELLERS who stayed in Bracken and Mason Counties, so the same name could have appeared in both places at the same time.

On 19 Jun 1807, John and Elizabeth SELLERS (or CELLERS), of Adams County, Ohio, sold land to Alexander JOLLEY, of Adams County, Ohio, for $100.00. It consisted of 55 acres, located on the waters of Red Oak Creek, and was part of the 185 acres John purchased in 1806. Witnesses were Isaac HUGHEY and James MOORE. The remaining 120-130 acres in this parcel of land were sold subsequently in 1814.

On 26 Jul 1807, John and Elizabeth SELLERS, of Adams County, Ohio, sold land to Thomas LINSEY, of Mason County, Kentucky, for $403.00. It was described as 89 ½ acres lying in Mason County, Kentucky, situated on Lees Creek (at or near present-day Dover, Kentucky). This was the same land purchased in 1797. This sale would have decreased John's holdings in Kentucky to zero and kept his holdings in Ohio at 120-130 acres in Adams County. This deed proves that the early John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Mason County, Kentucky, were the same as the later John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Adams County, Ohio.

The 1807 tax list for Bracken County, Kentucky, included John (no acreage), George (no acreage), and Michael (96 acres). Subsequent tax records continued to list SELLERS names as follows:

1808 - Leonard, John, and Michael;
1809 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, John, and Michael;
1810 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, and Philip;
1811 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, and George;
1812 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, and George;
1813 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, George, and Michael;
1814 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, and George;
1815 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, and George;
1816 - Leonard, John, George, and Philip;
1817 - Leonard, John, George, and Philip;
1819 - Leonard, John, and George;
1820 - Leonard, John, George, and Philip;
1821 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, and John;
1822 - Leonard, John, George, Philip, John, Jr., and Michael.

It seems curious there were two entries for the name John in 1809, and then not again until 1821. It may have happened in the first case that there were two older Johns in 1807, one who moved away; and in the second case it took until 1821 for John, Junior (?), of the John who stayed in Bracken County to be old enough to own property.

On 15 May 1810, John SELLARS, of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold various items to George FEE, for $150.00. The items were identified as "one dark Bay mare (seven years old with her colt), one black yearling mare (and colt), three cows (and two calves), three head of sheep, six head of hogs, three beds and bedding, six chairs, one chest, one two-gallon kettle, one ten-gallon pot, one three-gallon pot, and one Dutch oven."

At the time of the 1810 Federal Census, there were four SELLERS families in Bracken County, Kentucky – namely, of Flora Leonard (age over 45), John (age 26-45), George (age 26-45), and Michel (age 16-26). Only John and George had sons of the right age (either under 10, or 10-16) to have included Thomas SELLERS. Therefore, it is possible that one of them was Thomas' father. If the ages on the census are accurate and if Thomas had not reached his tenth birthday by the time of the census, then only John had a son of the right age. There were no SELLERS families listed in Mason County, Kentucky. Leonard's family consisted of one male age over 45, one male age 16-26, one female age 26-45, one female age 16-26, one female age 10-16, and one female age under 10. John's family consisted of one male age 26-45, one male age 10-16, one male age under 10, one female age 26-45, and three females age under 10.

This census profile doesn't seem to match the expected profile for the family of Thomas SELLERS' father. There should have been a 21-year old male child, a 13-year old male child, a 10-year old male child, and at least one female child. However, the oldest son, Peter, may have been away from home at the time so, in that case, the family does match the expected profile. George's family consisted of one male age 26-45, two males age 10-16, one female age 26-45, and four females age under 10. Michael's family consisted of one male age 16-26, and one female age 16-26. Additionally, from the ages reported on the 1810 censuses, it is possible that John, George, and Michael were all sons of Leonard.

There are no other SELLERS families enumerated in that area on the Kentucky side of the Ohio River. The 1810 census for Ohio does not exist, so it is possible that Thomas' father could have been living there and, therefore, is not listed on any extant census for 1810. John SELLERS did own 120 acres in Adams County at the time of the 1810 census, however.

On 30 Sep 1810, George and Jennet BAIRD, of Adams County, Ohio, sold 195 acres of land located in Adams County, Ohio, to John SELLERS, of Adams County, Ohio for $341.25. It was described as being part of land entry number 1025 entered in the name of Nathaniel FOX, patented to him 4 Jun 1806, and transferred by FOX to George BAIRD. The deed was witnessed by Abraham SHEPHERD and Peter SELLERS. This would have brought his land holdings to about 315 acres in Adams County. It is presumed that a witness had to be at least 18 or 21 years old, so

Peter had to have been born by 1792, and probably more likely by 1789. Later census records indicate Peter was born between 1780 and 1790.

On 23 May 1812, John and Elizabeth SELLERS, of Adams County, Ohio, sold 50 acres of land located in Adams County, OH, to Justice PARKER, of Adams County, Ohio, for $100.00. The parcel was described as being on the "heads of the Little West Fork of Eagle Creek being part of two thousand acres entered, surveyed, and patented for and to Nathaniel FOX and transferred by said FOX to George BAIRD and from said BAIRD to said John SELLERS." Witnesses were William LACOCK and Samuel JORDON. This sale would have reduced John's holdings on Eagle Creek to 145 acres. Later, on the 1850 census for Warren County, IL, one of the neighbors of Thomas SELLERS was Justus PARKER, age 71, born in New Jersey. If this was the same Justice PARKER who bought this parcel of land, he would have been 33 years old in 1812. Justice Parker had married Mary Ann SELLERS (relationship not known) on 11 Dec 1803, in Adams County, Ohio.

On the same day (23 May 1812), John and Elizabeth SELLERS, of Adams County, Ohio, sold 50 acres of land located in Adams County, to Michael SELLERS, of Adams County, for $100.00. The 1810 census indicated Michael's age was 16-26 in 1810 (born 1784-1794). On the 1830 census Michael's age was given as 40-50 (born 1780-1790) and on the1840 census, his age was given as 50-60 (born 1780-1790) . The parcel of land was described as being on the "head waters of the Little West Fork of Eagle Creek being part of two thousand acres entered, surveyed, and patented for and to Nathaniel FOX and transferred by said FOX to George BAIRD and from said BAIRD to said John SELLERS." Witnesses were William LACOCK and Samuel JORDEN. This left 95 acres of land on Eagle Creek in John's possession and 120 acres on Red Oak Creek.

There must have been at least two persons named Michael SELLERS between Bracken County, Kentucky, and Adams County, Ohio, since one Michael SELLERS appeared as early as 1797 in the Bracken County tax records. That Michael SELLERS would have to have been born before 1777, and probably was the Revolutionary War veteran of Captain Croghan's Company, 8th Revolutionary Regiment, Virginia Continental Line m. Catherine DILLMAN.

On 27 Jun 1812, John and Elizabeth FEE, of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold 430 acres of land, located in Clermont County, Ohio, to Michael SELLERS of Bracken County, for $500.00. On the same day, Michael SELLERS, of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold 95 acres of the same land located in Clermont County, Ohio, to Edmond LINDSEY of Clermont County, Ohio, for $400.00. It was located on Boat Run "being of a tract patented to Walter WARFIELD in number 2496" and situated next to land owned by John FEE. Witnesses for the sale of the 95 acres were William CAROTHERS and Andrew SIMM. Since no wife was mentioned in the deed, Michael may not have been married at that time. The ultimate sale by Michael SELLERS of the remaining 335 acres has not been located.

A reference was found indicating that Peter SELLERS served in the War of 1812 in Ohio. Since there seemed to be only one Peter SELLERS in that area, these references are presumed to refer to the brother of Thomas SELLERS.

Peter SELLARS served in the company commanded by Captain Henry ZUMWALT (from Hamilton County) from 22 Aug to 30 Sep 1812. In the same company were Abraham BURGET, Aaron BURGET, Valentine BURGET, James PARKER, Samuel JOLLEY, and Elisha FEE.

Peter SELLERS served in the company commanded by Captain John HUME (probably from Clermont County) from 30 Jan to 10 Apr 1814.

Peter SELLERS served in the company commanded by Captain David OLIVER (county unknown) from 5 Jul to 18 Aug 1814.

Peter SELLERS served in the company commanded by Captain John HUME (probably from Clermont County) from 11 Jan to 10 Apr 1815.

John SELLERS served in the mounted company commanded by Captain Jacob FUDGE (probably from Warren County, on the north side of Clermont County) from 27 Sep to 20 Oct 1812.

Michael SELLER served in the company commanded by Captain Abraham SHEPHERD (probably from Ross County, northeast of Adams County) from 2 Sep to 2 Oct 1812, and from 29 Jul to 22 Aug 1813. [My emphases. – RKH]

Justus PARKER served in the company commanded by John ALEXANDER (probably Harrison or Jefferson County) from 21 Sep to 8 Dec 1812 and from 29 Jul to 22 Aug 1813. Even though this name seems to be uncommon enough to be the Justus PARKER of Adams County, these two counties are located on the eastern side of Ohio – near Wheeling, West Virginia.

On 6 Jun 1814, John and Elizabeth ZELLERS, of Adams County, Ohio, sold 120 acres, more or less, of land located in Adams County to Nicholas DEVORE, of the same county, for $461.50. It was described as "on the waters of Red Oak Creek, being part of a tract of land surveyed in the name of Josiah PARKER and patented in the name of John EDWARDS and from EDWARDS conveyed to Philemon THOMAS and from THOMAS to the said ZELLERS." This was the remaining Red Oak Creek land in possession of John SELLERS that he had purchased in 1806. This would have left 95 acres on Eagle Creek in John SELLERS' possession.

On 3 Oct 1814, John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold 40 acres of land located in Clermont County, Ohio, to John BOYS of Clermont County, Ohio, for $150.00. Neighbors to the property were Thomas DISHER, E. BITTLEY, William BENNET, and Jacob HIGBEE. The deed was recorded 4 Oct 1814. It is unknown when he purchased this land. The same sale is recorded in Bracken County, Kentucky, but indicates it was 50 acres rather than 40 acres, and identifies Jacob HIGBEE as Isaac HIGBEE. If this is the same John and Elizabeth SELLERS who owned land in Adams County, Ohio, it is curious why they would have been identified as "of Bracken County, Kentucky" or why the sale would have also been recorded in Bracken County. From correlation with subsequent land records, it appears this parcel of land was on or near Boat Run which is about 30 miles downstream from Levanna, [Clermont, County,] Ohio. Therefore, it is quite likely this was a different John SELLERS than the one who owned land on Red Oak Creek and Eagle Creek, Adams County.

On 26 Dec 1815, Michael and Katherine SELLERS, of Clermont County, Ohio, sold 50 acres of land, to Peter PARKER, of Adams County, Ohio, for an amount not specified. It was described as "all that tract or parcel of land which was deeded to them by John SELLERS (May 1812) being part of two thousand acres entered surveyed and patented for and to Nathaniel FOX and is in the County of Adams and on the head waters of Eagle Creek." Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and William O. BOWLER.

On 20 Mar 1816, William and Elizabeth BUTTS, of Pleasant Township, Clermont County, Ohio, sold lot 31 in Levanna, Clermont County, to Peter SELLERS, for $46.00. Witnesses were Bernard JACKSON and J. D. EVANS. This is the first known purchase of land by Peter SELLERS. If Peter was born about 1789, he would have been 26-27 years old and unmarried.

On 28 May 1816, George and Ruth SELLERS, of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold 89 acres of land, located in Clermont County, Ohio, to Jacob HIGBEE, of Clermont County, Ohio, for $122.00. It was described as "a certain tract or parcel of land situated lying and being in the said county of Clermont and State of Ohio on Boat Run being part of a tract entered in the name of Thomas OVERTON and patented to Walter WARFIELD", and situated next to John BOYCE (or BOYS). Therefore, George and Michael SELLERS both owned land in the same neighborhood. If this was the same John BOYS to whom John SELLERS, of Bracken County, sold land in 1814, and if Jacob HIGBEE was the same neighbor in both records, then John SELLERS also owned land in the same neighborhood. Boat Run is on the Ohio side of the river at Clermontville, between New Richmond and Moscow, Ohio, across from California, Kentucky [about 30 miles downstream from Levanna].

The 1816 tax records for Adams County, Ohio contain the names of John SELLERS, who owned 95 acres of 2nd rate land, and Justus PARKER, who owned 50 acres of 2nd rate land. Both parcels were in Eagle Township and had been part of original entry number 1025, belonging to Nathaniel FOX. The records also recorded a transfer of 50 acres of land from John SELLERS to Justin PARKER. Even though this sale actually happened in 1812, the tax records indicate it was recorded between 26 Mar 1815 and 26 Mar 1816.

Michael SELLERS served in the company commanded by Captain Abraham SHEPHERD (probably from Ross County, northeast of Adams County) from 2 Sep to 2 Oct 1812, and from 29 Jul to 22 Aug 1813. (My emphasis – RKH)

Josiah PARKER served in the company commanded by John ALEXANDER (probably Harrison or Jefferson County) from 11 Sep to 8 Oct 1812 and from 29 Jul to 22 Aug 1813. Even though this name seems to be suspiciously similar to the Josiah PARKER of Adams County, these two counties are located on the eastern side of Ohio – near Wheeling, West Virginia.

On 6 Jan 1814, John and Elizabeth SELLERS, of Adams County, Ohio, sold 226 acres, more or less, of land located in Adams County to Nicholas DEVORE, of the same county, for $461.00. It was described as "on the waters of Red Oak Creek, being part of a tract of land surveyed in the name of Josiah PARKER and patented in the name of John EDWARDS and from EDWARDS conveyed to Philemon THOMAS and from THOMAS to the said SELLERS." Thus was the remaining Red Oak Creek land in possession of John SELLERS that he had purchased in 1806. This would have left 93 acres on Eagle Creek in John SELLERS' possession.

On 3 Oct 1814, John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold 40 acres of land located in Clermont County, Ohio, to John BOYS of Clermont County, Ohio, for $140.00. Neighbors to the property were Thomas DOWDEN, R. BUTTLES, William BENNET, and Jacob HOUSE. The deed was recorded 4 Oct 1814. It is unknown when he purchased this land. The same sale is recorded in Bracken County, Kentucky, but indicates it was 20 acres rather than 40 acres, and identifies Jacob HOUSE as Isaac HOUSE. If this is the same John and Elizabeth SELLERS who owned land in Adams County, Ohio, it is curious why they would have been identified as "of Bracken County, Kentucky" or why the sale would have also been recorded in Bracken County. From correlation with subsequent land records, it appears this parcel of land was on or near Four Mile which is about 20 miles downstream from Levanna, (Clermont County,) Ohio. Therefore, it is quite likely this was a different John SELLERS than the one who owned land on Red Oak Creek and Eagle Creek, Adams County.

On 25 Dec 1815, Michael and Katharine SELLERS, of Clermont County, Ohio, sold 40 acres of land, to Isaac PARKER, of Adams County, Ohio, for an amount not specified. It was described as "all that tract or parcel of land which was deeded to them by John SELLERS (May 1812) being part of two thousand acres entered in the name and patented for and to Nathaniel COX and is in the County of Adams and on the head waters of Eagle Creek." Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and William D. BOWLES.

On 20 Mar 1816, William and Elizabeth BUTTS, of Pleasant Township, Clermont County, Ohio, sold lot #11 in Levanna, Clermont County, to Peter SELLERS, for $46.00. Witnesses were Samuel JACKSON and J. D. EVANS. This is the first known purchase of land by Peter SELLERS. If Peter was born about 1789, he would have been 26-27 years old and unmarried.

On 28 May 1816, George and Ruth SELLERS, of Bracken County, Kentucky, sold 39 acres of land, located in Clermont County, Ohio, to Jacob HOUSE, of Clermont County, Ohio, for $122.00. It was described as "a certain tract or parcel of land situated lying and being in the said county of Clermont and State of Ohio on Four Mile being part of a tract entered in the name of Thomas OVERTON and patented to Walter WARFIELD", and bounded next to John BOYCE (or BOYD). Therefore, George and Michael SELLERS both owned land in the same neighborhood. If this was the same John BOYS to whom John SELLERS, of Bracken County, sold land in 1814, and if Jacob HOUSE was the same neighbor in both records, then John SELLERS also owned land in the same neighborhood. [Four Mile is on the Ohio side of the river in Clermont County, between New Richmond and Moscow, Ohio, across from California, Kentucky (about 30 miles downstream from Levanna).]

The 1816 tax records for Adams County, Ohio contain the names of John SELLERS, who owned 93 acres of 2nd rate land, and Josiah PARKER, who owned 30 acres of 2nd rate land. Both parcels were in Eagle Township and had been part of original entry number 1622, belonging to Nathaniel COX. The records also recorded a transfer of 30 acres of land from John SELLERS to Josiah PARKER. Even though this sale actually happened in 1812, the tax records indicate it was recorded between 28 Mar 1815 and 28 Mar 1816.

On 26 Dec 1817, John D. EVANS, of Pleasant Township, Clermont County, Ohio, sold lot 5 in the town of Levanna, Clermont County, Ohio, to Peter SELLERS, of Clermont County, for $55.00.

The 1817 tax records for Adams County, Ohio contain the names of John SELLERS, who owned 95 acres of 2nd rate land, and Justus PARKER, who owned 50 acres of 2nd rate land. Both parcels were in Eagle Township and had been part of original entry number 1025, belonging to Nathaniel FOX.

Brown County, Ohio was formed from Adams and Clermont counties in 1818. The areas of Clermont and Adams Counties where the SELLERS families lived became part of Brown County.

On 7 Apr 1818, William and Elizabeth BUTTS, of Pleasant Township, Brown County, Ohio, sold lot 30 in Levanna, Brown County, to Peter SELLERS, of Pleasant Township, Brown County, for $120.00. Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and Hezekiah ELLIS. He then owned lots 5, 30, and 31 in the Town of Levanna.

On 22 Apr 1818, Peter SELLERS, of the town of Levanna, Brown County, Ohio, sold lot 5 in the town of Levanna, to William BUTT and Jacob SCHULTZ, of the same place, for $125.00. Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and Hezekiah ELLIS. It was recorded 21 May 1818.

On 18 Jul 1818, Justice and Mary PARKER, of Brown County, Ohio, sold 50 acres of land located "on the head of the Little West Fork of Eagle Creek" to Stephen REYNOLDS, for $400.00. Witnesses were William LEACK and Robert ALLEN. They had purchased it from John SELLERS in May 1812.

The 1818 tax records for Adams County, Ohio contain the names of John SELLERS, who owned 95 acres of 2nd rate land, and Justus PARKER, who owned 50 acres of 2nd rate land. Both parcels were in Eagle Township and had been part of original entry number 1025, belonging to Nathaniel FOX. The records were identified as "supposed to be in Brown County".

Thomas SELLERS married Diadama CURTIS, daughter of Joseph and Elsa Diadema CURTIS, on 2 Sep 1819, in Brown County, Ohio, in a ceremony preformed by Robert ALLEN, Justice of the Peace. They were both about 19-20 years old. That county is located directly across the Ohio River from Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky.

Diadama CURTIS was born about 1800, in Stephentown, Rensselaer County, New York, and had moved with her family to Ohio in about 1818. At the time of the 1820 census, the CURTIS family lived in Eagle Township, the same place where the SELLERS family had lived. Thomas and Diadama probably met because of their proximity to each other. Eagle Township is located in the northeastern corner of the county and contains the towns of Fincastle and Macon.

The 1819 tax list for Brown County, Ohio included the names of John SELLERS, who owned 95 acres of 2nd rate land, and Justice PARKER who owned 50 acres of 2nd rate land. Both had land that was originally entered by Nathaniel FOX, entry number 1025. If they were not neighbors, they were very close to each other.

The 1820 Federal Census does not include an entry for Thomas SELLERS in Brown County, Ohio. However, the make-up of the Joseph CURTIS family is such that Thomas and his new bride (Diadama Curtis SELLERS) could have been living with them. The Joseph CURTIS family consisted of one male age over 45, two males age 16-26, one male age 16-18, one male age 10-16, two males age under 10, one female age 16-26, one female age over 45, one female age 10-16, and two females age under 10. The only other Thomas SELLERS in the region was listed in Boone County, Kentucky, but his family make-up does not support a marriage in 1819. The head of household was over 45 years old, his spouse was over 45 years old, there was one male under 10, and two females 10-16 years old.

There was no John SELLERS in Brown County, but there was a Michael SELLERS in Byrd Township (on the eastern boundary of Brown County, containing the town of Decatur) and a Jacob SELLERS living in Eagle Township. The family of Michael SELLERS included four males age under 10, one male age 26-45, two females age under 10, and one female age 16-26. The family of Jacob included a male age 26-45, three females age under 10, and one female age over 45.

On 20 Dec 1817, John D. EVANS, of Pleasant Township, Clermont County, Ohio, sold lot 5 in the town of Levanna, Clermont County, Ohio, to Peter SELLERS, of Clermont County, for $50.00.

On 22 Apr 1818, Peter SELLERS, of the town of Levanna, Brown County, Ohio, sold lot 5 in the town of Levanna, to William HUFF and Jacob SCHOLTZ, of the same place, for $125.00. Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and Hezekiah ELLIS. It was recorded 21 May 1818.

On 18 Jul 1818, Justice and Mary PARKER, of Brown County, Ohio, sold 50 acres of land located "on the head of the Little West Fork of Eagle Creek" to Stephen REYNOLDS, for $200.00. Witnesses were William LEACH and Robert ALLEN. They had purchased it from John SELLERS in May 1812.

The family of Jacob included a male age 26-45, three females age under 10, and one female age over 45.

The 1820 Federal Census for Bracken County, Kentucky includes the families of Leonard SELLARS, John SELLERS, John SELLERS Jun., George SELLERS, Michael SELLERS, and Phillip SELLERS.

On the 1820 federal census for Perry County, Indiana were listed several families associated with the SELLERS family. They were John BUTT (age 16-26) (a John BUTT had married a Delila SELLERS, 6 Nov 1817) in Adams County, Ohio), Stephen LYON (age 26-45), Justus PARKER (age 26-45) (a Justus PARKER married a Mary SELLEY(?), 11 Dec 1804, in Adams County, Ohio), Peter PECKINGPAW (age 26-45), John PECKINGPAW (age 26-45), George PECKINGPAW (age over 45), John SULLERS (age over 45), and John SULLERS (age 16-26). John SULLERS (Sen.) family consisted of one male age over 45, one female age over 45, and one male age 16-26. John SULLERS (Jun) family consisted of one male age 16-26 and one female age 10-16. Since John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Perry County, Indiana sold land in Brown County, Ohio, on 4 Jun 1824, this entry for John SULLERS (Sen.) is presumed to have been for the same family, and, therefore, the presumed father of Thomas SELLERS. Since Thomas' father was in Perry County as early as the 1820 census, and his reported family profile did not accommodate Thomas and Diadama, then Thomas must have followed his father and brother later to the area, and settled in Crawford County between 1820 and 1822. The PECKENPAUGH families seem to be the same ones from Breckinridge County, Kentucky, just across the Ohio River from Perry County. Justus PARKER had come from Brown County, Ohio, where he had sold his land in July 1818.

There were no entries on the Brown County, Ohio tax records for John SELLERS or Justus PARKER for either of the years 1820 or 1821.

On 23 Nov 1820, George and Patsy POAGE, of Brown County, Ohio, sold lot 136 in the town of Ripley, located in Brown County, Ohio, to Michael SELLERS, for $109.00. Witnesses were William McMILLIN and Robert McMILLIN. The same lot was sold 2 Apr 1838, by Michael and Katherine SELLERS, of Brown County, Ohio, to Samuel E. WHITTEMORE, for $400.00. Witnesses were C. F. CAMPBELL and C. A.CAMPBELL.

On 14 Jan 1822, Thomas and Martha SMITH, of Brown County, Ohio , sold lot 11 and part of lot 10, in the town of Georgetown, to Peter SELLERS, of Brown County, for $400.00. Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and George DAVIS. On the same day, Peter and Mary SELLERS, of Brown County, sold lots 30 and 31, in the town of Levanna, to Thomas SMITH, for $400.00. Witnesses were Henry CHAPMAN and Andrew HYER. This divested Peter of all property in Levanna, so he must have moved to Georgetown at that time. It is very possible that Thomas SMITH and Peter SELLERS simply traded lots, since the values were the same.

THOMAS SELLERS AND FAMILY MOVE TO CRAWFORD COUNTY, INDIANA AND THEN TO WARREN COUNTY, ILLIONIS

(With a few comments related to John Sellers individuals who lived in Brown County, Ohio, and Vermillion County, Indiana. – RKH)

Thomas and Diadama SELLERS moved from Brown County, Ohio, to Crawford County, Indiana, between the time of their marriage in late 1819 and their first land purchase there in early 1822. They probably boated down the Ohio River and alighted at Leavenworth, Crawford County, Indiana, a river port town, a distance of about 200-250 miles from Brown County, Ohio. Crawford County was formed in 1818, from Orange, Harrison, and Perry Counties.

Thomas SELLERS purchased land from the United States, located in Crawford County, Indiana, as early as 2 Apr 1822. It was described as the E ½ of the NW ¼ of Section 25, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, containing 80 acres.

The 1822 Brown County, Ohio tax records contain an entry for Peter SELLERS, agent for John SELLERS, who owned 100 acres of 3rd rate land on Eagle Creek. It was described as having been part of the original entry number 1025 for Nathaniel FOX.

Emeline Betsey SELLERS was born about 1820-1822, probably in Indiana. There is no absolute proof that she was the daughter of Thomas SELLERS, but circumstantial evidence points in that direction, as follows: 1) The 1830 federal census for Crawford County, Indiana, noted that Thomas SELLERS had two females in his household age 5-10 years old, meaning they were born between 1820 and 1825. 2) One of them certainly was Laura Ann, born about 1823-1825, but the other was unknown, but presumed to have been older, since Laura's birth was so close to 1825. 3) The 1840 census for Thomas SELLERS showed only one female age 15-20 (presumably Laura Ann). Therefore, the other one, as shown on the 1830 census, had either died or married before 1840. If married, she would have done so at a relatively young age.

The Crawford County marriage records show a marriage license being issued 24 Oct 1836, for the marriage of Joseph LYON and Emeline SELLERS. The record indicates that her parent, not named, gave consent to the marriage since she was under age. That means she was born after 1818, and probably no later than 1821. Knowing that Joseph LYON later married Laura Ann SELLERS (10 Jul 1842) , and knowing there seemed to be only one Joseph LYON in Crawford County. Emeline presumably died, and Joseph married her younger sister. John SELLERS, the presumed brother of Thomas, had not been married long enough to have had a daughter this old, and Peter SELLERS, another brother, did not have a daughter according to census records.

On 17 Aug 1839, Joseph and Emaline Betsey LYON sold ten acres of land located in Crawford County, Indiana, to Thomas SELLERS. It was located immediately adjacent to the existing Thomas SELLERS holdings.

The 1840 federal census for Crawford County showed Joseph LYON's household consisting of one male age 20-30 (presumed to be Joseph); one female age 20-30 (unknown); one female age 15-20 (presumed to be Emeline); one male, age 10-15 (unknown); and one female age under 5 (presumed to be Mary Jane).

The 1850 federal census for Union Township, Crawford County, Indiana, included an entry for the Joseph LYON family. It consisted of Joseph, age 40, born in Kentucky; Laurian, age 26, born in Crawford County; Mary Jane, age 12, born in Crawford County; Diadema, age 6, born in Crawford County; and Eliza, age 2, born in Crawford County. Knowing that Joseph and Laura Ann were married in 1842, the oldest child, Mary Jane, had to have been from a previous marriage.

In Mar 1854, Joseph and Laura LYON sold their holdings in Crawford County, Indiana. They may have moved to Warren County, Illinois, before that, since their child, William J., was born in Illinois about 1851. The Crawford County land description included all holdings previously acquired and not yet sold, and specifically mentioned an excluded ten acres, whose description exactly matched the ten acres sold by Joseph and Emaline Betsey LYON in 1839, to Thomas SELLERS. Therefore, this indicates the remainder of the same land acquired before or during Joseph's marriage to Emaline, ten acres of which had been sold to Emaline's father, was sold while Joseph was married to Laura.

The conclusion from land records is that the very same Joseph LYON, who married Emaline Betsey SELLERS, later married Laura Ann SELLERS. The conclusion from census records is that Joseph LYON's first wife was no longer living in 1850, and that his oldest daughter, shown on the census, was from his first wife. The overall conclusion is that Emaline Betsey SELLERS was the daughter of Thomas SELLERS, because of (1) the land sale of 1839, (2) the proximity of the LYON property to the SELLERS farm, and (3) the lack of evidence that any other SELLERS family, with kids of the right age, lived in Crawford County at the time of the 1836 marriage.

Joseph and Laura Ann LYON moved to Warren County, Illinois about 1851, where Thomas SELLERS lived, along with Joseph's presumed brother, Jackson LYON. Records for the Church of Christ in Cameron, Illinois, indicate Joseph and Laura A. LYON were received into the congregation on the fourth Lord's day in November 1851. Joseph and Jackson were listed in Cold Brook Township, Warren County, at the time of the 1855 state census and the 1860 federal census. In 1855, Joseph's family consisted of three males and four females. In 1860, Joseph's family included himself, age 50, born in Kentucky; Laura A., age 37, born in Indiana; Diadama, age 17, born in Indiana; Eliza J, age 12, born in Indiana; William J., age 9, born in Illinois; Francis M., age 6, born in Illinois; and Alvira A., age 1, born in Illinois.

The 1823 tax records for Brown County, Ohio include an entry for Peter SELLERS, Agent for John SELLERS, who owned 100 acres of 3rd rate land on Straight Creek. It had been part of original entry number 1025, totally 2,000 acres, in the name of Nathaniel FOX. The name of John SELLERS did not appear subsequently on the Brown County tax records.

The second child of Thomas and Diadama SELLERS was Laura Ann SELLERS who was born about 1824, in Crawford County, IN. In 2001, these sheets were housed in the Joseph Smith Memorial Building, 4th Floor.

Alfred SELLERS, Thomas' nephew, born 1823, was the son of Peter and Mary SELLERS, who were natives of Pennsylvania and New York respectively. So Peter would have been in Pennsylvania in 1789, the approximate year of his birth.

On 4 Jun 1824, John and Elizabeth SELLERS, of Perry County, Indiana, the presumed parents of Thomas, sold their remaining land located in Brown County (originally Adams County), Ohio, to Peter PARKER, for $275.00. It was described as 95 acres surveyed in the name of Nathaniel FOX and patented to FOX, on the waters of Eagle Creek. It was further described as "Beginning at the beginning corner stone running thence West eighty four poles to a Stone, thence South one hundred and eighty one poles to a Stone, thence East Eighty four poles to a Stone, thence North one hundred and eighty one poles to the Beginning." Witnesses were George PECKENPAUGH and Justice PARKER (meaning these two men were in Perry County, Indiana). The Certificate to the identification of John and Elizabeth SELLERS was made by Gabriel GOOD, Justice of the Peace, in Perry County, Indiana, on 4 Jun 1824. The deed was recorded in Brown County, Ohio on 29 Jun 1824. This brought John's land holdings in Ohio to zero acres. This parcel of land had been purchased in 1810. (Perry County, Indiana borders Crawford County to the southwest, and sits between Crawford County and the Ohio River in that area.)

This deed establishes that the John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Perry County, Indiana, were the same persons who had lived in Eagle Township, Brown County, Ohio. It also means that John SELLERS (age over 45) , included on the 1820 census for Perry County, Indiana, who lived there in the same neighborhood with Justus PARKER and John BUTT, was also the same person. It must be noted that PARKER and BUTT were from Brown County, as well.

Tax records cited earlier, establish that John SELLERS of Brown County, Ohio, had moved from the county before 1822. These tax records reveal that Peter SELLERS acted as an "Agent for John SELLERS" in paying taxes, in both 1822 and 1823.

The John SELLERS, who owned land in Eagle Township, Brown County, Ohio, was the same person who owned the same land when it was part of Eagle Township, Adams County, Ohio. Brown County was formed from Adams County in 1818. Tax records for Adams County, for the year 1818, separately account for those landowners who became part of Brown County. John SELLERS and Justus PARKER were in that section of taxpayers.

The John SELLERS of Adams County, Ohio, was the same person who had lived in Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky, as established by the 26 Jul 1807 deed from John and Elizabeth SELLERS to Thomas LINSEY. This 1807 deed sold the land John had purchased in 1797, land which was located in Mason County, Kentucky.

The final conclusion is that the John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Perry County, Indiana, of 1824, were the same John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky, of 1797. It also means the migration pattern of the SELLERS families, including Thomas, was from Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky to Adams County (which later became Brown County), Ohio, and then to Perry and Crawford Counties, Indiana. Nothing more is known of John SELLERS Senior or his wife, Elizabeth. They may have died in Perry County, they may have moved to be with their son, Thomas, in Crawford County, they may have followed their son, John, to Vermillion County, Indiana, or they could have moved to some other unknown location.

But are this John and Elizabeth Sellers the parents of my Jacob Sellers? -- RKH

A person named John SELLERS married Jane HARRIS, on 26 Jul 1824, in Crawford County, Indiana. Thomas SELLERS verified that he was of lawful age; so, therefore, this John is presumed to have been the brother of Thomas, and not the father.

under 1825, totally 2,400 acres, in the name of Nathaniel FOX. The name of John SELLERS did not appear subsequently on the Brown County tax records.

The second child of Thomas and Charlotte SELLERS was Laura Ann SELLERS who was born about 1821, in Crawford County, IN. In 2001, these stones were housed in the Joseph Smith Memorial Building, 9th Floor.

Alfred SELLERS, Thomas' nephew, born 1822, was the son of Peter and Mary SELLERS, who were natives of Pennsylvania and New York respectively. So Peter would have been in Pennsylvania in 1789, the approximate year of his birth.

On 6 Jan 1824, John and Elizabeth SELLERS, of Perry County, Indiana, the presumed parents of Thomas, sold their remaining land located in Brown County (originally Adams County), Ohio, to Peter PARKER, for $275.00. It was described as 60 acres surveyed in the name of Nathaniel FOX and patented to FOX, on the waters of Eagle Creek. It was further described as "Beginning at the beginning corner stone running thence West eighty four poles to a Stone, thence South one hundred and eighty one poles to a Stone, thence East Eighty four poles to a Stone, thence North one hundred and eighty one poles to the Beginning." Witnesses were Oakley HICKENBAUGH and Nelson PARKER (probably these two last were in Perry County, Indiana). The Certificate of the acknowledgement of John and Elizabeth SELLERS was made by Gabriel COOK, Justice of the Peace, in Perry County, Indiana, on 6 Jan 1824. The deed was recorded in Brown County, Ohio on 29 Jan 1824. This brought John's land holdings in Ohio to zero acres. This parcel of land had been purchased in 1810. (Perry County, Indiana borders Crawford County on the southeast, and sits between Crawford County and the Ohio River in that area.)

This deed establishes that the John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Perry County, Indiana, were the same persons who had lived in Eagle Township, Brown County, Ohio. It also means that John SELLERS (age over 45), recorded on the 1820 census for Perry County, Indiana, who lived there in the same neighborhood with Aaron PARKER and John BUTT, was also the same person. It may be noted that PARKER and BUTT were from Brown County, as well.

Tax records cited earlier, establish that John SELLERS of Brown County, Ohio, had moved from the county before 1825. These tax records reveal that Peter SELLERS acted as an "Agent for John SELLERS" in paying taxes, in both 1822 and 1823.

The John SELLERS who owned land in Eagle Township, Brown County, Ohio, was the same person who owned the same land when it was part of Eagle Township, Adams County, Ohio. Brown County was formed from Adams County in 1818. Tax records for Adams County, for the year 1818, separately account for those landowners who became part of Brown County. John SELLERS and Aaron PARKER were in that section of taxpayers.

The John SELLERS of Adams County, Ohio, was the same person who had lived in Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky, as established by the 25 Jan 1802 deed from John and Elizabeth SELLERS to Thomas LINSEY. This 1802 deed sold the land John had purchased in 1797, land which was located in Mason County, Kentucky.

The final conclusion is that the John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Perry County, Indiana, of 1824, were the same John and Elizabeth SELLERS of Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky, of 1797. It also shows the migration pattern of the SELLERS families, including Thomas, was from Bracken and Mason Counties, Kentucky to Adams County (which later became Brown County), Ohio, and then to Perry and Crawford Counties, Indiana. Nothing more is known of John SELLERS Senior or his wife, Elizabeth. They may have died in Perry County, they may have moved to be with their son, Thomas, in Crawford County, they may have followed their son, John, to Vermillion County, Indiana, or they could have moved to some other unknown location.

But are John and Elizabeth Sellers the parents of our Jacob SELLERS? -- RGH

A person named John SELLERS married Jane HARRIS, on 26 Jul 1824, in Crawford County, Indiana. Thomas SELLERS verified that he was of lawful age; so, therefore, this John is presumed to have been the brother of Thomas, and not the father.

On 16 Oct 1824, Thomas MORRIS and William MIDDLETON, trustees for James WOODS, Abel REES, and Henry NEWKIRK, sold lots 3 and 22, in the town of Georgetown, Brown County, Ohio, to Peter SELLERS, for $36.00. Witnesses were William BUTT and T. L. HOMER. It was recorded 24 Jun 1825. This brought Peter's holdings to lots 3, 22, 11, and part of 10 in Georgetown, and lot 66 in Levanna.

Aurilla SELLERS was born 19 May 1826, in Crawford County, IN.

Thomas SELLERS purchased land from the United States, located in Crawford County, Indiana, on 7 Jul 1829. It was described as the West ½ of the NW ¼ of Section 25, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, containing 80 acres. This purchase increased his holdings to a total of 160 acres.

George Wilson SELLERS was born about 1830, in Crawford County, IN.

At the time of the 1830 federal census Thomas SELLERS was living in Crawford County, Indiana. His family consisted of one male, age 20-30 (Thomas); one female, age 30-40 (Diadama); two females, age 5-10 (Laura and an unknown daughter who was probably Emaline Betsy); one female, age under 5 (Aurilla); and one male, age under 5 (George).

At the time of the 1830 census, Peter SELLERS lived in Pleasant Township, Brown County, Ohio, and his family consisted of one male age 40-50 (Peter), one female age 30-40 (Mary), one female age 20-30 (unknown, and too old to have been a daughter), and two males age 5-10 (Alfred and perhaps William).

On the 1830 federal census for Vermillion County, Indiana many of the same families from Perry County (1820) reappeared. They were Stephen LYON (age 30-40), Justus PARKER (age 50-60), George PECKINPAW (age 60-70), Solomon PECKINPAW (age 30-40), Henry PECKINPAW (age 30-40), and John SELLERS (age 20-30). The family of John SELLERS included one male age 20-30 (John) and one male age under 10 (unknown). If this was the same John who married Jane HARRIS, 26 Jul 1824, then his wife must have died before the census. The age of the child fits a marriage of about that time. Being in Vermillion County, it is curious why he would have returned to Crawford County to marry again in 1837, if John SELLERS of Vermillion County was the same as John SELLERS of Crawford County. Vermillion County (county seat of Newport) is a very long and thin-shaped county, squeezed between the western border of Indiana and the Wabash River, about 80 miles directly west from Indianapolis. The 1830 federal census for Bracken County, Kentucky includes the families of Flora (widow of Leonard) SELLARS, John SELLARS Sen., John SELLARS Jun, George SELLARS, George SELLARS Jun, Catherine SELLERS (widow of Michael SELLERS Senior), Joshua A. SELLERS, and Phillip SELLERS. Michael SELLERS was listed in Union Township, Brown County, Ohio, and could have been the brother of Peter and Thomas.

This seems further proof that John SELLERS of Bracken County, Kentucky, was a separate and distinct person from the John SELLERS of Adams County, Ohio, who moved to Perry County, Indiana.

Thomas SELLERS purchased land from the United States, located in Crawford County, Indiana, on 19 Oct 1832. It was described as the SE ¼ of the NE ¼ of Section 26, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, containing 40 acres. This purchase increased his holdings to a total of 200 acres.

Allen Davenport SELLERS was born 13 Nov 1833, in Crawford County, IN.

On 19 Feb 1835, Peter and Polly SELLERS, of Brown County, Ohio, sold lot 66, in the town of Levana, Brown County, to William SELL, for $10.00. Witnesses were W. H. S. MACKAY and H. B. PAYNE. It was recorded 23 Mar 1841, after Peter's death.

On 1 Apr 1835, Thomas and Diadama SELLERS, of Union Township, Crawford County, Indiana, sold 200 acres of land to John L. SMITH, for $400.00. It was described as one parcel consisting of the NW ¼ of Section 25, in Township 3 South of Range 1 West, and another parcel consisting of the SE ¼ of the NE ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. This was probably a mortgage.

On 28 Dec 1835, Peter and Mary SELLERS, of Brown County, Ohio, sold lots 3 and 22, in the town of Georgetown, to Thomas H. LINCH, of Brown County, for $50.00. Witnesses were H.B. PAYNE and James S. BARNS. It was recorded 20 May 1839. This left them with only lots 11 and part of 10, in Georgetown.

Thomas SELLERS, of Union Township, Crawford County, Indiana, purchased 200 acres of land from John L. and Malinda SMITH on 28 Apr 1836 for $425.00. It was described as the NW ¼ of Section 25 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West; and the SE ¼ of the NE ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. This was probably the satisfaction of the mortgage described above.

On 24 Oct 1836, Emeline SELLERS married Joseph LYON in Crawford County, Indiana. She was probably born no earlier than 1820 and would have been about 15-16 years old.

Thomas SELLERS purchased land from the United States, located in Crawford County, Indiana, on 4 Jan 1837. It was described as the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 25, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, containing 40 acres. This brought his total holdings to 240 acres. A man named John SELLERS married Sarah TONEY, in Crawford County, Indiana, on 29 Jan 1837. This is presumed to be the same John SELLERS that married Jane HARRIS in 1824, and, therefore, the likely brother of Thomas SELLERS.

Eliza Jane SELLERS was born 5 Jun 1837, in Crawford County, IN.

On 17 Aug 1839, Joseph and Emaline Betsy LYON sold 10 acres of land to Thomas SELLERS for $12.50. It was described as lying in Crawford County, Indiana, and part of the SW ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. This parcel was contiguous with Thomas' other holdings and his total holdings to 250 acres.

Francis Marion SELLERS was born about 1839, in Crawford County, IN.

The 1840 Federal Census included an entry for the Thomas SELLERS family in Crawford County, Indiana. It consisted of one male, age 30-40 (Thomas); one female, age 40-50 (Diadama); one female, age 15-20 (Laura); one female, age 10-15 (Aurilla); one male, age 10-15 (George); two males, age 5-10 (Allen and an unknown male); one female, age under 5 (Eliza) and one male, age under 5 (Francis). On the same page of the census were Joseph LYON and John SILLERS, the son-in-law [of ???? – RKH] and brother of Thomas.

At the time of the 1840 census, Peter SELLERS was living in Pleasant Township, Brown County, Ohio. His family consisted of one male age 50-60 (Peter), one female age 40-50 (Mary), and two males age 15-20 (Alfred and perhaps William). In Union Township, Brown County, Ohio lived the Michael SELLERS family, consisting of ten people, namely, one male age 50-60, one male age 40-50, one male age 20-30, one male age 15-20, one male age 10-15, one female age 40-50, one female age 15-20, one female age 10-15, and two females age 5-10.

In 1840, some of the same families who had lived together in Perry and Vermillion Counties, Indiana, lived in the same general area in Illinois. Justus PARKER (age 70-80), Jacob PARKER (age 20-30), and Bartain PARKER (age 20-30) lived in Knox County, Illinois. Knox County borders the eastern side of Warren County, Illinois. George PECKENPAUGH (age 40-50), Henry PECKENPAUGH (age 40-50), and Willis PECKENPAUGH (age 30-40) lived in Mercer County, Illinois. Mercer County borders the northern side of Warren County.

Peter SELLERS died before 8 Feb 1841, when his widow, Mary, was appointed administratrix for his estate.

On 13 Apr 1841, Jackson and Jane LYON sold 120 acres of land, situated in Crawford County, Indiana, to Thomas SELLERS, for $300.00. One parcel was described as the E ½ of the SW ¼ of Section 14 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (80 acres). This parcel had been patented to George PECKENPAUGH. The other parcel was described as the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 14 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (40 acres). This brought Thomas' total holdings to 370 acres. Nelson SELLERS was born about 1841, in Crawford County, IN. Diadama SELLERS died about 1841, possibly associated with the birth of Nelson.

On 28 Dec 1835, Peter and Mary SELLERS, of Brown County, Ohio, sold lots 5 and 22, in the town of Georgetown, to Thomas H. LYNCH, of Brown County, for $50.00. Witnesses were H.D. PAYNE and Moses S. HAINES. It was recorded 20 May 1839. This left them with only lots 11 and part of 10, in Georgetown.

Thomas SELLERS, of Union Township, Crawford County, Indiana, purchased 200 acres of land from John L. and Malinda SMITH on 28 Aug 1836 for $425.00. It was described as the NW ¼ of Section 25 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West, and the SE ¼ of the NE ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. This was probably the satisfaction of the mortgage discussed above.

On 26 Oct 1836, Emeline SELLERS married Joseph LYON in Crawford County, Indiana. She was probably born no earlier than 1820 and would have been about 15-16 years old.

Thomas SELLERS purchased land from the United States, located in Crawford County, Indiana, on 4 Jan 1837. It was described as the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 25, Township 3 South, Range 1 West, containing 40 acres. This brought his total holdings to 240 acres. A man named John SELLERS married Sarah TOWNEY, in Crawford County, Indiana, on 29 Jan 1837. This is presumed to be the same John SELLERS that married Jane HARRIS in 1824, and, therefore, the likely brother of Thomas SELLERS.

Eliza Jane SELLERS was born 2 Jan 1837, in Crawford County, IN.

On 11 Aug 1838, Joseph and Emeline LYON sold 10 acres of land to Thomas SELLERS for $12.50. It was described as lying in Crawford County, Indiana, and part of the SW ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. This parcel was contiguous with Thomas' other holdings and his total holdings to 250 acres.

Francis Marion SELLERS was born about 1838, in Crawford County, IN.

The 1840 Federal Census includes an entry for the Thomas SELLERS family in Crawford County, Indiana. It consisted of one male, age 30-40 (Thomas); one female, age 30-40 (Dorothea); one female, age 15-20 (Louisa); one female, age 10-15 (Aurilla); one male, age 10-15 (George); two males, age 5-10 (Adam and an unknown male); one female, age under 5 (Eliza) and one male, age under 5 (Francis). On the same page of the census were Joseph LYON and John SELLERS, the latter likely the [sic ???? – KRH] and brother of Thomas.

At the time of the 1840 census, Peter SELLERS was living in Pleasant Township, Brown County, Ohio. His family consisted of one male age 50-60 (Peter), one female age 40-50 (Mary), and two males age 15-20 (Alfred and perhaps Wilson). In Union Township, Brown County, Ohio lived the Abraham SELLERS family, consisting of ten people, namely, one male age 20-30, one male age 40-50, one male age 20-30, one male age 15-20, one male age 10-15, one female age 40-50, one female age 15-20, one female age 10-15, and two females age 5-10.

In 1840, some of the same families who had lived together in Perry and Vermillion Counties, Indiana, lived in the same general area in Illinois. James PARKER (age 30-40), Jacob PARKER (age 20-30), and Hannah PARKER (age 20-30) lived in Knox County, Illinois. Knox County borders the eastern side of Warren County, Illinois. George PECKENPAUGH (age 40-50), Henry PECKENPAUGH (age 40-50), and Wilson PECKENPAUGH (age 30-40) lived in Mercer County, Illinois. Mercer County borders the northern side of Warren County.

Peter SELLERS died before 4 Feb 1841, when his widow, Mary, was appointed administratrix for his estate.

On 13 Apr 1841, Johnson and Jane LYON sold 120 acres of land, situated in Crawford County, Indiana, to Thomas SELLERS for $300.00. One parcel was described as the E ½ of the SW ¼ of Section 14 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (80 acres). This parcel had been patented to George PECKENPAUGH. The other parcel was described as the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 14 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (40 acres). This brought Thomas' total holdings to 370 acres. Nelson SELLERS was born about 1841, in Crawford County, IN. Dorothea SELLERS died about 1841, possibly associated with the birth of Nelson.

Thomas SELLERS (widower, about 41 years old) married Mary (Polly) Curtis SELLERS (widow, about 49 years old) 2 Jun 1842, in Brown County, Ohio. Mary was the widow of Thomas' brother, Peter SELLERS. The administration of Peter's estate was switched from Mary to Vincent CRABB on 31 Oct 1842.

Mary (Polly) Curtis SELLERS was the daughter of Joseph and Elsa Diadema CURTIS and the sister of Thomas' first wife, Diadama. She was born about 1792, in Stephentown, Rensselaer County, New York, and had moved with her family to Ohio in about 1818. She had married Peter SELLERS on 15 Nov 1819, in Brown County, Ohio, and had two sons, Alfred and William (presumed from estate settlement for Peter).

Laura Ann SELLERS married Joseph LYON (widower of her late sister, Emeline) on 7 Jul 1842, in Crawford County, Indiana. Her father was just a newlywed himself.

Letters of Administration were issued on the estate of Michael SELLERS, of Brown County, Ohio, in 1843, to Preston W. SELLERS. Michael must have died at that time.

On 9 Oct 1844, Thomas and Mary SELLERS, of Crawford County, Indiana, sold 120 acres of land to John HUGHES for $380.00. One parcel was described as the E ½ of the SW ¼ of Section 14 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (80 Acres). The other parcel was the NW ¼ of the SE ¼ of Section 14 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (40 Acres). This reduced his total holdings to 250 acres. These two parcels had been purchased in Apr 1841.

On 10 Apr 1847, Thomas and Mary SELLERS took out a mortgage of $50.00, on the W ½ of the NW V of Section 25 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. The mortgage was paid in full on 31 Mar 1848.

On 29 (or 27, the day is not readable) Aug 1847, Aurilla (or Orvilla) SELLERS married Lewis B. PECKENPAUGH in Crawford County, Indiana.

On 21 Mar 1848, Thomas and Mary SELLERS sold 200 acres of land in Crawford County, Indiana, to Isaac W. SHIELDS for $700.00. They were contained in two parcels described as: 1) the NW ¼ of Section 25 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (160 acres); and 2) the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 25 of Township 3 South of Range 1 West (40 acres). This reduced their total holdings to 50 acres.

On 23 Mar 1848, Thomas and Mary SELLERS mortgaged 40 acres of land in Crawford County, Indiana, to the United States, for $50.00. The parcel was described as the SE ¼ of the NE ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West. About 1848, the Thomas SELLERS family moved from Crawford County, Indiana, to Warren County, Illinois, quite possibly drawn by friends and relatives.

Thomas SELLERS bought 160 acres of land in Warren County, Illinois on 24 Apr 1848, from Patrick R. and Jane HALEY, for $1,000.00. It was described as the NW ¼ of Section 26, Township 11 North, of Range 1 West. It was located about eight miles east of Monmouth and six miles southwest of Galesburg, near Cameron.

On 12 May 1849, Thomas and Mary SELLERS of Warren County, Illinois, sold 50 acres of land back in Crawford County, Indiana, to Joseph JONES for $400.00. One parcel was described as the SE ¼ of the NW ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (40 acres) and the second parcel was part of the SW ¼ of Section 26 in Township 3 South of Range 1 West (10 acres). It is presumed they paid off their mortgage of $50.00, on the first parcel at the same time. Another deed record dated 15 Apr 1850, shows a sale of the same land by Thomas and Mary SELLERS of Warren County, Illinois, to the same Joseph JONES. This reduced his total Crawford County holdings to zero acres. The reason for two deeds dated a year apart is unknown.

The 1850 Federal Census for Warren County, Illinois included an entry for the Thomas SELLARS family. It consisted of Thomas, age 51, born in Kentucky; Mary, age 57, born in New York; George W., age 19; Allen D., age 17; Jane, age 13; and Francis M., age 10. All the children were born in Indiana. Living two houses away was the family of Alfred SELLERS, age 28, born in Ohio, the son of Peter SELLERS and, therefore, also son of Thomas' second wife, Mary. The whereabouts of Mary's other son, William, is unknown.

On the same 1850 census, John SELLERS, the presumed brother of Thomas, lived 20 households away, with Barton S. PARKER, age 39. John was reported as being 53 years old, born in Kentucky. Therefore, the order of births of the three brothers would have been Peter in 1789, John in 1797, and Thomas in 1800.

In 1850, the following families lived in Warren County, Illinois: Stephen PECKENPAUGH (age 26, born in Indiana); Thomas SELLARS (age 51, born in Kentucky); Lewis PECKENPAUGH (age 24, born in Indiana); Jacob S. PARKER (age 33, born in Ohio); Jackson LYON (age 37, born in Kentucky); Harvey PARKER (age 45, born in Ohio); Absolum PECKENPAUGH (age 38, born in Kentucky); Barton S. PARKER (age 39, born in Ohio); John SELLARS (age 53, born in Kentucky); Ashcraft PARKER (age 26, born in Kentucky); Justus PARKER (age 71, born in New Jersey, with wife, Mary Ann, age 65, born in Virginia); Barzilla PARKER; and Sobrina PARKER. Next door, in Knox County, lived Andress PARKER, Andress PARKER, Jr., Elizabeth PARKER, William PARKER, William H. PARKER, Abias PECKINPAUGH, Barton PECKINPAUGH, James PECKINPAUGH , Horton PECKINPAW , and Peter PECKINPAW . In Pike County lived Willis PECKPAUGH, and in Schuyler County was Jane PECKINPAUGH .

If the Justus PARKER of the 1850 census was the same person as the one in Adams County, Ohio land deeds, and was the same as the one who married Mary SELLEY (SELLERS) in Adams County in 1804, then this Mary Ann may have been an older sister of Thomas SELLERS.

On 26 May 1851, three years after his first purchase, Thomas bought another 160 acres from Stephen D. PARDER. This brought his total Warren County holdings to 320 acres. He sold the first parcel on 10 Sep 1851, along with half of the second parcel. Then on 6 Oct 1851, he sold the remaining 80 acres. All parcels were located in either the NW or SW ¼ of Section 26, Township 11, and Range 1 West. Thomas' property was located about 2 ½ miles northeast of Cameron, Illinois, in the northeastern part of Warren County.

Union Township, Harrison County, Iowa, was settled as early as 1853. It is located on the western edge of Iowa, just north of Omaha, Nebraska. Thomas SELLERS was among the first to locate there.

In a later sketch of Alfred SELLERS, the following comments were included. "Alfred SELLERS, who is numbered among the pioneer band who sought for themselves a home in this goodly portion of Iowa, has been a resident of Harrison County, since 1853 and hence a short sketch of his career is truly befitting in this connection. He is now a resident of section 21, Union Township. He first settled at Union Grove, where he became a "squatter." He and his uncle (Thomas SELLERS) bought out some old Mormon claims, upon which had been erected log cabins, and a few acres of hazel-brush land under cultivation. Here our subject remained with his uncle about three years, and then purchased eighty acres of land..."

Thomas SELLERS purchased land in Harrison County, Iowa on 18 Apr 1854. It was described as 40 acres in the NE ¼ of the NW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

The 1854 state census listed the family in Lagrange Township, and it included two males and one female.

This was followed by a purchase of 80 acres on 20 Jun 1854, from William C. McBEATH, for $100.00. It was the W ½ of the NW ¼ 1/4 of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

Then on 13 Feb 1855, he bought an additional 40 acres, in the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

Thomas SELLERS bought 40 acres on 15 Jun 1855. It was located in the SE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42. This brought his total Harrison County holdings to 200 acres.

On 21 Aug 1855, he bought 40 acres in Sections 23 and 24, from Samuel and Mary WOOD for $65.00. It was described as the E ½ of the NW ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 24 Township 78 North of Range 42 West (20 acres); plus the NE ½ of the SE ¼ of the NE ¼ of Section 23 (20 acres) Township 78 North of Range 42 West.

The 1856 state census enumerated the family in Lagrange Township (probably the predecessor of Union), Harrison County, Iowa. The family had been a resident of Iowa three years and consisted of Thomas, age 55, born in Kentucky, Mary, age 62, born in New York, and Francis M. age 16, born in Indiana. Next door was living Alfred SELLERS, age 34, born in Ohio.

On 11 Dec 1856, Thomas bought 40 acres in Section 23, from W. C. JAMES for $60.00. It was the NE ¼ of the NE ¼ in Section 23, Township 78 North, Range 42 West. This brought his holdings to 280 acres.

On 6 Oct 1858, Thomas acquired 80 acres of swampland in Sections 22 and 27. It was described as being the SE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 22 (40 acres); plus the NW ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 27 (40 acres) Township 78 of Range 42. Thomas was the assignee of a preemption certificate originally issued to B. S. PARKIN (probably PARKER).

On 1 Jan 1859, Thomas and Mary SELLERS sold ten acres of land to Ezekiel DOWNS for $100.00. It was described as being at the southwest corner of the SW ¼ of the NW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

At the time of the 1860 census, Thomas SELLERS was living in Union Township, Harrison County, Iowa. He was 59 years old, born in Kentucky, and included in his household were, Mary, age 66, born in New York; and George W., age 28, born in Indiana. Nine households away was the family of Alfred SELLERS, Thomas' nephew. Next door to Thomas was Barton and Eliza J. PARKER, Thomas's daughter, and next door to Alfred was Arilla PECKENPAUGH, Thomas's daughter. Next door to Arilla was Allen D. SELLERS, Thomas' son.

On 26 Feb 1861, Elder Thomas SELLERS was reported to be the President of the Union Grove Branch of the Reorganized Church of Jesus Christ of Latter Day Saints. That Branch was the first branch to organize within the newly organized Reorganized Church.

Mrs. Thomas (Mary) SELLERS was the first adult to die (about 1861) within Union Township. She was buried on Section 14, a neighborhood cemetery. She would have been about 67 years old.

Thomas SELLERS (widower) married Louisa (Merritt) HILDRETH, 2 Aug 1863, in Harrison County, Iowa. He was about 63, and she was about 59 years old.

Louisa Merritt HILDRETH was born 22 Mar 1806, in Templeton, Worcester County, Massachusetts, and was the daughter of Uriah MERRITT and Louisa PENNEMAN. She married Gehiel HILDRETH 6 Sep 1832, in New Ipswich, Hillsborough, New Hampshire , and had five children. Gehiel HILDRETH died 1856-1860.

Thomas and Louisa sold ten acres of land on 16 Sep 1863, to Benjamin MAGINNUS, for $50.00. It was described as the southeast part of the SE ¼ of the NW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78 Range 42.

Thomas and Louisa sold 40 acres of swampland to Charles BAUGHN, on 11 Jul 1864, for $100.00. It was located in the SE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 22, Township 78, Range 42.

On 15 Mar 1865, it appears Thomas and Louisa mortgaged their holdings for $1,500.00, to Sarah DIGGLE. Total acreage amounted to 335 acres.

Thomas and Louisa SELLERS sold 20 acres of land to Jason WHITINGER on 25 Mar 1865. It was located in the NW ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

On 14 Jul 1865, Thomas SELLERS bought 80 acres of land from Ruth and J. M. BUTLER, for $600.00. It consisted of two parcels described as the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ and the NW ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 13, Township 78 North, Range 42 West. This should have brought his total holdings to 395 acres.

On 9 Aug 1866, Thomas and Louisa SELLERS sold five acres of land to Charles KIMMICH for $20.00. It was in the S ½ of the NW ¼ of the SW ¼ of the NW ¼ of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

On 17 Mar 1870, Thomas and Louisa SELLERS sold three acres of land to Aaron K. PARKER, for $100.00. It was located in a "square" in the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 13 in Township 78 of Range 42 West.

At the time of the 1870 census, Thomas SELLERS was again listed in Union Township, Harrison County, Iowa. He was 69 years old, born in Kentucky, and included in his household was Louisa, age 66, born in Massachusetts.

Thomas and Louisa SELLERS sold four acres of land to B. S. PARKER, on 28 Oct 1871, for $70.00. It was described as lying near the SE corner of the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 13, Township 78 Range 42.

On 5 Sep 1874, Thomas and Louisa SELLERS sold 66 acres of land to Charles BAUGHN and William GARNER for $1,000. It was described as the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ (40 acres) and the NW ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 13, Township 78, Range 42, except ten acres off the north end and four acres in the southeast corner of the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ (26 acres).

On 9 Sep 1874, Thomas and Louisa SELLERS sold seven acres of land to G. W. SELLERS, for $1.00. It was described as part of the NE ¼ of the SW ¼ of Section 13, Township 78, Range 42. Louisa SELLERS died between 1874 and 1878, and was probably buried in the cemetery in Section 14. No marker has been found.

Thomas SELLERS, "unmarried" (probably meaning widowed), sold 40 acres of land to Allen STOKER, on 30 Dec 1878, for $200. It was the E ½ of the E ½ of the NW 1/4 of Section 27, Township 78, Range 42. On the same day he sold an additional ten acres to Samuel DIGGLE, for $50.00. It was located in the SE 1/4 of the SW 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Section 24, Township 78, Range 42.

On 19 Apr 1879, Thomas SELLERS conveyed all his effects to B. S. and Eliza Jane (Thomas' daughter) PARKER, for their taking care of him the remainder of his life.

On 13 Mar 1880, Thomas SELLERS, father and only heir-at-law of George W. SELLERS, deceased, sold 20 acres of land to D. H. COX for $500.00. It was described as the W ½ of the NE 1/4 of the NW 1/4 of Section 27, Township 78, Range 42.

At the time of the 1880 census, Thomas SELLERS was living with his daughter and son-in-law Eliza Jane and Barton PARKER, in Union Township, Harrison County, Iowa. Thomas was 80 years old, born in Ohio. The birthplaces of Thomas' father and mother were not given on the census.

Thomas SELLERS died 10 Jan 1883, aged 82 years, 5 months, and 1 day, near Persia, Harrison County, Iowa. He was probably buried in the cemetery located in Section 23 of Union Township.

At the time of Thomas SELLERS' death only four of his eight children were still alive. The residence of Laura Ann LYON is unknown (last known in Warren County, Illinois, in 1880); Aurilla Peckenpaugh FIELD died in Dow City, Crawford County, Iowa, in 1910; Allen Davenport SELLERS was in Missouri, Arkansas, or Oklahoma, and died in Oklahoma about 1889; and Eliza Jane PARKER was in Harrison County where she remained until her death in Missouri Valley in 1894.

Hi Genny,

Would be glad to send you a family group sheet for James and Mahala if I had one ready to go. Will tell you what little I do know.

Apparently there is some confusion as to whom James' parents were and could be either Andrew Kirkpatrick married Eleanor Hill or James Kirkpatrick married Hannah Pullance. According to the Kirkpatrick Assn. and research by Hermon Fagley, Andrew and Eleanor are the most likely.

James Kirkpatrick b ~~abt 1817~~ 28 aug 1816 cal. d. ae m 21 Feb 1839 Mahala L. Sellers b 29 Nov 1821 Children :

Elizabeth b. ca 1846 per census

- Alexandria (or Alexander) Kirkpatrick
- William Kirkpatrick
- andrew Taylor Kirkpatrick
- Benjamin F. (Franklin) Kirkpatrick
- Mary Jane Kirkpatrick
- Corydon (Corylon) Kirkpatrick
- Delia Kirkpatrick
- Elmer E. Kirkpatrick

James Jr. chn
Mary 1806 OH d. 6 Sept. 1888 IN
Eleanor 1811 OH d. 3 Jan. 1882 IN m John Bell 16 Mar 1836 IN
John H. 1812 OH d c 1855 IL m. Elizabeth ?
Elizabeth b. 1813

Margaret 1809 OH
m. James Bryan
28 Oct 1827 OH
but she d/o andrew so a possible Margaret but not w/o James
Bryan

Benjamin F. Kirkpatrick m 21 Aug 1879 in Brown Co. OH Minnie Spencer b 11 Aug 1862 They had ten children:

- Althea Pearl Kirkpatrick b 13 Jul, d 4 Mar 1924 Had two children James and Jean.
- Ory Willis Kirkpatrick b 15 Mar 1883, d 8 Feb 1953 Had four children, Ory Jr., Virginia, and two who burned in a fire.
- Alma Edith Kirkpatrick b 23 Jul 1884 d 30 Jan 1939 Married a McHenry. Three children, Herman, William, and Velma.
- Edgar Spencer Kirkpatrick b 10 Dec 1889, d 17 Mar 1942 Never

Lucy Ellen Kirkpatrick was my mother.

Hermon Fagley has the descendancy for James and Mahala's son Elmer. I believe you know him from the Sellers site, but if you don't I can give you his email address. The above is all I have for James and Mahala.

I know Mahala Sellers was the daughter of Michael Sellers and Catherine Burgett but I have absolutely no info on the Burgetts. On the back of your photo you sent you have Hannah Burgett, Aaron Burgett, and Valentine Burgett. I don't know who these Burgett's are and how they connect to Mahala. Do you have Catherine Burgett ancestry, possibly back to ??? Valentine?? As I said, I have no info on the Burgett family but sure would like to have!

Thanks a bunch.

Judy

In the matter of Ellen Sellers.

Be it Remembered, that on this day 1st. of Februa A.D. 1869, the following Entry was made on the journal of said Court to wit: on this day was produced to t Court a paper writing purporting to be the last Will Testament of Ellen Sellers, deceased, & also comes Mary C. Burgett one of the subscribing witnesses to saic paper writing who was duly sworn by the Court & examined in relation to the making of said paper writing & her testimony was reduced to writing in the presence of the Court & said Mary C. Burgett subscribed & cause continued. And afterward to wit on the 9th day of February A.D. 1869 the following Entry was made on the Journal of said Court to wit: "This day came Rachel L. Culter the other attesting witness to the paper writing heretofore produced here purporting to be the Last Will & Testament of Ellen Sellers, deceased, & the the said Rachel L. Cutter late Rachel L. Osbon now intermarried with William Cutter was sworn & examined in relation to said paper writing & her testimony was reduced to writing & by her in open Court subscribed. After hearing the evidence & being fully advised in the premise the Court do find that said paper writing is the last Will & Testament of Ellen Sellers, deceased, that it was made in all respects in conformity with law that at the time of the making signing & sealing of said Will said Ellen Sellers was of legal age & of sound & disposing mind & memory & not under any illegal restraint whatsoever. It is therefore ordered by the Court that said paper writing be recorded as the Last Will & Testament of Ellen Sellers, deceased, together with the testimony of the witnesses of the findings & orders c this Court in the said matter as provided by law. And now the said Will is in the words & figures following to wit:

Will I Ellen Sellers of Ripley, Brown County, OH., d make & publish this my last Will & Testament.

1st I give & bequeath to my daughter Augusta C. Man all my household & Kitchen & furniture. Every Kind Carpe beds & bedding, Stove, Cooking utensils, plates & all my personal property contained in my personal dwelling house except one bed & bedding which I give & bequeath to my son John H. Sellers

2nd It is my will that after the payment of my just debts the residue of my property is to be sold by my Executrix hereinafter named & the proceeds divided equally between my five children, Margaret Luinete Milburn Augusta C. Mann, Indian Osbon, John H. Sellers Allie Conn.

3rd It is my will that my daughter, Augusta C. Mann shall be my Executrix & it is my will that no bond be required of her for the execution of said trust. And that no appraisement be made of my property.

In testimony hereof I have hereunto set my hand seal this 7th day of October A.D. 1818.

MEMORIAL POEM

The parting scene upon the death of Mrs. Isa Edith Chapman, January 12, 1898, at the age of 31 years, 2 months and 15 days, leaving a kind husband and four affectionate children, besides many other relatives and friends to mourn.

How deeply touching was the parting scene!
The husband bending o'er her heaving breast,
In hope to catch her dying words between
His sighs and groans which could not be suppressed!

"Dear mama, can't you speak once more to me?
Just one more word? O, mama, can't you, dear?"
Then came the gentle nod -- I'll speak to thee --
I'll speak once more thy loving heart to cheer,

Then lifting to his cheek her trembling hand,
She said, "Don't worry, dear, don't worry so" --
Her guardian angel from the "better land,"
Had doubtless come to give her grace to go!

Then with a gentle look of purest love,
She dropped her hand in his once more,
As if to say, farewell -- meet me above --
My children train for that immortal shore.

Then came the weekping children, pressing near,
As papa led them to her -- one by one,
To hear the dying words of mama dear,
And kiss the hand whose work on earth is done.

"O, Mary, you'll soon have no mama, dear,
Be a good girl" -- then taking breath, she said,
"Mind what your papa tells you" -- then 'twas clear,
The words unmuttered were, "Whem I am dead!"

Then with her hand she pressed them on the check,
As one by one they came with flowing tears!
Though now to them she could no longer speak
She tried to say, "farewell, sweet little dears!"

Letter #1 rec'd 24 Apr 1990 - Ms. Kirkpatrick

Re your Query in Brown Co,O Gen. Soc. Newsletter.

My wife's mother & father were divorced when she was young (ab.1947) & I do not know my father-in-law very well, but he had always told me his KIRKPATRICKs were from Fleming Co, KY. Then, last Fall I discovered that they had spent 60-100 years in Brown Co, O later.

My wife descends from the JAMES KIRKPATRICK (Geotn.Census 1870 calc. b. 1816) who m. 1839 MAHALA SELLERS (1870 Cen. calc. b. 1822) at, I think Pisgah Ridge Church of Christ, 2 miles west of Ripley & 1 mile N. of the Ohio River. JAMES & MAHALA lived at Georgetown & ARNheim, Brown Co. until he died, bur. Georgetown. Then, sometime later she came to New Amelia, Clermont Co. & is so buried (a move of 20 miles west). They had ELMER who m._____ & had EDGAR who m. HAZEL MOORE, and they had ELDON who m. (1) JEAN ASHTON and had, 1939, my wife, RUTH ANN. I am not sure which line to follow for JAMES' (m. 1839) parents, but they do have the Fleming Co. tradition.

I have Beer's "Brown Co. etc", Carl Thompson's Brown Co. & the Brown Co. Atlas. My best guess is to eliminate the Adams Co. & Russelville & Decatur KIRKPATRICKS and go for your line, on the ANDREW & JAMES m. HANNAH PULLANCE 1805 KIRKPATRICKs of near Pisgah Ridge.

Would you know who were JAMES' (m. 1839) parents, also who was the wife of ELMER?

ELMER was a farmer of Bantam & Amelia, O, I think. EDGAR ran a coal yard in Williamsburg, did something in Oxford, O. & worked in a bowling alley in Bathea, where he is buried. ELDON & JEAN lived in Williamsburg (& W W II) until the divorce, since which he has lived in, or near, Lebanon, Warren Co,O. He was a G.M. auto worker at Hamilton,O

Ruth Ann KIRKPATRICK b. 14 May 1939.

Letter #2 1 May 1990 Mrs. Kirkpatrick.

I try to answer promptly before I forget.

At Bantam, O my boyhood Presbyterian minister, the beloved Rev. Edward FLORY of Higginsport, Brown Co, O (desc) was minister of the Flemingsburg Pres. Church in the later 1950's & 60's. My parents have attended services there & I know old Frank BROWNING, (desc) a fruit grower at Wallingford, KY who was a member. (My Dad, myself, BROWNING & FLORY all had apple orchards).

I know a bit about the Concord Pres. Academy by aiding people there to trace the BALLS, BROWNS & SANDUSKY of Cane Ridge & Concord Pres. Churches about 1791. He also had a school for budding ministers & taught Rev. John DUNLEVY & Rev. Richard McNAMARA. About 1796 Rev. Robert FINLEY joined the First Colony founding Chilicothe, Ross Co, O & at about that same time, Rev. John DUNLEVY had Pres. Churches on White Oak, Straight & Red Oak in S. Brown Co, Ohio. Rev. Richard McNAMARA's churches were Eagle Creek in Adams/Brown Cos. O & at Cabin Creek in Lewis Co,KY. Rev. Barton W. STONE took over Cane Ridge & Concord. Then, about 1802 + the Great "Cane Ridge" Revivals took place with Revs. STONE, DUNLEVY & McNAMARA among the ministers. The results of the Cane Ridge Revivals were the promotion of New Faiths. Barton W. STONE led Cane Ridge to the "New Heights" and is recognised as founder of the Church of Christ. (I do not know about his Concord Congregation.) DUNLEVY led much of S.Brown Co, Ohio to the "New Heights" & shortly to the Shakers. McNAMARA, who by 1802 was in Hamilton & Warren Cos,O. led those congregations to the New Heights, then on to the Shakers. DUNLEVY's Pres. Church in Brown Co, O (the remnants of the old congregations) were led by Rev. Gilliland (Red Oak), Rev. Sam'l FINLEY (White Oak in Brown Co & Bracken in Bracken Co, KY)& Rev. RANKIN at Ripley. In 1811 about 150 families left S.Brown Co, Ohio to float down the Ohio & up the Wabash to found an ill-fated Shaker village at Buseron, above Vincennes, IN. The War of 1812 & Malaria led to the scattering of the Buseron Shakers to other Shaker communes.

I can prove nothing prior to 1839's JAMES KIRKPATRICK to MAHALA SELLERS m. at Pisgah Ridge, but the 1805 + JAMES KIRKPATRICK to HANNAH PULLANCE was by Henry CHAPMAN, J.P. who lived within sight of Pisgah Ridge Church of Christ. Do have assorted data on various Brown & Adams Co. KIRKPATRICKs earlier.

I know a lot more about Mason, Bourbon, Lewis & even Nicholas Cos. than I do about Fleming; Stocton's & Cassidy's Stations are about all I know. Of course, it was a part of Mason Co. when settlement of Brown Co, O started.

NANCY ZUMWALT b. ab 1805 VA. Desc. Mrs. Vernon (Eliz.) Hitch S69131. I also have HITCH blood. I wonder if this might be ANDREW KIRKPATRICK of Brown Co,O 1802, as a HENRY ZUMWALT lived just north of Georgetown, Br.Co,O in the early 1800's. But there were other ZUMWALTs, early, in Bourbon Co,KY.

I have a pen pal in Genealogy, Mary Joan CASSIDY, who runs an antique shop in a rural village of 80± shops, Waynesville, Ohio. We wrote on other lines but she told me once that her hisband was of the Cassidy's Fort, Fleming Co, KY CASSIDYs. If you have it, & it is not too much trouble, I would like to share with her whatever early CASSIDY records there were in the Flemingsburg Pres. Records.

I'm going to have to check JAMES KIRKPATRICK in 1850 Brown Co. census to see if he was in IN. The 1870 census shows JAMES's younger kids in a house in Georgetown (ages 22 - 10 ±)(going to school?) and JAMES, wife & older son on the farm.

Some of the Concord Congregation were in Hampshire/Hardy Co, W.VA/VA, (south branch of the Potomac) who after 1796 moved on to Highland, Ross & Pickaway Cos, O & formed new Concord Churches with Rev. Barton W. STONE visiting them once in awhile & preaching.

Thanks for the leads. Will have to dig a little & get back to you

Hermon Brown Fagley.

Letter #3 4 May 1990

I've dug a little into MATTHEW DAVIDSON & ALEX HILL. The 33 acres that JAMES & HANNAH bought of DAVIDSON was very near, or exactly at, Pisgah Ridge Church. ALEX HILL Sr was Father-in-law of DAVIDSON. Both HILL & DAVIDSON are on 1799 Petitions, but not KIRKPATRICK. The 1802 census shows HILL, DAVIDSON, JAMES & ANDREW KIRKPATRICK in a single neighborhood. Beers says ANDREW KIRKPATRICK was a squatter & moved from place to place. Likely JAMES was also a squatter, or a renter, from 1805-1810. It may be because the younger JAMES m. at Pisgah Ridge that the elder JAMES did not sell that part of the 33 acres that he did not sell to ALEX HILL. Regardless, in the days of $2 per acre land - ab 1800 - JAMES & ANDREW were poor. The $228 price HILL paid indicated to me that he bought the cabin & barn of JAMES KIRKPATRICK.

I think I have ALEX HILL Sr in PA 1790 census, 1-4-5. Crumrine's "Wash. Co, PA" - ALEX HILL in Fallowfield Twp, near Brown Co,O. neighbors, COLVIN, DEVORE, WASHBURN, ELLIS etc. The printed traditions on

HILL's son-in-law, MATTHEW DAVIDSON have obvious errors; but what is fact and what is false, I do not know. It says that he was:

In Ky from 1778, was a stone mason, building Red Oak, O Pres. Church & a jail in Washington, Harrison Co, KY. (Fact - Washington is in Mason Co, KY) -that DAVIDSON summered in Brown Co. & wintered his cattle at Boone's Station. (2 to 1 he wintered his cattle in Madison & wintered in Harrison Co. where DAVIDSON is said to have lived) I doubt not that DAVIDSON was in KY early & that, at the early dates, he likely spent part of the year in KY & part in SW PA; or that a little later, that he farmed in north KY and centered at Boone's Station - but not in Ohio, as it says.

You may know if there were any DAVIDSONs or HILLS in the Pres. Church in SE York Co,PA ab. 1760, where I think your KIRKPATRICKs came from.

I'm only partially into my KIRKPATRICK file, but I noted the 1870 census says that TAYLOR KIRKPATRICK was b. in IN. (He was 22 & my ELMER was 8 in 1870 so does not show on 1880 Soundex). Think the widow (MAHALA) and family were at Ripley then, but can not prove. I also noted that your data had a JAMES KIRKPATRICK who moved near Evansville, IN. Could it be the same JAMES? (HHHK - No, mine was b. in 1790, m. in 1814 to SARAH FARQUHAR)

The move of HANNAH KIRKPATRICK to Rush Co,IN ab./ 1830 was typical in this Co, when families lost land suits in the 1820's, Rush Co,IN was where they went. I've never been in Rush Co., but last Fall I was south of there and that was the first extra good farm land west of Cincinnati. We went to Nashville, Brown Co, IN (a tourist town) which is hilly again.

If correct, an 1897 tax list of Clermont Co,O indicates that ELMER, b. 1861, came to Clermont Co. in 1893.

A young couple, JAMES & HANNAH, with only 33 acres of hilly land would have needed other income from hunting, from flat boating or from some trade. The Professing of Faith in 1812 at Flemingsburg occurs during the years that JAMES & HANNAH owned all 33 a. at Pisgah Ridge. If it is our HANNAH that joined the Flemingsburg Church from Concord, her birth date might have been 1786, not 1768. That would fit better.

ALEX HILL's land in NE Wash. Co, PA was likely closer, via Devore's Folly over the Monongahela, to the KIRKPATRICKS in Westmoreland Co, PA than to the KIRKPATRICKS with lands on the Beaver Co, PA border, near W.VA in NW Wash.Co,PA. (Horn Papers land records, vol III - the factual volumes.)

So, if it is our JAMES & HANNAH that moved ab. 1816 to Nicholas Co., then on to Fleming Co, KY, why did they move? Enough guessing!

History of Springfield, Missouri

In 1829 the future site of Springfield was designated by John Polk Campbell, of Tennessee. Three Fulbright brothers, William, John, and Levi, along with their families arrived early in 1830 and were quickly followed by other settlers. In 1835 Campbell d onated 50 acres of land and laid out the town site. Green County, organized in 1833 was once composed of the entire southwest corner of the state and was named to honor Nathanael Greene, of Revolutionary War frame. National attention was given to Spring field in 1858 when the city became a stop on the Butterfield Overland Mail, a stagecoach line, from Tipton, Missouri, to San Francisco. In area bitterly divided between Northern and Southern sympathizers, the Battle of Wilson's Creek, a major Civil War e ngagement, took place just 12 miles from Springfield on August 10,1861. Again, in 1863, the streets of the town were embroiled in conflict during the Battle of Springfield. John Smith Phelps, a leading citizen, served as Governor of the State of Missour i from 1879 to 1881, having previously served as United States Congressman.

The first train of the Atlantic-Pacific Railway, which became the St.Louis-San Francisco Railway, or "Frisco," arrived in 1870, and over the years, it has added much to the economic growth of the entire area. Springfield has long been known for its homes , schools, and churches, and since World War II many distinguished industries have been developed. Park Central Mall, once known as the Public Square, has been the hub of redevelopment and business activity. Springfield has almost 200 churches, five col leges, 42 parks, and takes pride in many cultural organizations, among which are the Springfield Art Museum, Springfield Symphony, Springfield Little Theatre, and the History Museum for Springfield-Greene County.

Mosher House
The Moser House is located at 1147 E. Walnut. Built about 1893 on land originally purchased in 1837 by James Dollison, the home has a distinct charm. Of interest are the shingles on the roof, hand carved of wood and rounded as opposed to conventional sq uare tipped shingles. A beautiful cut-glass, leaded window enhances the appearance of the entrance. Inside doorknobs are fluted and made of solid brass. The home has a total of eight rooms, with a breakfast nook the only addition to the original struct ure. Owners have included Harriet A. Mosher, William W. Woods, Nellie C. Milligan, Mrs. Forest R. Nichols, Mrs. Gentry North, Nellie C. Milligan, Mrs. Forest R. Nichols, Mrs. Gentry North, Mrs. Betty Upchurch, and Dr. and Mrs. James Riley.

St. Paul United Methodist Church
St. Paul United Methodist Church is at 413 E. Walnut, at the northeast corner of Walnut and Jefferson Streets. The cornerstone for the present stately brick building was laid June, 1903, and the first services were held on June 26, 1904. The congregatio n goes back to 1831. Through efforts of church members the present building was constructed at the cost of $50,000. In 1923 an expansion program costing $90,000 was completed. The architecture of the building is an example of the academic neoclassicism , common at the turn of the century. Outstanding exterior features of St. Paul Church are the four lonic columns, stained glass windows, and predominant dome.

SOLLERS

Isaac SOLLERS (or SOLLARS) married Elizabeth BLACKMORE, daughter of Samuel BLACKMORE who died testate in Frederick County, Maryland in 1773. Isaac SOLLERS also lived in Youhogania County, Virginia and Washington County, Pennsylvania by 1781 where he was a captain in the militia. Their children are "tentatively placed" as follows:

(1) Ruth SOLLERS (married Matthew PERKINS circa 1782)
(2) Nancy Ann SOLLERS (born circa 1772 and married Labon RECORD in Mason County, Kentucky on October 6, 1789?)
(3) Mary or Polly SOLLERS (born 1775 and married Alexander BUCHANAN on May 30, 1796 in Mason County, Kentucky)
(4) Eleanor SOLLERS (born circa 1783 in Allegheny County, Pennsylvania)
(5) Samuel SOLLERS (born January 12, 1784 in St. Clair, Alleghen County, Pennsylvania, married Elizabeth TRAIN on September 20 1803 in Dormont, Pennsylvania, and died November 23, 1842 i Greenfield, Fayette County, Ohio)
(6) Isaac SOLLERS (married Patty ----, of Concordia Parish, Louisiana and died in Ohio in March, 1830).

Isham SOLLERS (or SELLERS), a descendant of John SOLLERS (1699 c1741) of Anne Arundel County, Maryland, was born circa 1754 in Nortl Carolina, married Unnus VANN circa 1775, and lived in the Cape Fea area. Their children were Ephraim, Jackson, Edith, William, Elizabeth Lewis, Orman, Dorcas, Margaret, Edward, Micah and Henry SELLER (or SOLLERS). Some of these children and their families moved t Kentucky and later settled in Henderson and Davis Counties. [Ref: Elis Greenup Jourdan's Early Families of Southern Maryland, Volume (1994), pp. 267-268, 285].

"Robert C. Sollars" wrote:

Regarding the Sollars/Sellars/Sellers of CLARMONT CO., OHIO:
Letter from Josiah Records (son of Labon and Nancy Sollers Records) which was mailed from Bracken Co., KY to Isaac Sollars in Louisiana:

"In the last two years (what happened to family)... We are all well. Our grandmother, Elizabeth (Blackmore Sollars Ward) departed this earth 1823. My father (Laban Records), sister, Elizabeth, and my wife in same season (departed this life)... left me with four small children near mouth of Cumberland River... Through Providence... got back to friends and have my second wife... last October (my) oldest son died... (I'm) now living near Neville, Ohio (Clermont Co., OH)... (my) brother and sister near me... was with Uncle Sam (Fayette Co., OH) and all well. Aunt Polly (Buchanan) all well and doing well. Perkins same.
Lyons near Ft. Harrison, Ohio."

Isaac died intestate, Nov. 8, 1830, his nephew, John Sollars, was appointed administrator of his estate. Samuel Sollars, Isaac's brother, and cousin, Joseph Blackmore, were surities of $1400. Benjamin Rodgers, William Campbell, and Alexander Smith were appraisers. This was duly recorded in the Washington Court House, court house in Fayette Co., OH where Samuel Sollars and son, John, Reside. Samuel traveled to Moscow, Clermont Co., OH to get the children of his deceased brother. On Nov. 11, 1830, Alexander and Martha Sollars, minors over 12 and 14 years of age, respectively, chose their Uncle Samuel Sollars as their legal guardian. The court likewise appointed him guardian of Lucy, Julia, and Ruth Sollars.
In behalf of his Uncle Isaac's estate, John made a number of trips in the settlement of said estate. One such trip was made to Natches, Mississippi "where goods, etc., had been left." He received $56.50 for said goods, Etc. The trip took 69 days at a cost of $69.00 (1 dollar per day). He made three trips to Moscow, Ohio and two to Mount Pleasant.
It is thought that Isaac's children may have returned south, perhaps to their mother's relatives. Julia Anne Reader, 23, b.Louisiana, and her son, John O. age 2, are in the home of Elizabeth Train Sollars in the 1850 Census. The records of the court spell the children's names as SELLARS.

ADVERTISEMENT FOR MATRIMONY

From: Freeman's Champion, "Prairie City, Kanzas, Aug 6, 1857"

"Dear Colonel: Will you please to announce me as a candidate for matrimony? You can state that my age is 21; used to be considered good looking by the girls when I lived in the States*, though somewhat uncouth in my appearance now; am hale, hearty, strong and full of fun and frolic; have been, and am sometimes now a little wild, but think I should be steady as a deacon, if I had a congenial partner to love and protect---I am not rich, nor indulge in expectation of ever falling heir to a legacy, though my prospects for the future are as flattering as the generality of young men at my age, who, have kicked their own way through the world alone. I am anxious to correspond with a handsome, witty, intelligent young lady between the ages of 16 and my own age, with the view of forming a matrimonial alliance. I don't care whether she is worth a cent pecuniarly, or not if she has the accomplishments of a lady and is pretty."

Your friend,
Ned BOWERS

JAMES ALEXANDER DOBBINS AND ELIZABETH PERKINS

Parents of James Sellers Dobbins

If our family has a "mystery man", it would have to be James Alexander Dobbins, oldest son of Robert B. But he is only a mystery because I do not yet know very much about him. Both his father and his children were so interesting that I have just not yet focused my research on him. And I have not been able to locate his grave or his place of death. But I believe all this will come.

James Alexander Dobbins married Elizabeth Perkins on December 14, 1827 in Clermont County. Ohio. They were married by his father, Robert B. Dobbins. Elizabeth's mother and father were Matthew Perkins and Ruth Sellers. Research done by others tentatively places Ruth's parents as Isaac Sollers and Elizabeth Blackmore. This is probably correct. This also explains where our James Sellers Dobbins' middle name comes from.

James Alexander Dobbins was a farmer in both Clermont County, Ohio, and Fulton County, Illinois. He was the only one of Robert B's children to leave Fulton County. Andreas' History of Kansas helps us put together the leaving of Fulton County and the trip to Kansas. It states that James and Elizabeth, along with their oldest daughter and her husband, Levi and Paulina Sperry, originally started out for Dallas, Texas. But when the party got near Leavenworth, Kansas they liked what they saw and eventually settled in Douglas County, Kansas. From subsequent events, I assume that James Sellers Dobbins and another daughter Elizabeth went with them. The Sperry's settled on land southeast of Lawrence, while the Dobbinses settled way down near the border of Franklin County near a town (no longer in existence but near the present day Baldwin City) called Prairie City. It was here that daughter Elizabeth met and married John Winton, who owned a general store in Prairie City. It was also here a short time after they arrived that Elizabeth Dobbins died and was buried. The location of the Prairie City cemetery is almost a forgotten fact in present day Baldwin City. When Jerry and I were there last summer we asked at the city hall where the cemetery was. They had to find an "old senior citizen" before they could give us an answer. Jerry and I visited the cemetery and found it to be wonderfully maintained. We believe Elizabeth's grave is the oldest there.

Much of this section deals with the children of James Alexander and Elizabeth. Their oldest son, who died of an illness in Fulton County at age 21, was named Robert Gaston Dobbins. Though our James Sellers was only a teenager when this brother died, many years later he named his first-born son after him.

James and Elizabeth's daughter Elizabeth apparently married Claudius Kinsey when they were still back in Fulton County, Illinois. I am in touch with some Kinsey researchers who haven't the slightest idea of what happened to Claudius. I have no idea either. By the time Elizabeth married John Winton in Douglas County, Kansas, she was using her maiden name again. We feel this is the same Elizabeth; we could be wrong.

Next, I have already mentioned that daughter Paulina Jane was married in Fulton County to Levi J. Sperry. They had three children, one died in Illinois, the first child born in Kansas lived to be 10 years old, but both Paulina and Baby #3 died shortly after this baby's birth. Levi, left with one small daughter, married quickly, and from this second union at least 6 children were born. After nearly 30 years of marriage, his second wife filed for divorce. The newspaper accounts of this divorce are amusing and I have included them in this section. Also included is a copy of his will, in which he gets even with everyone for that divorce!

The bulk of the information on our James Sellers Dobbins is included in the next section. None of the children of James Alexander and Elizabeth Dobbins have any descendants except for James Sellers Dobbins, so this particular Dobbins line narrows at this point.

....BY WAY OF EXPLANATION

At what point in one's research is it appropriate to place family history information "out in the field?" Surely not when it is finished, for then it would never be! Yet doing it any earlier leads to a sense of incompleteness....of perhaps being so early that a definitive piece of information on one's "mystery" ancestor may be just around the corner and will fail to make it into the record!

It is a hard decision to make, but by way of explanation as to why "now" for this particular endeavor, I will tell you.

This booklet was not developed to be placed in the holdings of any historical or genealogical group or any library. Rather, it was put together only as a family "Scrapbook" to send to a few close Dobbins relatives who had been of such help to me. These people are elderly and I needed them to see -- and to have to pass on to their grandchildren -- just what I learned from all the bits and pieces they said probably wouldn't be of any help to me. Needless to say, these fragments were invaluable!

Because I approached this project from a "family" perspective, I have included only those documents which I felt would be of interest to them and would make sense to them. On their copies, I handwrote a few words of explanation and background here and there which are not found on these pages. The genealogical researcher perusing these pages will be able to put two and two together and come up with the specified "four" without my asides, I'm sure.

But as these booklets took form, I realized that while I was doing my research I would have given my eye-teeth to come across such a booklet, even in an incomplete stage. It was this thought that made me decide that I would send one to a repository in each area where my Dobbins families lived and trust that down the road it will be of help to another researcher.

So for you readers, please take into consideration that this compilation was never intended to be a book; if it were headed in that direction I certainly would have taken a different approach. Rather, remember that it is just a "scrapbook" for family members. And I have had great fun making it such.

* * * *

By way of thanks, I must mention specifically the genealogy societies of Clermont County, Ohio, Fulton County, Illinois, and Douglas County, Kansas, whose publications and records were of such help to me. It goes without mentioning, also, that a serious researcher is deeply indebted to the LDS church for its generosity in making records available to the non-member.

But most of all, I must thank an individual, Judy Sweets of Lawrence, Kansas, whose very professional help gave me a whole lot more than I ever dreamed of, and who expanded my vision not only of my family but also of my country's history.

JAMES DOBBINS AND ELIZABETH STEPHENSON

Parents of Robert B. Dobbins

> The question of what to do with Catholic Ireland had been an ever-present irritation to the Anglican English since the time of Queen Elizabeth I. Ireland was too close to England to be free and too nationalistic and Catholic in her attitude to be a comfortable province. This was not so with Scotland, a small and misty land touching England to the north. Its conversion to Presbyterianism in the 16th century under the intrepid preacher, John Knox, had given mildly Pretestant England a fiercely Protestant northern neighbor. Cromwell called the Scottish reformation "God's crowning mercy."
> Since Ireland would not convert, the sensible thing was to ship the converted to Ireland, thereby gaining some Protestant beachhead on the island. Ulster land was purchased and set aside with the stipulation that the land would be settled by British Protestants.
> Naturally few Englishmen would go to Ireland, but the poor, thrifty Scots, drawn by cheap land, emigrated there in large numbers, accompanied by ministers from the Kirk of Scotland (Presbyterian). Once there, they lived away from Scotland for generations, had experiences all their own, and evolved a society all their own. Their unique experiences and relative isolation made them into a subculture that was quite distinct.
> When, for a variety of reasons these people migrated to America in the 18th century, they did not happily join the melting pot. For the most part they moved into the unsettled wilderness behind previously settled coastal areas of Eastern America. In the hills, plateaus, and valleys of a Piedmont area reaching from Pennsylvania to Georgia they set up their own rural communities, the social center of which was the church and usually an accompanying academy run by the same minister. Some of their more grim Calvinistic aspects were unattractive, but no more repugnant than those of early New Englanders whom the upcountry settlers resembled in many ways. (1)

Sometime during this period our earliest known Dobbins ancestor migrated to America. The first record of a direct Dobbins ancestor is of James Dobbins, born about 1742. What records I have found lead me to believe that this James was the immigrant, although some other people researching this same line think that perhaps it was James' father who immigrated. But what we do know is that James Dobbins married Elizabeth Stephenson and their first child, Robert Boyd Dobbins, our ancestor, was born in Augusta County, Virginia, on August 23, 1773. Land records show that by 1775, James had purchased land in the old 96th District of South Carolina. I have found a James Dobbins named as an elder in a Presbyterian church in Greenville. I do not know for sure whether this is our James Dobbins, but since another elder was named James Seawright and since one of James Dobbins' sons married a Searight girl, is is possible that this man is, in fact, our forebear.

At any rate, what little we know specifically about James and Elizabeth Dobbins can be fleshed out by reading the histories of these early Scots-Irish, many of whom went on to fame as educators and statesmen.

Neither I nor others researching this line have been able to locate a marriage record for James and Elizabeth. Nor do we know who her parents are. There names come to us from the Robert B. Dobbins family Bible, which as late as 1960 was in possession of a Mary Ross in Illinois. She has since died, and her son has said that he has no idea of the Bible's whereabouts. We are hopeful that at some point it will resurface so we can document just what information is in it.

Luckily James Dobbins left a will naming his "beloved" wife and children. I have included that will here.

ROBERT BOYD DOBBINS AND CATHERINE ALEXANDER

Parents of James Alexander Dobbins

One of my favorite Dobbins ancestors is old Robert B. Dobbins, son of James and Elizabeth. Early on in my research I read a description of him in a county history book which stated that he was "...an eccentric man, strong in his affections and positive in his hatreds." I wasn't sure that I wanted to be related to someone described like this, but in learning more about the early Scots-Irish Presbyterians I found a framework to put -- and like-- him in.

I was greatly helped in my understanding by a marvelous book by Dr. James MacLeod entitled The Great Doctor Waddel, already quoted in the James Dobbins section. Dr. Waddel was a contemporary of Robert B. Dobbins, and by reading MacLeod's book I was able to understand the circumstances and times that made our Robert B. the kind of man he was.

Dr. MacLeod says that the Scots-Irish played so large a part in the American Revolution that it is reasonable to question whether it would have succeeded without them. Their church government was a training ground for "participatory democracy". But, Dr. MacLeod goes on to say, they were not people with particularly attractive personalities, being described in one place as inflexible when they believed themselves right and pigheaded and mulish when wrong. Religiously they were rigid and narrow, which spilled over into their secular life as being dogmatic and supercilious. Their idea of sin led them to forbid card playing, theater going, dancing, novels, cursing and adultry. They were..."Especially obsessed with Sabbath keeping, they remembered the Sabbath day and kept it boring". They were given to preaching sermons reaching upwards of one hour long, bewailing the sins which would surely keep the unrightous out of heaven.

This was an example of Calvinism in practice. They believed if you lived right, you prospered; if things went poorly, God was angry with something you were doing and you were being punished for it.

Now on the other hand, these Scots-Irish were a hardy people. The believed fervently in schooling and academic intelligence, and of course they were a thrifty people. They believed that God had elected them not to gratify them but to bring them a hard time and stiffen their moral fiber. They were eminently fitted for pioneering, Dr. MacLeod believes.

It was in this mileau that our Robert B. Dobbins was raised and educated. Certainly he must have gone up through the systems of Presbyterian schools and academies that flourished in South Carolina. He received a collegiate education from Hampden-Sidney College in Virgina, graduating in 1799. In 1800 he was admitted as a candidate to the ministry by the 2nd Presbytery of Southern Carolina. (Documents are included in this section). Dr. MacLeod's book tells us that licensing was done by the gentlemen of the Presbytery after long and grueling examinations to check competency in Latin and Greek, Calvin's theology, the Presbyterian form of church government, knowledge of the Bible, and the Westminster Confessions of 1647 and its catechisms. These licensing examinations lasted for hours. The Presbyterian clergy were prepared to argue a text for hours. Getting licensed was an emotional experience as well as an intellectual accomplishment.

On September 16, 1802 our Robert B. Dobbins got his license to preach, and was assigned a circuit in South Carolina.

possible sister Catherine Waterman w/o Ebenezer Davis to OH ca 1809-10

The records go on to show that on April 4, 1804, he had his credentials removed to the Washington Presbytery of Kentucky. This area included Ohio. In 1805 he married Catherine Alexander and in 1806 their first child, James Alexander Dobbins, was born in Clermont County, Ohio. The first documented evidence of his residing in Clermont County is in 1810, when he served on a jury. He ministered in Ohio until the mid 1830s, when he moved his family -- including all his married sons and daughters -- to Fulton County, Illinois. He was an old man by that time, but he still felt the call to minister and did so, riding the circuit and founding churches up until his death in 1854 at the age of 81. He was living with his son John during his last years. I believe it was during this period at his son's house that the Dobbins stop on the underground railway took place. (See enclosed).

I am sure there is much more information available on Robert B. Dobbins, and that further research will produce it. We are fortunate that a picture of him remains in our family, a picture which shows us a kindly old grey-haired gent, without a hint of the eccentricity or "hellfire and brimstone" that must have permeated his life.

Of course, I think he had the last word. Take a peek at the inscription on his tombstone-- his Calvinism still standing as a memorial to a man who thoroughly believed what he believed!!

A Brief History Of Promont

On the sixth day of April 1864, Moses D. Conrod (Conrad) sold to William Megrue and Mark N. (Newton) Megrue 56 acres for the sum of $5683.00 near the town of Milford and county of Clermont being part of the John T. Griffins Survey No. 590 and John Nancarrow Survey No. 1748.

On the eleventh day of January in 1866, William Megrue and Mark N. Megrue sold the same property to C.G. (Conduce Gatch) Megrue for the sum of $50,000.00. At this time there is a record that C.G. Megrue and Co., Commission Merchants were located at 86 E. Second St. in Cincinnati (p 284 Williams Directory 1865) dealing in Hay and Grain. Both William and Mark Newton were listed as part of this company in 1866 while the residence for C.G. was given at that time as Columbia. However, there is a conflict in that there is also listed a Piqua residence for C.G. and a Clermont Co. residence. Mark N. residence was listed as Milford.

This same piece of property changed hands four times in two years. Conduce and his wife sold it to Robert Crieghton of Columbia Hamilton County for $45,000.00 on April 3rd, 1866. Robert Creighton sold it back to Conduce "of the same place" meaning Columbia and Hamilton Co., if the grammar modifies the last stated place, for $40,000.00 on October 6th, 1866. Then Conduce and his wife sold it back to William Megrue for $40,000.00 on September 21, 1867. Promont was a pawn in some kind of financial dealing and it may not have been lived in at this time. In fact, it may never have been completed by the Megrues. There is a reference in material from Miss Aletheia Pattison from an article in the Times Star of 1905 calling the house Megrue's folly. That particular article refers to John Armstrong Wade who lived there.

It also says that he bought the place, but so far the records in Clermont County Court House do not confirm this fact. The interesting bit about him is that he had many race horses, was well off, and had many servants. He had a race course in the large field below the house. It is said he bought it from Samuel McGrew and called it Beechwood. The mystery continues.

There is a missing link in the deeds and then it continues with M. N. selling the property to Union Central Life Insurance for $3000.00 in March 1875, the 29th day.

Union Central Life Insurance sold the property to John Pattison on March 13, 1879 for $10,500.00. He Purchased two parcels that totaled about 57 acres at that time. John Cochnower was president of Union Central at the time and signed for the insurance company. Of course, John Pattison became the president of the Union Central Life in 1891 succeeding John Davis who had succeeded Cochnower who had been a dealer in coal originally according to the early Williams Directory. Upon John Pattison's untimely death in the first six months of his term as governor of Ohio from bright's disease, the property was sold by his wife and executrix to Henry Hodges for $28,000.00. Henry was described in a news clipping as a 'wealthy tobacco farmer'.

There followed some more real estate dealings yet to be traced to be positive of the exact history of the property. James and Mary Kirgan bought the property from William Boggs who had purchased it from Henry Hodges, but the amounts and descriptions are not the same. The date of the Hodges sale is February of 1955 and the date of the Kirgan acquisition was October of 1959.

Pribble-Prebble-Preble

The earliest record of Prebles, in this country, was Abraham Preble. He came from England to Scituate, Plymouth Colony, Mass., in 1636. As yet I have no research to connect Abraham to my gr-gr-grandfather, Joseph Pribble.

Joseph was born c 1808, maybe in Penn., although, one census states Kentucky and another Ohio. In the 1830's and 40's Joseph was married and living in Lewis Twp., Brown Co., Ohio. His first wife was Eliza Ann Kenney, whom he married in 1830. She died in 1837 and is buried in Shinkles Ridge Cemetery, Brown Co., Ohio.

In 1839 he married Mary "Polly" Coffman/Coburn. The confusion in her surname comes about because her death record states her maiden name was Coffman. There is no marriage record in Brown Co. of a Coffman to a Pribble, but there is one of a Mary Coburn to a Joseph Pribble. If she had been married before, it had to be for a very short time, as she was only 17 years old when she married Joseph.

Joseph and Eliza Ann had four children: John, Joseph, William A. and Elizabeth. He had ten children by Mary "Polly": Nathaniel, Reuben, Mary Elen, Thomas, Rachel, James, Susannah, Angeline, All-e-vetta ? and Evaline.

Sometime between 1840 and 1850 Joseph and his family moved from Bullskin Creek in Brown Co. to Bullskin Creek in Clermont Co., Franklin Twp.

In 1869 Mary died and Joseph was left with seven children at home. He died in 1878, and, he, Mary, four of their children, a daughter-in-law, Susannah, and her infant are buried in Mt. Pleasant Cemetery, Felicity, Clermont Co., Ohio. There also are other relatives and in-laws in the same cemetery. Before Joseph died three of his children, John, Mary Elen Blackburn, and Rachel Pribble moved back to Higginsport, Brown Co.

Joseph's son, William A., was my gr-grandfather, he had a son, William, who was the father of Dora May, my mother. She was born in Wigginsville, Clermont Co., the 11th of Feb. 1898 and died in Cincinnati, Hamilton Co., Ohio the 11th of April 1989.

I am now researching Joseph's father, whom I believe to be John Preble. He lived near Boude's Ferry, Lewis Twp., Brown County, on land he inherited from his uncle, Gabriel Aiken. John and his wife Elizabeth had thirteen children, one which was Joseph, but I have not been able to prove they are father and son. Records in Brown Co. lead me to believe they are. John Preble died in 1845 and is buried somewhere in Brown Co. possibly in Shinkle's Ridge Cemetery.

OVERTURF CEMETERY

We recorded this cemetery on August 16, 1998. We found this cemetery to be in poor condition the cattle have grazed in this cemetery. Some of the stones were buried, knocked over or were broken. In addition to the stones that we found we also found 12 fieldstones and numerous bases without stones. To our knowledge this cemetery has never been recorded before.

My bodies here at rest,
My soul is now on high;
I dwell in mansions of the Blest to all eternity
Through sorrows,
I have come through dangers
I have passed by now I'm safely landed home,
And shall forever rest.

THE JAMES DYE FAMILY

James Dye was probably born about 1742 or earlier, because he was a great grandfather before 1836. He died intestate before October 5, 1835 in Gloucester County, N. J. His wife's name has not been discovered.

In 1775, James Dye offered a reward for the return of an indented servant to Salem-town, West New Jersey (NJA 2d. 31:113, 4).

James Dye was probably the soldier of the Revolution in Captain William Smith's Company, under Col. Benjamin Holme, stationed at Elsenborough, Salem County, N. J. January 12, 1778 (Yr Bk N.J. Soc. Pa. 1932-3, p. 39; SJR 352, 410).

In 1791, one James Dye was taxed in Pittsgrove Township upon 136 acres of unimproved land.

The farm of James Dye, 56.34 acres, located in Franklin Township, Gloucester County (adjoining lands of Jeptha Hampton), was divided by commissioners appointed by the Orphans Court at the March Term 1836 (Book 2:511). This record shows that James had three daughters, Elizabeth Applegate, deceased, Ann Smith, and Massa Smith, deceased. The share of Elizabeth had descended to her children, Ann, deceased, Massa, Richard, David, and Elizabeth Applegate; the share of Ann Smith had descended to her children, Samuel, Joseph, deceased, David, and Thomas Smith; and the share of Massa Smith had descended to her children, Ann and Rebecca Smith, and Ezekiel and Mary Applegate. Some of the heirs of Elizabeth Applegate, Ann Smith, and Massa Smith were minors. Ann had married Joseph (5) Smith.

Elizabeth Rogers
family, stayed in N.J.

On Sept. 30, 1835, Joseph Murphy, bricklayer, of Southward, Philadelphia, and Rebecca, his wife, and George Conaway, cordwainer, and Ann, his wife, sold to Jeptha Hampton, two twelfths interest in 50 acres in Woolwich Twp. being part of 75 acres surveyed to Elizabeth Easley, adjoining Kindle, Sharp, and Wibell. James Dye had sold this to Joseph Smith (no date) and Joseph had re-conveyed it to James Dye (no date). Dye had died and one third descended to his daughter, Massey (Smith). Massey died intestate leaving Rebecca and Ann and others as heirs. Samuel Smith was a witness (GlD O3:459).

On March 6, 1852, Mercy Applegate, single, of Camden, James Applegate, John W. Applegate, and Michael Malloy, and Eliza, his wife, of Philadelphia, sold to Jeptha Hampton, 17 acres in Franklin Twp. adjoining Sharp's cedar swamp, set off to the heirs of Elizabeth Applegate in the Dye estate; and altho Michael did not sign, Ann Eliza Malley did sign (GlD M4:562).

NOTES REGARDING DYE

Altho the ancestry of James Dye of Gloucester County, N. J. has not been ascertained, it seems likely that he came from the Dye family of Monmouth and Middlesex Counties, N. J. It is, however, possible that his father was Isaac Dey, of Salem County, N. J., who left a Will dated February 7, 1812, proved March 14, 1812 (NJA 41:101). Isaac had a daughter, Elizabeth, and so did James, as shown above. Isaac Dye was a witness at Woodbridge in 1728 (NJA 23:19). See GMNJ 16:85; 24:96.

"Ancient Families of New York" by Edwin P. Purple (1881) mentions Dirck Seicken, alias Dey.

"History of the Treman, Tremaine, Trueman Family in America" by Ebenezer Mack Treman and Murray E. Poole (1901), confused James Dye with another - later corrected - perhaps still confused.

"New Harlem Past and Present" by William Pennington Toler (1903), mentions Jan Laurens Duyts as a Dane. gg sons went to Mason Co. Ky Brown Co.

"History of Harlem" by James Riker (1881), mentions the family.

I am informed that eighteen boxes of Dye material were given to the New York Historical Society by J. Warren Dye.

In Schleswig-Holstein the name Laurens was common; in the North Frisian Islands the name Duysen was common, especially the island of Nordstrand.

The Dye family of Prince William and Fairfax Counties, Va., by Donald Lines Jacobus, appears in the National Genealogical Society Quarterly, September 1957, Vol. 45:130.

The Dye family of Monmouth County is not related to the Dey family of Bergen. The former is English and the latter Dutch (NJA 27:539).

Obituary

As the day dawn of December 16, 1917, approached, the morning of a new day dawned for Sister Nancy Powell. For almost ninety-five years she had travelled the way of life and the end of the journey brought to her a welcome release. Born on Bull Skin Creek in western Brown county, April 5, 1823, she had reached the advanced age of ninety-four years, eight months and eleven days. Nancy Vinson (Tatman) Powell was the daughter of Joshua and Nancy (Chapman) Tatman, pioneers who helped to establish our now flourishing civilization in wilderness of primitive forests. While only sixteen years old she was united in marriage to Adam Powell. Immediately after their marriage they came to this place which has been her home so long, cleared a small place in the timber, and built their first dwelling, which, as all dwellings were at that time, was a log house. This was later replaced by the substantial frame dwelling in which they both passed the closing years of life. Mr. Powell had purchased a tract of land of more than 400 acres, and together they took up the task of removing the timber from the soil and of rearing a large family. Later the present dwelling was built. Here, until the death of Mr. Powell, October 10, 1893, they lived and labored together to clear the land and rear the children that came to bless their home. These children have now gone abroad, in this or other communities, and founded homes of usefulnes and cheer. For more than three quarters of a century Mrs. Powell lived here in this one spot, and blessed by kindly words and deeds neighbors and friends that came within the influence of her life. Early in their married life together Mr. and Mrs. Powell united with the Church of Christ then worshipping at Old Unity Church, located not far from what is known as Farmer's Chapel, near Whiteoak Valley. When the work here declined and church building was erected in Hamersville, their membership was moved here and they gave their active support to Church and its cause for many years. While health and strength permitted, Mrs. Powell attended services and gave active support, and when health failed, she contiinued her financial and sympathetic support of the Master's work. Her life has always been consistent with her faith, and in her last illness her faith and hope were strong, and in these she reposed in peaceful trust. To the members of her family who gathered around her bedside she said that she was prepared and willing to depart, yes, she even longed to go, and welcomed the release from the sufferings.

It is given to few to reside so long a time in one place and to be a spectator of the development that transforms a region of forest to one fertile of farms and peaceful industries. To behold villages and cities rise like magic where had reigned the [illegible]nce of the wilderness. All of this is a rich heritage to us, given by their toil and sacrifice. Long after they are gone the fruits of their labor and the results of their self denial continue their daily ministrations of comfort and joy.

The funeral services were conduted by John G. Quinlan, minister, at her late residence just east of Homersville, Ohio. Interment was made in Zion cemetery at the old Zion church between Feesburg and Felicity.

CARD OF THANKS.

We wish to express our heartfelt appreciation of all the kindness and sympathy shown by our many friends who rendered assistance and expressed their sympathy during the illness and death of our beloved mother.

THE CHILDREN

To the County Surveyor;—

AUDITOR'S OFFICE, BROWN COUNTY, OHIO.

December 29th 1828

WHEREAS, Amos Ellis, the County Treasurer, has, in pursuance of an advertisement, previously published in the Western Ægis, and the several acts authorizing a sale of lands and town lots for tax, on the last Monday of December, 1828, in my presence, at the court-house in Georgetown, at public auction, sold to Job Egbert in lot No 10 in the town of Levanna (except 10½ feet) for the sum of fifty nine cents and two mills the amount of taxes, interest and penalty then due and unpaid on said lot, for the years 1827 and 1828. Subject, however, to be redeemed at any time prior to the first day of January 1831, upon conditions that all the requisitions of the acts directing the mode of redeeming town lots sold for tax, be complied with.

You are therefore required, at the request of the purchaser, his assignee or assignees, to survey and lay off the same in such manner that the part or proportion sold, shall extend from the main or principal street, road or alley, which may be the most convenient front to said lot, to the rear of the same; and to bound the same by lines as nearly parallel with the out lines of the lot as may be practicable, and in such other manner as you shall deem consistent with equity and justice. In witness whereof, I have hereunto set my official signature.

Wm Butt County Auditor.

Mt. Orab for over 15 years, then was transferred to Fayetteville, where he carried until retirement. They moved to Mt. Orab in 1917 to be near his work, and bought a farm one mile out of town. Part of that farm is now the grounds on which Western Brown Elementary and high school is located.

Harry Guy and Blanche (McClung) Walker

Blanche was a member of Taylor's Chapel Methodist Church in her youth, and frequently was pianist. After retirement, they moved to Georgetown, and lived there until their demise. Of many interesting things that occurred while postal carrier was a request from a shy soldier in overseas combat asking Harry if he would convey a message to his sweetheart for him in asking her hand in marriage when he returned home. His wishes were followed through,and the lady accepted.

The McClungs came from Butler, PA, to the Sterling Township area in early 1800s, while the Walkers came to Ohio from Massachusetts. Harry (died Feb. 5, 1972) and Blanche (died Feb. 25, 1977) are both buried in the Williamsburg, OH, cemetery. Submitted by Jo Ann Oney.

WALKER - CAHALL-History is made up of peculiar circumstances, if it were not for the immigrants coming from Europe and related countries to the new world many us would not be writing this history. A "Widow Walker" om Wales came to the Massachusetts area in 1637 with her seven sons. Her youngest son Phillip settled in Rhode Island with a well-known religious leader Roger Williams. Phillip's home, burned by Indians in 1679,and replaced immediately in East Providence, RI, is still standing and called "The Phillip Walker" museum.

Ada M. and Lowell Walker

Lowell Walker is the ninth generation from Phillip. The great-great-grandson of Phillip was Colonel Timothy Walker, who served in the Revolutionary War. One of the artifacts in the museum is a musket used in that war; his name is engraved on the butt-plate. Lowell's great-grandfather, Michael and wife Frances Bratton, settled on what was known as the old Chillicothe pike in Sterling Township, just west of the crossroads at Centerville.

Lowell, born Aug. 9, 1915, the fourth child of Harry and Blanche McClung Walker, married Nov. 25, 1943 to Ada Meryl Cahall, born Aug. 10, 1920, the third child of ank Earl and Blanche Jones Cahall of 610 S. Main St., eorgetown, OH. Their marriage was solemnized by the Rev. Vernon P. Martin, husband of Mildred Cahall, an older sister of the bride, in the home where Ada was born. Ada Meryl's name was influenced by very close friends of her mother, Ada Sharp and Meryl Markley. Lowell, a graduate of Ohio State University College of Agriculture Education, was hired to replace a resigning teacher at Georgetown High School in 1941, and taught there until his induction in the Army in 1942. He was placed in the Veterinary Corps of the Army and graduated from Ohio State University College of Veterinary Medicine in 1945. He was born and raised in the Mt. Orab school district where he graduated in 1933. He was assigned in 1945 by the War-Man-Power Commission to Lynchburg, OH, for general veterinary practice. In 1956, he and Ada moved to Georgetown to form a partnership with D.W. Wahl, DVM, in the animal hospital, where he practiced until 1977. Ada, through study and necessary work, became a licensed veterinary technician and worked as such. she was a 1938 graduate from the Georgetown High School.

Both are active in church work, civic organizations, masonic bodies and Lowell's musical experience includes membership in OSU marching band, Syrian Shrine, Cincinnati Gas & Electric, Liberty and Maysville community, as well as others. Because of this, he and Ada have traveled to many cities in the United States. The Walkers have three children: Jo Ann born Dec. 6, 1945; Timothy Lowell born Dec. 20, 1947 and Susan Jane born July 11, 1953; five grandchildren and three step-grandchildren. The Cahalls are a well-known family in Brown County, the ancestry tracing back to a Revolutionary War veteran James Cahil (Cahall) from Maryland who received a parcel of land in Lewis Township in Brown County as payment for his service. It's possible that white burley tobacco was first produced on land once owned by James Cahall. James is Ada's great-great-great-grandfather, and buried in the Shinkles Ridge Cemetery at the age of 103. Submitted by Lowell Walker.

WALL-The Brown County Wall family's forebears first came to Massachusetts from England in 1640, later living at Long Island, NY and Monmouth County, NJ. In 1766, brothers James and Walter Wall moved to western Pennsylvania. Both served in the Revolutionary War. This James's son, Walter, was engaged during the 1790s in flatboating supplies to early residents of Cincinnati. In 1798, he purchased the Heath Survey in Pleasant Township. Walter and his wife Elizabeth Applegate had a large family: Hester married George VanEmon; Abigail was unmarried; Sarah died in girlhood; James married Mary Ann Pangborn, daughter of Lines Pangborn. Asenath married James Young; Daniel; Mary married Henry Pierce; John; Elizabeth married John Pierce; William; and Ann married Griffith Leming. Walter Wall, his wife Elizabeth, and their son James are all buried in the large Wall Cemetery three miles south of Georgetown. Some later generations are buried at Fincastle.

Old Wall Family Farm House in 1984.

James Wall, born 1802 in Brown County, and his wife Mary Ann had four small children: Lucinda, Walter L., Daniel, and Hannah, and were expecting James H. Wall Jr., when James Sr. drowned in the Ohio River in 1830. Four years later, his widow, Mary Ann, married James McKee, 29 years her senior, and eight more children were born to this marriage. In 1857, Mary Ann Pangborn Wall McKee and her family moved via covered wagon to the vicinity of Carthage, IL and she and her second husband are buried there.

Walter L. Wall married Elizabeth Waters in 1846, Brown County, and their children were: James H., Margaret, Lilly, Mary Caroline, Franklin, Amada, Sarah, Ida, Charlie M. Wall, and Rosa.

Charlie Martin Wall married first Lizzie Preston and children were: Mamie and Grace. After Lizzie's death, he married her half-sister Mary Fleming, and children were: Mary Effie, Arthur, Floyd, and Hobart. Mary also died, and Charlie then married Iva Baker, of Highland County. Their children: Nellie who married Cary Faris and Robert, who married Martha Hawk.

More information about this family may be found in Stilwell's "Historical Miscellany", Vol. 5; "History of Allegheny County, PA"; Beers, "History of Brown County, OH", and several other local histories.

In 1992, descendant Robert Wall lives on Fincastle Road, having been born on a farm which straddles the Brown-Adams County line on the Fincastle Road. A photo of this historic house, which was part of the underground railroad of pre-Civil War days, was taken in 1984 and is included in this volume. Two daughters, Mary Caroline (Wall) Mers, and Nancy (Wall) Foster also live in the area. A third daughter, Jane Ellen Spadetti, lives in Washington, D.C. Submitted by Wilma Lorance.

NEVEL REDMOND WALLACE-My great-grandfather Nevel Redmond Wallace was born Nov. 10, 1839 in Russellville, Brown County, OH, the son of William Wallace (born 1806 in Mason County, KY) and Rachel Redman (born 1808 in Ohio).

Atlas and census records show William Wallace owned a 174-acre farm near Decatur, OH, and that he came to Brown County, OH, in 1816.

Nevel's obituary states he was one of 14 children. The following 11 siblings were found in census records: John T., Hiram N., William Jasper, Catherine, Peter H., James B., Sarah A., Mary, Robert H., Elizabeth A., and Lemuel B. Wallace.

Nevel Redmon and Mary Margaret (Edwards) Wallace

Nevel Redmond Wallace married Mary Margaret (Maggie) Edwards Sept. 12, 1861, in Georgetown, Brown County, OH. Mary Margaret Edwards was born May 16, 1843, in Russellville, Brown County, OH, to James Edwards (born Dec. 29, 1799) and Nancy Jacobs (born July 27, 1802). Nevel and Maggie's children were Mary Ann (born June 16, 1862), William Ellsworth (born July 26, 1863), and S. Lulu (born July 24, 1864).

Nevel enrolled in the 188th Ohio Regiment Feb. 13, 1865, at Russellville, OH, as a private in Co. K. His military pension records describe him at age 25 as five feet 11 inches tall, fair complexion, black eyes and dark auburn hair. His occupation was listed as a farmer. He contracted the mumps in the Civil War and was hospitalized with complications at Fortress Hospital, near Murfreesboro, TN, March 22 to April 21, 1865. He was mustered out with his company Sept. 21, 1865. His records show medical problems as a result of the mumps throughout his life.

According to a pension declaration statement dated 1909, by John W. Raines, Nevel and his family lived near Ripley, OH, until 1880; then lived in Stuart and Griswold, IA, until 1887, when he moved to Tarkio and Rockport, MO. Nevel's obituary (published in the "Atchison County Mail" in Rockport, MO) states that he came to Atchison County, MO, in February 1880, where he lived until his death, except for about seven years—from 1893 to 1900—when he lived in Adair and Cass counties, IA. So there are some discrepancies here in the two sources of when he lived in Iowa.

Nevel's daughters (S. Lulu and Mary Ann) married Adamson brothers (William J. and Samuel C.) and William Ellsworth married Isadora (Dora) Anderson. Their 13th child, Theodore Wallace, was my father. In 1900 Lulu died, and left five orphaned children that Nevel and Maggie raised.

In 1878 Margaret (Edwards) Wallace was licensed to preach by the Southern Ohio Conference of the Christian Conference of the Methodist Church in 1950. He is a prominent pastor in the Portsmouth District. They have adopted four children: Helen Jean, Lynda Marlene, Angela Sue, and Timothy Kris; (i) John D. Chandler, born June 27, 1924, married Laura Ruth "Peggy" Towler on March 31, 1944. They have one daughter, Julie Rae Chandler.

(3) Frank Chandler, the third son of John and Mary, married Norma Weghorst on September 9, 1909. They resided at Buena Vista, Scioto County. Frank worked at the profession of barbering until his death in June, 1942. Norma resides with her daughter, Frieda, in Portsmouth. Six children were born to Frank and Norma: (a) Mildred Helena Chandler, born August 15, 1910, married Arthur K. Beumler on August 9, 1931. One son, Arthur K. Beumler, Jr., was born to them; (b) Frieda May Chandler, born May 5, 1912, married Ben Elam on July 7, 1943. They have no children; (c) Charles Franklin Chandler, born on October 6, 1914, married Alycee Kegley, April 5, 1935. Of this union, one son, Larry Leon Chandler, was born; (d) Dorothy Ruth Chandler, born July 7, 1921, married William Ross Donohoe on July 23, 1939. Four children were born to them: Patricia Ann Beamer, Elizabeth Ross Steinberger, William Ross Donohoe, Jr., and Robert Franklin Donohoe; (e) Mary Maxine Chandler, born September 2, 1923, married Albert John Gemperline. Their five children are: Howard Francis Gemperline, Mary Margaret Slocum, Barbara Joanne Gemperline, Theresa Anna Gemperline, and Albert John Gemperline, II; (f) Howard Robert Chandler was born January 24, 1925, and has never married.

(4) William L. Chandler, youngest son of John and Mary, worked at a Portsmouth shoe factory, then on a gasoline boat owned by Joe Dydynski, during his teen years. In 1908, he began working at the Manchester Pearl Button Factory. Bill married Cora Treftz on June 27, 1909. On their honeymoon they were serenaded on a pleasure boat, The Queen City. They made their home in Manchester where they have lived ever since. In 1913, Bill clerked in Lang's grocery. In 1914, he began working for French-Bauer Creamery Company. He gathered cream and maintained a cream station in the building which stands on the north side of Second Street, east of Washington Street, in Manchester. He and his drivers, with their mule-drawn wagons, and later trucks, collected from the territory including Blue Creek, Churn Creek, Cherry Fork, West Union, Ellison Ridge, Gift Ridge, Island Creek, Ripley, Aberdeen, Beasley Fork, Ginger Ridge, Brier Ridge, Liberty Township, and many customers from Kentucky. During the Depression, French-Bauer couldn't afford to pay over nine cents per pound for cream, but Bill paid his suppliers ten cents. The price has been as high as 80 cents. At the cream station, Bill sold all kinds of cream equipment, such as milkers, separators, and coolers. He also sold many farm seeds. He retired in 1959, after serving the same company for 45 years. Bill then took up the art of cane weaving, and his many customers kept him very busy. Arthritis in his knees forced him to quit in 1968. Bill and Cora have lived the past 51 years in the same house on East Seventh Street. They have a daughter, Juanita, born July 10, 1910, who married Charles Clinger on April 3, 1929. Children born to them were: Billy Charles Clinger, Sue Miranda, and Greta Gail Clinger who died at age four. Bill and Cora have a son, Robert, born March 17, 1915, who married, first, Greta Gail Hazelbaker, who died in 1961, and second, to Mildred McClung. Robert has no children.

(B) William H. Chandler, second son of Isaac and Margaret, married Jessie Lee Vance on January 25, 1899. She was born in 1872, a daughter of Albert G. Vance and Sarah Jane Stout, of Adams County. William was a farmer, renting bottom-land along the river near his birthplace. William died July 4, 1926, Jessie on March 5, 1918. They had five children: (1) Samuel Chandler, who died when only two weeks old in December, 1899; (2) Martha A. Chandler, who lived from 1901 to 1916; (3) Maude H. Chandler, born in 1905, died in 1955, unmarried; (4) Ora Forrest Chandler, born December 2, 1906, married Nellie Shelton on April 8, 1931. Forrest farms the land in the same area as his father did. Their children are: (a) Thomas Eugene Chandler, born July 15, 1936, married on September 4, 1955, to Shirley Cox. He is employed at General Electric in Cincinnati. Their three children are: Deborah Kay Chandler, Patricia Ann Chandler, and Steven Ray Chandler. (b) Doris Ann Chandler, born June 20, 1942, married Michael Wells on September 1, 1962. They have a daughter Michelle "Shelly" Wells, and a son, Robert Kelly Wells. (5) Mary Margaret Chandler, born May 28, 1909, married Wesley Roush on December 28, 1927. Their daughter, Margaret Ruth Roush, born October 5, 1928, married Ernie Vaught, and had two sons, Paul and Mark Vaught.

(C) Charles "C.D." Chandler, third son of Isaac and Margaret, married Anna Ellison, in Manchester, on November 3, 1886. Annie was born in 1860. They resided near his parents' original farm, in the Ohio River valley of Monroe Township. He dealt in some real estate both in Adams County and in Lewis County, Kentucky, across the river. He was also known to residents of Concord, Ky., for his trade in fence posts, which he cut in Adams County and boated across the river to the railroad stop. The posts were shipped miles away to be resold. "C.D." was also known in Adams County politics for holding the office of Monroe Township Recorder in 1892. Charles died in 1934, and Anna in 1941. Their five children were (1) Claude Coleman Chandler, born April 27, 1887, married Savilla May Blythe on December 23, 1909. She was a daughter of Nathan Blythe and Sarah Johnson. Claude and Savilla's children: (a) Helen Chandler, lived from 1915 to 1934; (b) Charles Edward Chandler, born August 27, 1917, married Betty Nixon on September 24, 1938. Their three children are: Charles Edward Chandler, Jr., Barbara Ann Fisher, and Bryan MacArthur Chandler; (c) Ruth Chandler, born December 28, 1926, married, first to Paul Tumbleson on February 7, 1943, and had three children: Paulina Sue McGlothlin, Ronald Coleman Tumbleson, and Carl Edward Tumbleson. Ruth was married, second, to James Hackthorne in October, 1958. (2) Miner Earl Chandler, second child of C.D. and Anna, was born in 1889 and died in 1890. (3) Carey E. Chandler was born February 24, 1891, and died in 1938. He never married. (4) Isaac Newton Chandler was born March 22, 1893. He married Mary Cavanaugh. Nothing more is known of this family. (5) Ruth Chandler was born in 1896 and died in 1897.—Compiled by: Mrs. Carolyn Chandler Innis, 6476 Gaines Avenue, Cincinnati, Ohio 45239

IN WHICH WE ASK ABOUT JOHN CHAPMAN

The following letter (in part) was written to a friend by Reverend Carl Edson Chapman, of the Midway, Pennsylvania Methodist Church, under date of January 18, 1943. Mr. Chapman was seeking relatives or any other family connections of John Chapman, a brother of Henry Chapman, an early settler in Brown County, Ohio. The letter deals mostly with Adams County, Ohio, hence its inclusion in this volume on this county. It reads:

"The wife of John Chapman was Rebecca Peace. Her brother gave her an inscribed, ornamented brass tobacco box when she was twelve years of age, and just before he left home to serve in the Revolutionary War. Rebecca was born in 1767 or thereabouts. Her husband, John Chapman, was born in or near 1763.

"Later, John Chapman and his wife settled on a tract of land containing 640 acres in Meigs Township, Adams County, Ohio. The choice of land was a good one being very level and well wooded. The clearing of portions of this tract were still taking place while I was a boy, and many are the memories I have in which fires from the piles of burning underbrush lit the sky.

"As I recollect, the original log house built by John Chapman was not far from the western edge of the tract, near a stream, and in a well protected valley about one mile from Steam Furnace. Possibly my ancestor had something to do with the old iron furnace from which came the name 'Steam Furnace'. He may also have had something to do with the grist mill in the same locality.

Chapman m. 25 Dec 1811 Litchfield Co. Ct Clarinda Matilda Naylor

"Ten children were born to John and Rebecca (Peace) Chapman, and quite likely they were all born in this log house 'under the hill', as that portion of the tract was referred to later on. I might here refer to the fact that a seam of iron ore came out of the cliff just across from the log house.

"The children were: Nathaniel, Henry, Joseph, Elizabeth, Mary, Rachel, Rebecca, Ann and William." (Editor's note: While Mr. Chapman writes there were ten children in this family, he names only nine. It is believed that perhaps one died as an infant.) "Ann, Rebecca, Rachel, Mary and William, I know, made their home in Adams County. I do not know where Elizabeth, Henry or Nathaniel lived during their lives. Joseph went to Indiana and became a well-known politician in that State during the period just before the Civil War. He was credited with originating the rooster as a symbol for the Democratic Party. At least on one occasion, the newspapers of Indianapolis used large headlines to say: 'Crow, Chapman, Crow'. Aunt Bet told me of a trip in which Joseph's son, Van Dexter Chapman, made to Adams County to visit his Ohio relatives. Another son of Joseph's, named John A. Chapman, retired from work as a carpenter in the railroad yards in Indianapolis, and came to Adams County to make his home with my Grandma Chapman and Aunt Bet and my Aunt May about 1890.

"We always called John A. Chapman 'Uncle John', although he really was a cousin. He told me that in coming to such a remote place as Adams County, he was afraid that some of the commodities he liked so well might not be obtainable, so he brought with him a full box of Star chewing tobacco and a two-gallon jug of whiskey.

"His weekly trips to Peebles meant a discussion with some Republican on tariffs or other political subjects. He was great to argue on any subject, and he was well-read. He was a skeptic in religion and I credit him with raising such questions in my young mind that led via agnosticism in my search for the significant values of religion, causing me eventually, to enter the ministry."

Data for nine of John and Rebecca (Peace) Chapman's children were included in the writer's letter. This information follows:

(1) Nathaniel Chapman was born January 30, 1790 and married to Sarah Wiggins on May 16, 1816. Their children: Mary, born in 1817, and Matilda Ann, born in 1820.

(2) Henry Chapman was born March 3, 1792 and married Nancy Curry on January 22, 1825. Their children, William, and John A., never married.

(3) Joseph Chapman was born February 19, 1796 and married Jane Curry, no date of marriage given. Their children were: John A., born in 1827 and died in 1901; Simon Bolivar, Jane and Van Dexter.

(4) Elizabeth Chapman was born December 3, 1797 and married John Smith on March 27, 1815. Their children were: Rebecca Smith, born in 1816; Henry O. Smith, born August 15, 1817; Rachel, born in 1821; Reuben, born in 1823; and Andrew, born in 1827.

(5) Mary Peace Tap Chapman was born November 2, 1799 and married Andrew Murphy on June 27, 1827. Their children were: James (a captain), married Liza Crabb; John; Sarah Ann Murphy, who married James Berry. The Berry children were: Charles, who married Annie Treber; Amy, who married Bert Butler; Mary, Fred and Beatrice.

(6) Rachel Chapman was born December 19, 1801 and married a Donohue. She married secondly, a man named Crabb. Children by Donohue: William Henry Donohue, born in 1828; Rebecca Ann Donohue; Narcissus Donohue, married a man named Shaw; and Lib Donohue, who became the second wife of Amos King.

(7) Rebecca Chapman was born September 16, 1803 and married Jacob Forsythe. Their children were: Anne, born in 1829; Easter, born January 27, 1833; June, born in 1825; Abraham, born in 1837; John, born in 1839; and William, born in 1841.

(8) Ann Chapman was born September 15, 1805 and married James Young. Their children were Joseph and Darius Young. Joseph went over to the Mormons as a missionary.

(9) William Chapman was born January 19, 1810, and he died in 1865. William was married to Margaret Crawford.

David Daniel m. Elizabeth Taylor

10) This tenth child was not named, if, in fact, there were ten childen.

The preceding information has been furnished us by Meryl B. Markley, 426 Main Street, Georgetown, Ohio 45121, who will be pleased to learn more about ascending or descending relaties of this family. She states that she has since learned that Henry and John Chapman had a sister who married a Reuben Gill in Kentucky. Reuben Gill was a brother of Frances Gill Crabb, who married Henry Chapman, brother of John. Frances Gill Crabb was the widow of Vincent Crabb. Note that one of John's daughters (Elizabeth Smith) named one of her children Reuben. If anyone has information on this family, kindly contact the Editor of this book or Mrs. Markley.

THE COLE FAMILY OF ADAMS COUNTY

by Elsie Ewing Rayburn

Ephriam Cole and his wife, Sophia A. Mitchell, were raised on adjoining plantations along the Susquehanna River, near Chesapeake Bay in Maryland. They were married in 1773 and soon thereafter, followed the trail of Daniel Boone into Kentucky. They settled first in Williamsburg, in 1788, but in 1794, they came to Manchester. Mr. Cole built a house near Cole's Spring and here the family of four sons and five daughters were under the constant teaching and untiring efforts of their ambitious mother. The remittance she received from her Maryland plantation made the fight for a higher education possible. At that time there were no schools in Adams County, but somewhat later, "Dewey's Grammar School", of West Union, became the first co-educational school to be called a college. Early Adams County history gives sketches of three sons of this couple, and in one sketch it mentions four sons: Ephriam, Leonard, Allen and James; five daughters, but names only three: Ada, Zilla and Elizabeth.

The son, Ephriam, has no record here. Leonard, born in 1788, in Hartford County, Maryland, came with his parents into Kentucky and then Ohio. He was one of the early teachers of the county and it is said he introduced the custom of "flogging" all the scholars in the room if one did any mischief. He was the Auditor of the county by appointment, and elected from 1831 to March, 1844. Leonard married a Miss McDonald and they raised a large family. He was not always the model citizen, but was a devoted Methodist in his later years. His ungodly life and drinking made life so miserable for his Christian wife she was forced to leave him. He then shipped on a flat boat for New Orleans and came back via steamboat. In the night it ran onto a snag and sank just a short distance from Memphis, Tennessee. Mr. Cole swam to a snagged tree and held on for his life. Being afraid he would not be discovered and would be left there to drown, he vowed to the Lord that if rescued, he would devote the rest of his life to His service. He was rescued, and upon returning home he hunted up his wife and was reconciled with her. He joined church and afterwards maintained family worship. Many tales are told of his interrupting his prayer to drive the cats and dogs out of the kitchen or to serve a neighbor with milk or any other necessary work. In 1838, his first wife died and the next year he married her niece of the same name. He died in 1857 and was buried at Brooksville, Kentucky.

James Mitchell Cole was born in Hartford County, Maryland in 1799 and came with his parents to this county in 1794. He was in the War of 1812 and obtianed a military land grant for this service. From 1830 to 1839 (when he removed to Lewis County, Kentucky), he served the county as sheriff and county commissioner. He died on a farm near Vanceburg, Kentucky, in 1860. His wife was Nancy Collings, a daughter of James and Christian Collings. She was

THE CHAPMAN FAMILY

Early life of the Chapman family is sketchy but it was learned that Henry Chapman, (great-grandfather of Lena, Lola, Mary and Willie Chapman), settled along Straight Creek in an old log house when he returned to Ohio after serving in the American Army of the Revolution. He, as well as all of his immediate family were buried in a small cemetery near the Chapman homestead. All the other members of the Chapman family are buried in Pisgah Cemetery except Edgar, who was interred at Lemmon, North Dakota.

Francis Marion Chapman, son of Henry, + Phoebe married Sarepta P. Smith after he returned from the Civil War. His ca1838 birth, marriage and death dates are unknown, but Sarepta P. was born April 17, 1847, and died May 17, 1891. bur. Pisgah Rdg. Cem. Seven children were born to this couple: Albert A., Henry W., Wilbur S., Edgar F., Benny, Minnie Frances and Anna Rebecca. Their birth and death dates are as follows:

Albert Allen Chapman, born October 7, 1866 - died September 8, 1941 bur. Pisgah Rdg Cem.
Henry Wilson Chapman, born October 16, 1868 - died January 3, 1933
Henry never married and died at Morristown, South Dakota, but was buried in Pisgah Cemetery. Span. Amer. War Vet
Minnie Frances Chapman, born September 3, 1871, died October 17, 1932 m. 3 June 1896 Charles J. Mitchell
Benny Chapman, born July 5, 1876, death date unknown, never married.
Smith Tbst Wilbur Scott Chapman, born June 7, 1880, died November 21, 1959 bur. Pisgah Rdg Cem. W. VA PVT Co H 3rd Regt O I Sp. Amer. War m. Olive Singer 1879-1946 bur. same Sn Robert Clifton
Anna Rebecca Chapman, born May 22, 1883, is presently living in Alhambra, California. m. John Champion
Edgar Francis Chapman, born August 28, 1888, death date unknown, is buried in Lemmon, South Dakota. m. Emma Langer

Albert Allen Chapman married Isa Edith Denniston b 28 Oct 1866 on August 9, 1885, Br Co, OH Vol 13:563 Rev. J. P. Daugherty officiating. In his youth, Mr. Chapman attended seminary at Berea, Kentucky. It was his mother's wish that he become a minister of the Gospel. However, shortly after his marriage, he set himself up in the general store business at Center Point, in the Straight Creek neighborhood where he successfully operated a huckster business in connection with his store until September 19, 1903, at which time he removed his business to Levanna where he continued as a successful merchant until 1940. At this time he sold his business because of ill health. Mr. Chapman operated a grist mill and gasoline filling station in connection with his store. He was also the last Postmaster at Levanna which position he held for many years until the advent of Rural Free Delivery. His place of business was a way station for the O. R. & C. Railroad. In early life Albert Chapman was very active in the affairs of Pisgah Church where he was a valued member of the choir. He made at least two trips south on flat boats, one with Winfield S. Pangburn. In fact, he was an active man until his death which occurred September 8, 1941. His wife preceded him in death on bur. Pisgah Rdg. Cem. January 12, 1898. To this union four children were born: Mary Jane, Lena Gertrude, Lola Kate (twins), and William Frances.

Mary Jane Chapman was born November 28, 1885 and died February 4, 1954. She never married and clerked in her father's store for many years. She is buried in Pisgah Cemetery.

Lena Gertrude Chapman, born July 20, 1890, was married to Lucien Albert Stevens on October 9, 1936. He is the son of L. S. Stevens and the former Margaret N. Henry. Albert served in the Spanish American War, being attached to Company H, 3rd Ohio Volunteer Infantry. He also served in World War I, Company M, 148th Infantry Division. Albert's service during the war was more than remarkable, and he was personally awarded the Meritorious Service Medal by the King of Belgium. He was taken prisoner November 4, 1918 and was released within a few days due to the signing of the Armistice on November 11, 1918. In later life Albert gave freely of his services as Veteran's Services Officer of Brown County, Ohio, a position he held for twelve years. Among other affiliations, he was a Life Member of the Disabled American Veterans. No children were born to this couple who presently reside in Levanna, Ohio. (See the Stevens family history).

Lola Kate Chapman, born July 20, 1890, married Ralph Stevens on October 5, 1910. As the dates indicate, they were married over fifty years. Ralph was a brother of Albert Stevens, his father's name was L. S. Stevens and his mother's was Margaret N. Henry. For many years Ralph was a carpenter and followed his trade with the Barrett Mill & Lumber Company. Later, he became an authority on tobacco, raising the weed during the summer and working as a qulity grader in the tobacco houses during the winter. Ralph was very well-known and respected by all who knew him. He died October 6, 1961 and is buried in Pisgah Cemetery. No children were born to this marriage. His wife Lola, presently lives with her sister and brother-in-law, Mr. & Mrs. Albert Stevens, Levanna, Ohio (See the Stevens family history).

William "Willie" Francis Chapman, born November 26, 1882, married on June 26, 1926, Miss Laura Alma Carson. He died October 25, 1958, and is buried in Cincinnati, Ohio, where his wife presently lives. No children were born to this couple.

Minnie Frances Chapman, daughter of Br. Co., OH Vol 18:498 J.P. Daugherty MG Francis M. and Sarepta (Smith) Chapman, married Charles J. Mitchell on June 3, 1896. They had four children: Nellie Kate, who married U. McCall Richey and who reside in Augusta, Kentucky; Cary Lee Mitchell, who never married, death date not available; Beulah Gertrude, who married Charles R. Pride; and Anna Lou Mitchell who never married. Other details of the family of Francis M. Chapman are lacking but it is known that Wilbur S. Chapman married Olive I. Singer. They had a son, Robert Clifton who is married and lives in Nitro, West Virginia. Anna Rebecca Chapman married John Champion. Edgar F. Chapman married Emma Langer.

NOTES ON THE CHAPMAN FAMILY

Lena Gertrude and Lola Kate were twins and they married brothers. Henry W. Chapman was a Spanish American War Veteran. Edgar F. Chapman served in the United States Navy during peace time. Wilbur S. Chapman was also a Spanish American War Veteran. Benny Chapman was a school teacher at Sisterville, Virginia. He died of typhoid fever while quite young. The parents of Isa E. Denniston were: William Maxwell Denniston, born June 11, 1832, died April 4, 1900; Elvenia Martin (Savage) Denniston born February 21, 1840, died January 13, 1910. They were married February 21, 1856. William Maxwell Denniston was a Civil War Veteran. They had four sons and four daughters as follows: William, Henry, Isa E., Leander, Sarepta B., Elizabeth, Mary Louella and John.

THE STEVENS FAMILY

Lucien S. Stevens, born May 3, 1850, was united in marriage to Maggie G. Henry on February 15, 1871. The Reverend F. F. Shaw officiated and W. L. Dunham was witness. Maggie was born April 14, 1851, and was the daughter of John Y. and Malinda Henry. Six children were born to this couple during their residence in Ripley, Ohio; Jennie, born November 29, 1870; William Stanley, born May 27, 1872, died March 14, 1874; Ralph, born August 19, 1876, died October 7, 1960; Infant son, birth and death dates unknown; Lucien Albert, born February 2, 1880; and Charles A., born December 25, 1883, died in 1929. The death date of Lucien S. Stevens is not known.

Jennie Stevens married William Henry on November 30, 1892. They had a son, William Earl Henry, who, with his family, now live in Orlando, Florida.

Ralph Stevens married Lola Kate Chapman (Twin) on October 5, 1910. For many years Ralph farmed and in later life became an expert grader of tobacco on the Ripley Tobacco Market. He is buried in Pisgah Cemetery. No children were born to this couple. (See the Chapman family).

Lucien Albert Stevens married Lena Gertrude Chapman (twin) on October 9, 1936. Albert was a Sergeant in World War I. Other details of his life are included in the Chapman family history. Two of his uncles, William Stewart Henry and John Henry served in the Civil War, Company E, 7th Ohio Cavalry. John Henry became a prisoner of war and was confined at Atlanta, Georgia. After the war, William S. Henry made his home with his sister, Mrs. Maggie G. Stevens, where he helped to raise her children to adulthood.

Charles A. Stevens was married to Lola F. Morris on November 21, 1907, by the Rev. T. W. Salt. They had two sons, C. Richard Stevens and Harold D. Stevens. C. Richard is a professional undertaker in the Kennedy-Stevens Funeral Home at Bethel, Ohio. Richard's oldest son Dan, is also a licensed mortician and works with his father. The other son, Don, is a student in the Bethel school. Richard's wife is the former Ruth Miller. Harold D. Stevens and wife Zella (Elliot), live in Deer Park, Cincinnati, Ohio.

OBITUARY.

TRISLER.—Died at her home in Lincoln County, Kentucky, Dec. 23rd, after an illness of five days, Mrs. Jas. Trisler.

She was born and lived the greater part of her life of 73 years in Clermont County, O., and was the mother of eleven children, three of whom were summoned to the celestial city in infancy. Husband and eight children mourn her loss, but not as "those who have no hope." Yes sisters, brothers, father, mother has left us—has gone to that happy land, where sickness, sorrow, pain and death never come. Though to us Christmas was so dark, we know she was happy with her Savior. O, mother! the word thrills my very soul! Her memory while she lived was sacred. Now that she is gone it becomes a perpetual inspiration. We loved the light of that smile that has faded from us now, and in our hearts lingers the sweet voice that now is hushed in death. A seat is vacant in the dear old home that none can ever fill. Our hearts are desolate, but we know she has passed with her love to "that land from whose bourne no traveler returns." Shall we never see her again? She will return to us no more, but we can go to her. God help us, one and all, that this dark cloud of trial may draw us upward, make us less earthly, more heavenly, and may God-like aspirations come to us, as we wander along the border land where dwells our sainted mother. We cannot keep society with the sainted dead, and with the great God in whose presence they dwell, without feeling a nobler life throbbing through us, There is a voice from mother's tomb sweeter than song—a remembrance to which we turn from the charms of the living.

Oh, the grave! the grave! the grave of our dear, faithful, unselfish, tender, loving, patient mother—what a place for meditation! There we call up in long review the whole history of virtue and gentleness, and the thousand endearments lavished upon us almost unheeded in our childhood at home. Aye, go to the grave of the buried mother and meditate! There settle the account with thy conscience for every past benefit unrequited, every past endearment disregarded, of that departed being who can never—never—never return to be soothed by thy contrition! May we dear sisters and brothers henceforth be more faithful and affectionate in the discharge of our duties to the living.

REV. JAMES H. TRISLER.

Rev. James H. Trisler, a pioneer resident of Brown County, O., died at Maple, in that county, on Monday, June 25, 1900. He was born on October 1, 1823, and was one of a family of eighteen children, the majority of whom located in that neighborhood. On June 20, 1844, he married Jane P. Smith, who was also widely connected in Brown County. She died December 23, 1894, at Eubank, Ky., shortly after the celebration of their golden wedding anniverary. Eleven children were born to them, eight of whom lived to maturity. On March 10, 1896, he married Phoebe L. Smith, of Maple, who survives him.

Rev. Trisler had been failing for several months, and the end was not a surprise. The funeral services were held at Maple on Tuesday, June 26, Rev. Mr. Dawson officiating, and the interment was made in Mt. Zion Cemetery.

Only two of the children were enabled to attend the services—Will Trisler, of Mt. Orab, O., and Mrs. Emma D. Sanford, of Bellevue, Ky., the oldest and youngest of the children. The other children are Mrs. Phoebe Camary, Neville, O.; Mrs. Rella Ogden, Barterville, Ky.; Mrs. Belle Wilson, Osage City, Kan.; Max Trisler, Bellevue, Ky., and Mrs. Laura Jackson, Barterville, Ky. Another daughter, Mrs. Melissa Mann, of Carlisle, Ky., died last October after undergoing a surgical operation. There are twenty-seven grandchildren.

Rev. Trisler was a subscriber to and an admirer of the Weekly Gazette.

(Melissa) [illegible] d. 13 Oct. 1899

MANN.—At Christ's Hospital, Cincinnati, last Friday morning, as a result of a surgical operation, Mrs. J. P. Mann, of this city, aged 38 years. Mrs. Mann had been afflicted for some time and under instructions from her physicians had gone to Cincinnati to undergo, what she knew was a dangerous operation, and while the result was not unexpected, it was a great shock to her family and friends. Mrs. Mann had been a teacher in the Carlisle Graded School for five years, and had become one of our most useful and beloved women. Her funeral at the Christian Church Saturday was attended by a large crowd of her relatives and friends, and by her pupils in a body. Eld. Tinder's remarks were most touching, and the entire audience was in tears. She leaves a husband and two young daughters.

The following resolutions were adopted at a meeting of the teachers of the City School:

RESOLUTIONS.

WHEREAS, By a mysterious providence death has come into our midst and taken from us one of our number in the person of Mrs. Lissa Mann, teacher in the Primary Department of the City School;

Resolved, That in her death we feel that a stroke has been given the material interest of the school to which she was so earnestly devoting her thoughts and labor. We feel that in her loss the little children have been deprived of a friend whose place will be hard to fill. Her work was always well done. It was her highest ambition to have the little ones in her care develop into noble boys and girls,

Resolved, That we as teachers and coworkers with her, feeling the great loss to her home, hereby tender to her family our sincere sympathy in this hour of sore bereavement.

Resolved, That we ask for the publication of these resolutions in the CARLISLE MERCURY, and that a copy be sent to the family.

Manning Family

Manning—a surname found in Clermont County from 1795 to the present day. During that time span, at least four unrelated Manning family lines have resided within its boundaries. The earliest group was that of Nathaniel Manning, Sr. and his wife, Jane. Numerous references have been made in earlier published records to some of the members of this family and an extensive family genealogy is being compiled for publication. Their known residence before coming to Clermont County was that part of Northumberland County, Pennsylvania now known as Snyder County. Prior to their proven residence there in 1785, it is believed they were natives of New Jersey and had resided in Sussex County. Their connection to the Jeffrey Manning family has not, as yet, been firmly established.

Another Manning family is that of Thomas Manning, Revolutionary soldier who is buried in Clermont County. Thomas was born 15 June 1764, Stafford, Ct., and died 22 Dec. 1853, Ohio Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio, the son of Phineas Manning whose lineage and descendants are recorded in the Manning Genealogy by Wm. H. Manning.

The third Manning family is that of Daniel Manning (b. 1775/6 N.J., d. 1849 Cincinnati, Ohio), through his sons, John and Francis C. Manning, who took up residence in the area prior to 1840. They are descendants of Jeffrey and Hepzibah (Andrews) Manning of Piscataway, N.J. and are related to the Samuel Manning line in Warren Co., Ohio.

The fourth Manning family is that of Elisha Manning, b. ca 1775 Norwich, Ct., son of William Manning, Revolutionary soldier who settled first in Tioga Twp., Lycoming Co., Pa. and by 1809 comes to Franklin Co., Ohio. Elisha enlisted in the army there in 1815 and served five years, most of that time at Newport, Ky. By 1830, Elisha and his wife, Lucy, had moved to Neville, Washington Twp., Clermont Co., Ohio. Although Elisha and his wife move on to Bracken Co., Ky., at least two of their children, Hiram and John, come back to Clermont County. Descendants of the latter reside near Moscow, Ohio. Unfortunately, the previously published accounts of Clermont County Mannings sometimes confused this line with that of Elisha, son of Nathaniel and Jane mentioned in the beginning.

There are brief appearances of other Manning-Mannon families whose connections have not been clearly established. One family had its origin in Va. and Ky. and do not arrive until much later. Another family is believed to be part of the Mannon family of Adams, Brown and Highlar Counties due to the consistent spelling of the name as Ma non.

Mother of Absalom M. Manning

Sarah (Coffman) Manning

Absalom M. Manning
(1825-1893)

Manning

My family members were: Dorothy (Magill) Walters, 1912; Robert Dale Magill, b. 1888, d. 1918; Dora Helms, 1891, d. 1976; John W. Magill, b. 1848, d. 1926; Eliza Ja (Jenny) Manning, b. 1857, d. 1936; Absalom M. Manni b. 1825, Clermont Co., Ohio, d. 1893, Mo.; Sarah Co man, b. 1822, Clermont Co., d. 1903.

The following is copied from handwriting on the fr page of the family Bible belonging to my great grandfath Absalom M. Manning, which shows he was a native of Cl mont Co.:

"A.M. and Sarah (Coffman) Manning were born a raised in Clermont County, Ohio and migrated from th to Owen Co., Indiana, in the fall of 1856 and from there

Sullivan Co., Missouri, April 15, 1872; from there to Shelby Missouri, March 1, 1888.

A.M. Manning died in Shelbina, Mo., Feb. 22, 1893."

These Mannings moved around a bit more also for Absalom and Sarah Manning are in the 1850 Brown Co. census and I have Absalom's Master Masons Diploma dated 10 Sept. 1855, Felicity, Ohio.

The above Sarah Coffman was the dau. of John and Susan Coffman. The following information on them is from "Monument Inscriptions prior to 1900 from cemeteries of Clermont Co., Ohio:" Wells Cem., 1 mile east of Mt. Olive Tate Twp.; John Coffman, b. 12 May 1782, d. 17 Oct. 1874; Susan Coffman, b. 1 Apr. 1799, d. 14 Apr. 1871.

This John and Susan Coffman were great, great grandparents of mine. Another interesting fact is information on a loose paper found in my Manning Bible. It tells of family data on Elisha Manning, a name appearing in the early history of Clermont Co., as well as those of his sons.

Elisha Manning was born Jan. 8, 1766.

Jane Manning, wife of Elisha Manning, was born Jan. 14, 1772.

Elizabeth Manning was born Feb. 2, 1793.
Joshua Manning was born June 8, 1795.
Absalom Manning was born May 26, 1797.
Jane Manning was born June 16, 1799.
Mary Manning was born June 6, 1801.
John Manning was born July 20, 1804.

Rachel Manning, wife of Elisha Manning was born July 27. 1775.

Ann Manning was born April 27, 1810.
Rebecca Manning was born March 21, 1812.
Elisha T. Manning was born June 3, 1815.
Sarah Manning was born Sept. 20, 1817.
Jemima Manning was born Feb. 9, 1820.

Marck

In 1852 Peter Marck and his bride Catharine left Bertring, France, and came to America. They lived in Cincinnati until 1856, at which time Peter moved his family to New Richmond, Ohio. By now the growing Marck family consisted of Peter and his wife, Catharine, the mother of his wife, Catharine Lambourg, and three sons: Christopher, Joseph and Nicholas. Little Nicholas was not to live. He died in 1858 at 1½ years of age.

When the "War of 1861", the Civil War, started, a girl child, Anna Mary Catharine, had been born. Peter left his occupation of "brewer" and enlisted in Grant's Army of the Republic on 3 October 1861. Being enrolled in Company M, 5th Regiment of the Ohio Volunteer Cavalry. Catharine was pregnant and would give birth the following May to their fifth child, who was also named Nicholas. While serving the Union Army Peter became ill with fever (possibly malaria) at LaGrange, Tennessee, and after being hospitalized in Memphis, was discharged on 16 March 1863.

Four more children were born to this couple: Joseph Leopold, Mary Josephine, Theresa "Daisy" and Fredrick August.

(1) Christopher (1852-1914) married Sarah Dansberry. Seven children. (2) Joseph (1854-1923) married Mary Anna Dyer. No children. (3) Nicholas (1856-1858) died in childhood. (4) Anna Mary Catharine (1859-1932) never married. (5) Nicholas II (1862-1927) married Eva Wirth. Six children. (6) Joseph Leopold (1864-1930) married Elizabeth Hulshult. One child. (7) Mary Josephine (1867-1904) married Curtis Dansberry. Two children. (8) Theresa "Daisy" (1870-1952) married John McDulin. Three children. (9) Fredrick August (1873-1943) never married.

Peter and Catharine continued to live and rear their family in New Richmond until their deaths. Peter in 1885 and Catharine in 1905.

Nicholas II married Eva Wirth, daughter of Remegius Wirth and Amelia Hartman, on 12 October 1898. An infant male was born and died the same day in 1899. Five more children were born:

(1) Tolence Nicholas (1900-1966) married Dorothy May Tilton. They had six children: Virginia Margaret (Nelson) Roth, Dorothy Josephine Snider, Mary Frances McElfresh, Janet Rose Mallony, Thomas Nicholas and Paul Fredrick. (2) John Lawrence (1903) married Margaret Mary Neubauer. They had four children: Lawrence George, Robert David, and James Ernst. Another child was stillborn. (3) Joseph Valentine (1904-1977) married Marie McDowell. They had two children: Helen Marie Daniel and Donna Jo Hammons. (4) William Emmett (1907) married Mildred Lucille Girton. They had three children: Mary Eva, Charles William and Margaret Ann. (5) Mary Magdalen (1908) married Howard Dale Neal. They had three children: Richard Dale, Elizabeth Jean Curso and Mary Ann Babylon.

Nicholas died in 1927 and Eva in 1940. The descendants of Peter and Catharine Marck are numerous and continue to live in New Richmond, Ohio and the surrounding area and throughout the United States.

The Maple Tree

Although I have yet to find a Clermont County ancestor, my roots are now growing here with the help of my four children.

All available evidence indicates that practically all persons who have the surname "Maple" or the variation "Mapel" in this country are descended from Benjamin and Elizabeth Lee Mapel, who were married in the house of Thomas Revell, Justice of the Peace and agent for the West-Jersey proprietors, at Burlington, New Jersey.

Benjamin Mapel was a weaver and land owner of New Brunswick and Middlesex County, New Jersey. In 1689 he was one of the founders of Maidenhead (now Lawrenceville, Mercer County) Burlington Co., N.J. He died 1727, survived by the widow Elizabeth, a step-son, David Lee, a son Benjamin Mapel, Jr. and daughters, Catherine Mapel Mallot and Ruth Mapel Ashley. Benjamin Mapel, Jr., and wife Sarah were the parents of a large family, many of Each claim made about your ancestor must be proven. Each proving document you submit should be identified by giving it a letter (A, B, C, etc.) and clearly writing its identifying letter on the front. DO NOT SUBMIT ORIGINAL DOCUMENTS. Copies of documents may be (1) photo or other facsimiles of the originals or (2) exact typed or hand-printed copies of the original certified as true copies by a court house official, genealogical librarian or other official. The source of each document should be indicated on the front.

Fill out the chart. In each small square (found at the end of the lines) put the number of the footnote line (below) on which you cite the documents (including their identifying letters) which prove the claim to be true. For example, suppose you claim that Jane Roe died on 7 May 1847. On a blank footnote line cite the document which shows that this is so and write the number of that footnote line in the appropriate square. (Example: ....The said Jane Roe died on 7 May 1847 at Athens County Ohio. ☐6 .... Footnote line 7. Death certificate -- document F). Add additional squares if needed.
